George Sand A Brave Man The Most Womanly Woman:

George Sand Donna Dickenson, 1989 George Sand and Autobiography J.A. Hiddleston, 2017-12-02 This book discusses George Sand's autobiography Histoire de ma Vie from a variety of perspectives thematic structural and stylistic and examines the often contradictory images of the author narrator that emerge in particular from Sand's confused and ambivalent attitude to her gender At each point Sand's intriguing work is placed in the context of modern autobiographical and feminist theory and measured against the conventions of traditional male autobiography What emerges is a hybrid androgynous text that combines different modes and voices giving a unique access to the person of the author herself both as she wished to appear and as she appears in spite of herself The Female Romantics Caroline Franklin, 2012-09-10 Awarded the Elma Dangerfield Prize by the International Byron Society in 2013 The nineteenth century is sometimes seen as a lacuna between two literary periods In terms of women's writing however the era between the death of Mary Wollstonecraft and the 1860s feminist movement produced a coherent body of major works impelled by an ongoing dialogue between Enlightenment feminism and late Romanticism This study focuses on the dynamic interaction between Lord Byron and Madame de Staël Lady Morgan Mary Shelley and Jane Austen challenging previous critics segregation of the male Romantic writers from their female peers The Romantic movement in general unleashed the creative ambitions of nineteenth century female novelists and the public voice of Byron in particular engaged them in transnational issues of political national and sexual freedom Byronism had itself been shaped by the poet's incursion onto a literary scene where women readers were dominant and formidable intellectuals such as Madame de Staël were lionized Byron engaged in rivalrous dialogue with the novels of his female friends and contemporaries such as Caroline Lamb Mary Shelley and Jane Austen whose critiques of Romantic egotism helped prompt his own self parody in Don Juan Later Victorian novelists such as George Sand the Brontë sisters and Harriet Beecher Stowe wove their rejection of their childhood attraction to Byronism and their dawning awareness of the significance for women of Lady Byron's actions into the feminist fabric of their art George Sand and Idealism Naomi Schor, 1993 A reanalysis of Sand's major writing ranging from her early short stories to her later fiction which identifies her writing as an example of an aesthetic mode often associated with femininity The study compares Sand's place in the history of the realist novel to that of her male counterparts George Sand Elizabeth Harlan, 2008-10-01 div George Sand was the most famous and most scandalous woman in nineteenth century France As a writer she was enormously prolific she wrote more than ninety novels thirty five plays and thousands of pages of autobiography She inspired writers as diverse as Flaubert and Proust but is often remembered for her love affairs with such figures as Musset and Chopin Her affair with Chopin is the most notorious their nine year relationship ended in 1847 when Sand began to suspect that the composer had fallen in love with her daughter Solange Drawing on archival sources much of it neglected by Sand's previous biographers Elizabeth Harlan examines the intertwined issues of maternity and identity that haunt Sand's writing and defined her life Why was Sand's relationship with her daughter so fraught Why was a woman so famous for her personal and literary audacity ultimately so conflicted about women's liberation In an effort to solve the riddle of Sand's identity Harlan examines a latticework of lives that include Solange Sand's mother and grandmother and Sand's own protagonists whose stories amplify her own DIV French Women's Writing 1848-1994 Diana Holmes,2000-01-12 A wide range of French women writers are surveyed including Sand Colette Beauvoir and Duras among the canonized and many marginalized or forgotten and contemporary names not yet widely known outside France These writers are seen within the political economic and cultural context of women's lives and how these have changed across a century and a half Underpinning the whole account is the relationship between gender and language between politics sexual and textual The Biography Book Daniel S.
