Christian Mysticism Bernard McGinn, 2006-12-12 This clear and comprehensive anthology culled from the vast corpus of Christian mystical literature by the renowned theologian and historian Bernard McGinn presents nearly one hundred selections from the writings of Origen of Alexandria in the third century to the work of twentieth century mystics such as Thomas Merton. Uniquely organized by subject rather than by author, The Essential Writings of Christian Mysticism explores how human life is transformed through the search for direct contact with God. Part one examines the preparation for encountering God through biblical interpretation and prayer; the second part focuses on the mystics' actual encounters with God; and part three addresses the implications of the mystical life, showing how mystics have been received over time and how they practice their faith through private contemplation and public actions. In addition to his illuminating Introduction, Bernard McGinn provides accessible headnotes for each section as well as numerous biographical sketches and a selected bibliography. Praise for The Essential Writings of Christian Mysticism: No one is better equipped than Bernard McGinn to provide a thorough and balanced guide to this vast literature. This is an anthology which deserves to be read not only by those who study Christian history and theology but by believers who long to deepen their own lives of prayer and service. —Anglican Theological Review

Bernard McGinn, a preeminent historian and interpreter of the Christian mystical tradition, has edited this fine collection of mystical writings, organizing them thematically. McGinn offers helpful introductions to each thematic section, author, and entry as well as a brief critical bibliography on mysticism. Published in the Modern Library Classic series, this is a great value. —Christian Century

No one is better equipped than Professor McGinn to provide a thorough and balanced guide to this vast literature. A first class selection by a first class scholar. —Rowan Williams, Archbishop of Canterbury

This accessible anthology by the scholarly world's leading historian of the Western Christian mystical tradition easily outstrips all others in its comprehensiveness, the aptness of its selection of texts, and in the intelligent manner of its organization. —Denys Turner

Horace Tracy Pitkin, Professor of Historical Theology, Yale Divinity School: An immensely rich anthology assembled and introduced by our foremost student of mysticism. Both the scholar and the disciple will find God's plenty here. —Barbara Newman, Professor of English Religion and Classics

John Evans, Professor of Latin, Northwestern University: An unusually clear and insightful exposition of major texts selected by one of the greatest scholars in the field of Christian mysticism, based on his vast erudition and uniquely sensitive interpretation. Like his other books, this one too is destined to become a classic. —Professor Moshe Idel, Hebrew University, Jerusalem

Architecture Theory Andrew Ballantyne, 2005-03-01 Architecture Theory is a comprehensive and groundbreaking one volume overview of and introduction to contemporary critical discourse in architecture. In bringing critical theory and Continental philosophy to bear upon architecture, it provides a solid framework for a fully up to date theory of architecture, one that reflects the latest developments and concerns. The book is divided into four sections: groundwork, constructing the individual, pluralities, instrumentality, each covering a core theme in contemporary architecture theory. In each section, an introductory essay by

Andrew Ballantyne provides valuable context exposition and analysis This is followed by a selection of writings on architecture and other related cultural concerns from major contemporary thinkers including Žižek Irigaray Lefebvre Lyotard Kristeva Nancy Virilio Deleuze and Negri Eroticizing Aesthetics Tim Themi, 2021-06-03 Bringing together Bataille with Lacan and Nietzsche Tim Themi examines the role of aesthetics implicit in each and how this invokes an erotic process celebrating the real of what is usually excluded from articulation Bataille came to deem eroticism as the standpoint from which to grasp humanity as a whole based on his understanding of our transition to humanity being founded on a series of taboos placed on inner animality An erotic outlet for the latter was historically the aesthetic dimensions of our religions but Bataille's view of how this was gradually diminished has much in keeping with Nietzsche's critique of Christian Platonic dualism and Lacan's of the desexualised Good of Western metaphysics Building from these often surprising proximities Themi closely examines Bataille's many interventions into the history of aesthetics from his confrontations with Breton's surrealism to his own novels and encounter with the animal cave paintings of Lascaux radically re illuminating the corollary phenomena of Dionysos in Nietzsche's philosophy and the jouissance enjoyment of transgression in the psychoanalysis of Lacan A new ethical criterion for aesthetic works and creations on this basis becomes possible Georges Bataille and Contemporary Thought Will Stronge, 2017-10-19 Georges Bataille's influence upon 20th century philosophy is hard to overstate His writing has transfixed his readers for decades exerting a powerful influence upon Foucault Blanchot and Derrida amongst many others Today Bataille continues to be an important reference for many of today's leading theorists such as Giorgio Agamben Roberto Esposito Jean Luc Nancy and Adrianna Caverero His work is a unique and enigmatic combination of mystical phenomenology politics anthropology and economic theory sometimes adopting the form of literature sometimes that of ontology This is the first book to take Bataille's ambitious and unfinished Accursed Share project as its thematic guide with individual contributors isolating themes concepts or sections from within the three volumes and taking them in different directions Therefore as well as providing readings of Bataille's key concepts such as animality sovereignty catastrophe and the sacred this collection aims to explore new terrain and new theoretical problems Georges Bataille and Contemporary Thought acts simultaneously as a companion to Bataille's three volume secular theodicy and as a laboratory for new syntheses within his thought Georges Bataille Rodolphe Gasché, 2012-10-24 This book investigates what Bataille in The Pineal Eye calls mythological representation the mythological anthropology with which this unusual thinker wished to outflank and undo scientific and philosophical anthropology Gasché probes that anthropology by situating Bataille's thought with respect to the quaternary of Schelling Hegel Nietzsche and Freud He begins by showing what Bataille's understanding of the mythological owes to Schelling Drawing on Hegel Nietzsche and Freud he then explores the notion of image that constitutes the sort of representation that Bataille's innovative approach entails Gasché concludes that Bataille's mythological anthropology takes on Hegel's phenomenology in a systematic fashion By reading it backwards he not only

dismantles its architecture he also ties each level to the preceding one replacing the idealities of philosophy with the phantasmatic representations of what he dubs low materialism Phenomenology Gasch argues thus paves the way for a new science of phantasms The Legacy of Nietzsche's Philosophy of Laughter Lydia Amir, 2021-09-30 This book investigates the role of humor in the good life specifically as discussed by three prominent French intellectuals who were influenced by Nietzsche's thought Georges Bataille Gilles Deleuze and Clement Rosset Lydia Amir begins by discussing Nietzsche's reception in France and she explains why and how he came to be considered a philosopher of laughter in the French academe Each of the subsequent three chapters focuses on the significance of humor and laughter in the good life as advocated by Bataille Deleuze and Rosset These chapters also explore the complex relationship between the comic and the tragic and of humor and laughter to irony satire and ridicule The Legacy of Nietzsche's Philosophy of Laughter makes an invaluable contribution to recent interpretive work done on Bataille and Deleuze and offers further introduction to the relatively understudied Rosset It illuminates the philosophies of these three thinkers their connection to Nietzsche and overall the significant role that humor plays in philosophy Negative Certainties Jean-Luc Marion, 2020-10-28 Now in paperback Jean-Luc Marion's groundbreaking philosophy of human uncertainty In Negative Certainties renowned philosopher Jean-Luc Marion challenges some of the most fundamental assumptions we have developed about knowledge that it is categorical predicative and positive Following Descartes Kant and Heidegger he looks toward our finitude and the limits of our reason He asks an astonishingly simple but profoundly provocative question in order to open up an entirely new way of thinking about knowledge Isn't our uncertainty our finitude and rational limitations one of the few things we can be certain about Marion shows how the assumption of knowledge as positive demands a reductive epistemology that disregards immeasurable or disorderly phenomena He shows that we have experiences every day that have no identifiable causes or predictable reasons and that these constitute a very real knowledge a knowledge of the limits of what can be known Establishing this negative certainty Marion applies it to four aporias or issues of certain uncertainty the definition of man the nature of God the unconditionality of the gift and the unpredictability of events Translated for the first time into English Negative Certainties is an invigorating work of epistemological inquiry that will take a central place in Marion's oeuvre

Art in Consumer Culture Grace McQuilten, 2017-07-05 Written with beautiful clarity Art in Consumer Culture Mis Design asks the contemporary art world to be honest about the pervasive effects of commodification and the difficulty of staging critique The book examines the collusion of art and design in contemporary artistic practices in order to find avenues of critique in a commercially driven cultural landscape Grace McQuilten focuses on the work of Takashi Murakami Andrea Zittel Adam Kalkin and Vito Acconci four contemporary artists who claim to be working in the field of design rather than the traditional art world McQuilten argues that Zittel Acconci and Kalkin engage with design only to reactivate the critical practice of art in a more direct engagement with capital and conceives of and affirms a future for art outside of the art world as a parasite in the complex beast of late capitalism This book is an important and timely provocation to a cynical and apathetic consumer culture and a call to arms for creative freedom and critical thought Philosophizing Madness from Nietzsche to Derrida Angelos Evangelou, 2017-08-12 Drawing connections between madness philosophy and autobiography this book addresses the question of how Nietzsche's madness might have affected his later works It also explores why continental philosophy after Nietzsche is so fascinated with madness and how it re considers re evaluates and re valorizes madness To answer these questions the book analyzes the work of three major figures in twentieth century French philosophy who were significantly influenced by Nietzsche Bataille Foucault and Derrida examining the ways in which their responses to Nietzsche's madness determine how they understand philosophy as well as philosophy's relation to madness For these philosophers posing the question about madness renders the philosophical subject vulnerable and implicates it in a state of responsibility towards that about which it asks Out of this analysis of their engagement with the question of madness emerges a new conception of autobiographical philosophy which entails the insertion of this vulnerable subject into the philosophical work to which each of these philosophers adheres or resists in different ways TASTE Andrea Pavoni, Danilo Mandic, Caterina Nirta, Andreas Philippopoulos-Mihalopoulos, 2018-07-25 Taste usually occupies the bottom of the sensorial hierarchy as the quintessentially hedonistic sense too close to the animal the elemental and the corporeal and for this reason disciplined and moralised At the same time taste is indissolubly tied to knowledge To taste is to discriminate emit judgement enter an unstable domain of synaesthetic normativity where the certainty of metaphysical categories begins to crumble This second title in the Law and the Senses series explores law using taste as a conceptual and ontological category able to unsettle legal certainties and a promising tool whereby to investigate the materiality of law's relation to the world For what else is law's reduction of the world into legal categories if not law's ingesting the world by tasting it and emitting moral and legal judgements accordingly Through various topics including coffee wine craft cider and Japanese knotweed this volume explores the normativities that shape the way taste is felt and categorised within and beyond subjective phenomenological and human dimensions The result is an original interdisciplinary volume complete with seven speculative recipes dedicated to a rarely explored intersection with contributions from artists legal academics philosophers anthropologists and sociologists Gordon Matta-Clark Antonio Sergio Bessa, Jessamyn Fiore, 2017-01-01 This revealing book looks at the groundbreaking work of Gordon Matta Clark 1943 1978 whose socially conscious practice blurred the boundaries between contemporary art and architecture After completing a degree in architecture at Cornell University Matta Clark returned to his home city of New York where he initiated a series of site specific works in derelict areas of the South Bronx The borough's many abandoned buildings the result of economic decline and middle class flight served as Matta Clark's raw material His series Bronx Floors dissected these structures performing an anatomical study of their ravaged urban landscape Moving from New York to Paris with Conical Intersect a piece that became emblematic of artistic protest Matta Clark applied this same method to a pair of seventeenth century row houses slated for demolition as a result of the Centre Pompidou's construction. This compelling volume grounds Matta Clark's practice against the framework of architectural and urban history, stressing his pioneering activist-inspired approach as well as his contribution to the nascent fields of social practice and relational aesthetics. Architecture Martin van der Linden, 2021-03-12. The question of what architecture is answered in this book with one sentence: Architecture is space created for human activities. The basic need to find food and water places these activities within a larger spatial field. Humans have learned and found ways to adjust to the various contextual difficulties that they faced as they roamed the earth. Thus, rather than adapting, humans have always tried to change the context to their activities. Humanity has looked at the context not merely as a limitation but rather as a spatial situation filled with opportunities that allows, through intellectual interaction, to change these limitations. Thus, humanity has created within the world their own contextual bubble that firmly stands against the larger context it is set in. The key notion of the book is that architecture is space carved out of and against the context and that this process is deterministic. Metaphors of Economy, 2016-08-01. In recent years, the metaphor of economy has proved to have an immense explanatory power in literary and cultural criticism. Everything can be expressed and analysed in terms borrowed from political economy. Language, texts, social structures, and cultural relationships can be construed in the dynamic terms made available by the metaphor of economy, and more specifically, the economy of the metaphor. The metaphor of economy allows to show the dynamic processes of exchange, circulation, and interested negotiation. The essays in this volume display approaches to cultural and discursive practices derived from the methods and texts of economics. They provide a body of literary and cultural criticism founded upon economic paradigms which makes apparent the genealogy of our economic thought and the suggestion that looking at human exchange can enrich our understanding of culture. The interest of this volume is manifold: it gives a historical account of the development of economics, elucidates the emergence of theories governed by economic metaphors, and clarifies the impact of the metaphor on theories of textuality. It also provides an exchange between economists and literary and cultural critics by combining literary and cultural criticism with economics and covers a wide range of topics which are of interest to scholars from various disciplines. This volume provides a critical exchange which hopes to enrich both economics and literature.

For an Ecology of Images Peter Szendy, 2025-01-28. A new ecological approach to images by a renowned philosopher. When Susan Sontag first proposed the idea of an ecology of images, she meant it as an exhortation to be vigilant against the vast surplus of pictures threatening our ability to truly see. Today, beyond the deep anxieties over a diminishing attention economy, concern focuses on the environmental cost of storing and circulating the digital images that confront us with unprecedented speed. Against the disposable rapidity demanded by digital media, Peter Szendy emphasizes the labor and time required for images to develop and come into view. This inquisitive essay takes us from mimicry in the animal kingdom to the history of the shadow, Pliny's story about the birth of painting to Nabokov's butterflies, the first use of slow motion in film to the
