

GEORGIA GAZETTE.

NUMBER 1.

THURSDAY, APRIL 7, 1763.

EUROPEAN INTELLIGENCE.

Moscow, November 15.

The Empress keeps her apartments, not through illness but precaution. The Count Worontzow has given a grand entertainment to the Earl of Buckinghamshire, to which all the foreign ministers were invited.

Frankfurt, Dec. 11. We daily expect the news of a general action between the Prince of Holberg and the Prussians in Franconia.

Munich, Dec. 17. The Prussian intrepidity into Franconia makes a great noise. The princes of the empire once took a resolution to apply for succour to the French King as guarantor of the treaty of Westphalia, but this design was waved on their being informed that the French troops were in consequence of the preliminaries between England and that crown, to evacuate the empire so soon as the ratifications were exchanged, and to return no more during this war.

Spain, Dec. 11. We hear from Madrid, that the King of Spain has granted a pension of ten thousand livres to the widow of Don Velasco, who so bravely defended the Moro Fort at the Havana; and has given his son a title of nobility in Castile, which he is to bear by the name of the Marquis of the Fort Moro. His Majesty has likewise given directions, that there should be always, for the future, one ship in the royal navy of the name of Velasco.

Paris, Dec. 27. The Duke of Bedford is preparing a grand conference, in order to his public entry in quality of Ambassador Extraordinary from His Britannick Majesty, which is to be made about the middle of February next. This ceremony will give an additional lustre to the festivals there to be celebrated on account of the conclusion of the peace, and, to augment the splendor of this solemnity, an magnificent statue of his present Majesty, already finished, is there to be erected.

LONDON, December 14.

Admiralty Office, December 14.

Vice Admiral Sir Charles Saunders gives an account, in his letter of the 9th of last month, from Gibraltar, that the day before arrived at that port, His Majesty's Ship the Rogue, commanded by Capt. Tonys, with the Oiseau, a French frigate of 26 guns, and about 240 men, which he sent to sea, and took the 23d of October, about seven leagues N. W. by W. from Carthage. The Rogue had 62 men killed, and 14 wounded, in the engagement; and there were 40 killed and wounded on board the Oiseau. The Chevalier de Modene, her Captain, lost his right arm. Three of his officers are wounded, and all the rest of them killed. London Gazette.

Dec. 27. It is reported that the Earl of Grenville will soon resign his place of President of the Council on account of his great age and bad state of health, and that the Lord Chancellor is to resign the seals and succeed him in that important office, which will occasion a general promotion among the gentlemen of the law.

From Ratisbon they send us a rumour that the Ministers of England and Prussia have been ordered by the Grand Signor to quit Constantinople.

Letters by this day's mail advise, that a negotiation between the courts of Vienna and Berlin is in great forwardness.

We have also a report that the Count de Sclern is coming to England with the character of Minister Plenipotentiary from the Empress Queen to renew the good understanding between the two courts.

It is very strongly affirmed that the French have already sent a man of war to the East-Indies, in order to be beforehand with us, and show us some true French faith; and that a fleet of ours is already going there.

It is also affirmed that great obstacles to the definitive treaty have arisen, in consequence of some disputes between the French and English East-India companies.

Orders were sent on Thursday night to the War Office, to continue the light troops in full pay till the 23d of next month, not being yet ready to dismiss them.

Yesterday there was a cabinet council at S. James's on affairs relating to the army, at which Lord Ligonier and several officers of the army assisted.

We learn from Spain, that the money and effects of the Count de Superunda, late Viceroy of Peru, which had been landed at Ferrol from the Havana, had been seized by the government, and the Count himself was expected to be put under arrest: That the money belonging to private persons returned from the Havana had also been seized, because they had neglected to register it; but it was thought it would be restored.

Advices from Amsterdam showed that according to letters received there from England, of the 6th of May, the English have received a considerable check on the coast of Comandul, by the interruption of the attempt against the side of France, and that, in consequence of this, we have also suffered a very great loss. Commodore [?] from the [?] being accounts, that six of our vessels have been sunk near the side of France, but it is hoped this will all prove Dutch news.

A gentleman from Portsmouth writes that the French prisoners there express the utmost dissatisfaction on their being ordered home, and that great numbers of them, who were offered on board for their return to France, had made their escape.

Last Friday the British ships militia was disembodied at Aldershot, and given them their regimental cloaks, knapsacks, &c. and each of them 15 days pay to carry them to their respective homes.

The Family Compact prisoner of St. Sebastian's, of 10 guns and 100 men, is taken by the British frigate Sir Thomas Adams, and brought into Plymouth.

The Calcutta Indianman has actually brought home the last Frenchmen that remained on the whole continent of Asia: and Bencoolon, on the island of Sumatra, was retaken about 13 months ago by three of our Indianmen—Query, if that conquest in the East-Indies has France to ascribe to England, in order to fulfil the 10th article of the preliminaries?

By this ship we have also advice, that the forces destined for an expedition against the Manilla islands, were all ready to proceed, and only waited for an account of the declaration of war against Spain, and were in great expectations of success. But we have still a less pleasing account of the intended attack on the French at Mauritius, wisely planned by the late minister, for their utter extirpation from that quarter of the globe. Admiral Cornish during his cruise in Europe, buried upwards of 1000 brave sailors, besides landmen, and returned sickly and distressed.

A M E R I C A.

Boston, October 18.

We hear from Biddesford, in the county of York, that at the inferior court lately held there, a cause was tried between Thomas Hammet, of Berwick, in said county, yeoman, plaintiff, and Peter Staple, of Kintery, in the same county, gentleman, defendant, for the defendant's debauching the plaintiff's wife, &c. and after a full hearing of 64 hours, the jury brought in their verdict for the plaintiff to recover against the defendant 1000l. lawful money, damages and costs.
