Queen of the Owls Barbara Linn Probst, 2025-07-30 A chance meeting with a charismatic photographer will forever change Elizabeth's life Until she met Richard Elizabeth's relationship with Georgia O'Keeffe and her little known Hawaii paintings was purely academic Now it's personal Richard tells Elizabeth that the only way she can truly understand O'Keeffe isn't with her mind it's by getting into O'Keeffe's skin and reenacting her famous nude photos In the intimacy of Richard's studio Elizabeth experiences a new intoxicating abandon and fullness It never occurs to her that the photographs might be made public especially without her consent Desperate to avoid exposure she's a rising star in the academic world and the mother of young children Elizabeth demands that Richard dismantle the exhibit But he refuses The pictures are his art His property not hers As word of the photos spreads Elizabeth unwittingly becomes a feminist heroine to her students who misunderstand her motives in posing To the university however her actions are a public scandal To her husband they're a public humiliation Yet Richard has reawakened an awareness that's haunted Elizabeth since she was a child the truth that cerebral knowledge will never be enough Now she must face the question How much is she willing to risk to be truly seen and known

O'Keeffe Hunter Drohojowska-Philp, 2005-11-15 Offers a portrait of the twentieth century woman artist through discussions of her marriage to art photography pioneer Alfred Stieglitz the impact of his infidelity on her psyche and her relocation to New Mexico where she created her signature works

Georgia O'Keeffe Janet Souter, 2011-07-01 In 1905 Georgia travelled to Chicago to study painting at the Art Institute of Chicago In 1907 she enrolled at the Art Students League in New York City where she studied with William Merritt Chase During her time in New York she became familiar with the 291 Gallery owned by her future husband photographer Alfred Stieglitz In 1912 she and her sisters studied at university with Alon Bement who employed a somewhat revolutionary method in art instruction originally conceived by Arthur Wesley Dow In Bement's class the students did not mechanically copy nature but instead were taught the principles of design using geometric shapes They worked at exercises that included dividing a square working within a circle and placing a rectangle around a drawing then organising the composition by rearranging adding or eliminating elements It sounded dull and to most students it was But Georgia found that these studies gave art its structure and helped her understand the basics of abstraction During the 1920s O'Keeffe also produced a huge number of landscapes and botanical studies during annual trips to Lake George With Stieglitz's connections in the arts community of New York from 1923 he organised an O'Keeffe exhibition annually O'Keeffe's work received a great deal of attention and commanded high prices She however resented the sexual connotations people attached to her paintings especially during the 1920s when Freudian theories became a form of what today might be termed pop psychology The legacy she left behind is a unique vision that translates the complexity of nature into simple shapes for us to explore and make our own discoveries She taught us there is poetry in nature and beauty in geometry Georgia O'Keeffe's long lifetime of work shows us new ways to see the world from her eyes to ours
