The Guerrilla Girls' Bedside Companion to the History of Western Art Guerrilla Girls,1998-02-01 A tart funny lurid little bomb of a book It's all p.c. of course but not at all predictable and a lot of righteous information gets dispersed in record time BUST Magazine We were Guerillas before we were Gorillas From the beginning the press wanted publicity photos We needed a disguise No one remembers for sure how we got our fur but one story is that at an early meeting an original Girl a bad speller wrote Gorilla instead of Guerilla It was an enlightening mistake It gave us our mask ulinity Ever wonder about the abundance of naked male statues in the Classical section of your favorite museum Did you know medieval convents were hotbeds of female artistic expression And how did those bad boy artists of the twentieth century make it even harder for a girl to get a break Thanks to the Guerrilla Girls those masked feminists whose mission it is to break the white male stronghold over the art world art history as we know it is history Taking you back through the ages the Guerrilla Girls demonstrate how males particularly white males have dominated the art scene and discouraged belittled or obscured women's involvement Their skeptical and hilarious interpretations of popular theory are augmented by the newest research and the expertise of prominent feminist art historians Believe it or not quotations from some of the experts are sprinkled throughout as are the Guerrilla Girls signature masterpieces reproductions of famous art works slightly altered for historic accuracy and vindication This colorful reinterpretation of classic and modern art as outrageous as it is visually arresting is a much needed corrective to traditional art history and an unabashed celebration of female artists

which various cultures including the Comanches New Mexico Hispanos Mormons Texans and Montanans interact with the environment of the West Gracefully moving between the personal and the objective Flores intersperses his writings with literature scientific theory and personal reflection The topics cover a wide range from historical human nature regarding animals and exploration to the environmental histories of particular Western bioregions and finally to Western restoration as the great environmental theme of the twenty first century
