Albrecht Dürer and His Legacy Giulia Bartrum, Günter Grass, Joseph Leo Koerner, Ute Kuhlemann, 2002 Albrecht Dürer 1471-1528 was in a sense the first truly international artist. The collection of his work in the British Museum is one of the best in the world. This book shows how his sophisticated development of the techniques of woodcut and engraving introduced the idea of multiple images into fine art and thereby altered the history of printmaking. The chronology of his career is traced from his early work in the medieval tradition of Martin Schongauer through the experience he acquired while living in Italy to his major print projects for the Holy Roman Emperor Maximilian I. The book also examines Dürer's influence at later periods from the obsessive interest in his work by collectors and artists during the late sixteenth century to the virtually iconic status he acquired amid the rise of German nationalism during the nineteenth century. The Nobel-winning German novelist Günter Grass himself a printmaker contributes a subjective view of Dürer's images from a twentieth-century standpoint while other introductory essays by Giulia Bartrum, Joseph Koerner and Ute Kuhlemann consider aspects of Dürer's legacy through history. The illustrations include all Dürer's best-known prints as well as numerous drawings and watercolours. BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc. Mack, 2009 This is a vivid guidebook to the Columbia Museum of Art's Renaissance collection. Established in 1950, the Columbia Museum of Art is the only public museum in South Carolina with an extensive collection of international art. This is thanks in no small part to significant donations from the Samuel H. Kress Foundation between 1954 and 1974 which have made the museum one of the nation's major depositories of Kress gifts of art. This catalogue serves as a striking visual reference to the museum's holdings in European art from the late Gothic period to the end of the Renaissance and includes paintings, drawings, prints, sculptures, decorative bronzes, furniture, ceramics, stained glass and textiles. In all, eighty-four pieces are presented in color illustrations and detailed in an art-historical context to benefit scholars and researchers as well as interested museum visitors. Fifty-six works of Renaissance art, several by such prominent figures as Bernardo Daddi Sandro Botticelli Giovanni Antonio Boltraffio Andrea Solario Mariotto Albertinelli Albrecht Durer Parmigianino Ambrosius Benson Alessandro Allori Francois Clouet and Jacopo Tintoretto are described by accomplished art historian Charles R Mack and a team of researchers in catalogue essays that each provide an in depth consideration of the artist s biography and contribution the work its provenance and its history of attributions ownership and exhibition The entries also describe such matters as condition conservation history and in the case of paintings the authenticity of frames Arranged in chronological order by date of execution the pieces in this section represent most of the museum s Kress materials An additional twenty six pieces are more briefly described in an illustrated checklist The volume also includes an essay on the formation and distribution of the Kress Collection and an essay on the history of medieval and Renaissance art with particular attention paid to the museum s holdings The catalogue concludes with three appendixes treating changes in attribution the correlation of museum inventory numbers with catalogue numbers and the correlation of 1962 Kress Collection catalogue numbers with new catalogue numbers A subsequent volume will catalogue the museum s Baroque and Rococo art
