Economics And World Order From The 1970s To The 1990s:

Economics and World Order from the 1970's to the 1990's World Order Models Project, World Law Fund, 1972

Economics and world order : from the 1970's to the 1990's ; [conference of the World Order Models Project, at the Northfield Inn, Northfield, Massachusetts, June 18 - 25, 1969] ; sponsored by the World Law Fund World Order Models Project, 1974 The UN and Transnational Corporations Tagi Sagafi-nejad, John H. Dunning, 2008-10-16 Are transnational corporations TNCs and foreign direct investment beneficial or harmful to societies around the world Since the birth of the United Nations more than 60 years ago these questions have been major issues of interest and involvement for UN institutions What have been the key ideas generated by the UN about TNCs and their relations with nation states How have these ideas evolved and what has been their impact This book examines the history of UN engagement with TNCs including the creation of the UN Commission and Centre on Transnational Corporations in 1974 the failed efforts of these bodies to craft a code of conduct to temper the revealed abuses of TNCs and with the advent of globalization in the 1980s the evolution of a more cooperative relationship between TNCs and developing countries resulting in the 1999 Global Compact

Multinational Corporations and the Emerging World Order Lewis D. Solomon, 1978 Monograph examining the impact of multinational enterprise on the political development and economic and social development of both developed countries and developing countries covers the effect of direct foreign investment on unemployment and income distribution balance of payments etc and discusses the role of the FAO industry cooperative program in assisting in problems of technology transfer and currency stabilization etc References Apostles of Development David C. Engerman, 2025-05-30 The battle against global poverty that began after World War II was a major undertaking engaging economists engineers and organizations Featuring front and centre were six remarkable economists Amartya Sen Manmohan Singh Mahbub ul Haq Jagdish Bhagwati Rehman Sobhan and Lal Jayawardena all born as colonial subjects in the British Empire and studied at Cambridge University They represented a new figure on the world scene the Third World development expert and played a crucial role in global debates about poverty and development Apostles of Development examines their different economic doctrines and the ongoing debate surrounding economic theory in poor countries compared to rich ones The lives of these apostles reveal how development did not begin with textbooks but with real world attempts to solve very specific and pressing problems Finally the book emphasizes that development was a Global South project first and foremost aiming to improve the conditions of the world's poorest countries It challenges the conventional wisdom that sees development only as a tool of rich countries to dominate or as proof of their humanitarian spirit It argues that development succeeds not when it follows ideological prescriptions but when it looks for what works The fading of grand visions shaped by ideological concerns has been one of the lasting effects of the end of the Cold War The book argues that the best way forward is determined modesty focusing on practical matters such as addressing gross inequality and insisting that development means more than just economic growth

Given the salience of questions of economic inequality and the constant visibility of the promises and problems of economic development in the world today this is a timely and important read

Economic Planning and Social Justice in Developing Countries Ozay Mehmet, 2014-05-12 First published in 1978 this book was written at a time when belief was high in Western guided economic development of the emerging countries The success of Marshall Plan in war torn Europe generated a US led optimism that with generous inflows of aid and technical assistance the Third World could be won over in the Cold War The author's direct experience as a young academic economist in Cyprus Malaysia Uganda and Liberia led him to question this general optimism the reality on the ground in the developing world did not seem to match Western optimism Theories and blueprints made in the West did not fit the requirements of developing countries Higher production and better income distribution were inseparable twin objectives of developing nations That meant production of a higher national output must at the same time promote social justice Investment must create adequate jobs so that new entrants into rapidly expanding labor force could be gainfully employed Yet the dominant Western theories of development at the time in particular the Trickle Down Theory of Growth prescribed Growth First Distribution Later strategy Similarly Import Substitution Industrialization theories were emphasized at the expense of export led growth Dualistic Growth theories preached urban biased anti rural development This book was written as a rebuttal of such faulty theorizing and misguided professional technical assistance and the book's message is no less valid today than in the 1970s

The Concept of the Common Heritage of Mankind in International Law Kemal Baslar, 1998 The concept of the common heritage of mankind is one of the most extraordinary developments in recent intellectual history and one of the most revolutionary and radical legal concepts to have emerged in recent decades The year 1997 marks the thirtieth anniversary of the advent of the concept in the domain of public international law Ever since its emergence it has become evident that no other concept notion principle or doctrine has brought as much intensive debate controversy confrontation and speculation as the common heritage phenomenon did This is because it is a philosophical idea that questions the regimes of globally important resources regardless of their situation and requires major changes in the world to apply its provisions In other words the application and enforcement of the common heritage of mankind require a critical reexamination of many well established principles and doctrines of classical international law such as acquisition of territory consent based sources of international law sovereignty equality resource allocation and international personality This book aims to explore the legal theory and implications of the concept of the common heritage of mankind It addresses almost all aspects of the concept in the light of the experience of three decades The author takes into account the elements of the common heritage concept in the fields of jurisprudence outer space law the law of the sea the law of Antarctica international environmental law human rights and general principles of public international law It tries to develop a normative framework through which the concept may offer alternatives for the governance of the global commons

Modern Economic Thought Sidney Weintraub, 2016-11-11 This book is a volume in the Penn Press Anniversary Collection To mark its 125th anniversary in 2015 the University of Pennsylvania Press rereleased more than 1 100 titles from Penn Press s distinguished backlist from 1899 1999 that had fallen out of print Spanning an entire century the Anniversary Collection offers peer reviewed scholarship in a wide range of subject areas The Fragility of the 'Failed State'

Paradigm Neyire Akpinarli, 2009-10-23 The absence of effective government one of the most important issues in current international law became prominent with the failed state concept at the beginning of the 1990s Public international law however lacked sufficient legal means to deal with the phenomenon Neither attempts at state reconstruction in countries such as Afghanistan and Somalia on the legal basis of Chapter VII of the UN Charter nor economic liberalisation have addressed fundamental social and economic problems This work investigates the weaknesses of the failed state paradigm as a long term solution for international peace and security arguing that the solution to the absence of effective government can be found only in an economic and social approach and a true universalisation of international law Marketing in Developing Countries (RLE Marketing) G. Kindra, 2014-09-25 The articles in this collection discuss the role of marketing in development and include case studies from various developing countries They consider state enterprises marketing education birth control and comparative marketing models Planning and Housing in the Rapidly Urbanising World Paul Jenkins, Harry Smith, Ya Ping Wang, 2006-11-21 Written specifically as a teaching text and authored by a team of leading academics in the field this is the first book to bring together the key issues of rapid urbanisation with approaches to planning and housing Outlining and explaining core concepts from informal settlements to sustainability it focuses on the rapid urbanization of developing countries with case studies from Latin America Asia and Sub Saharan Africa The impact of rapid urbanization and associated globalization on land use and housing is described and analyzed with reference to the particular issues of poverty health and the environment of these areas Providing an accessible introduction to the key issues as well as enhancing current theoretical debates and exploring practical applications this book is an essential resource for students and researchers in this area
