Hard Sayings Left Behind by Vatican II Peter De Mey, Judith Gruber, 2023-12-20 This project offers an original contribution to the interpretation of the documents of the Second Vatican Council that constitute the most authoritative doctrinal teaching within the Catholic Church The chapters in this volume published during the 60th anniversary of the Council 2022 2025 discuss three types of stumbling blocks Stumbling Blocks for Ecumenism Stumbling Blocks for Interfaith Dialogue and Stumbling Blocks for Church world Relations Eight specialists of ecclesiology comparative theology intercultural theology and theological ethics have each written chapters on a selected line of Vatican II that constitutes a stumbling block or hard saying for believers and theologians today The views expressed in these chapters have been discussed in three response essays The stumbling blocks have been selected from Lumen Gentium Unitatis Redintegratio Nostra Aetate and Gaudium et Spes The selected lines discuss the difficulties the Catholic Church has with atheism and with the Eucharist as celebrated by Protestant ministers how appreciation of other churches and religions goes hand in hand with defending the need of mission and why the Council assigns different roles to priests and laity making a distinction between the holiness of the Church and the sinfulness of its believers Nostra Aetate Pim Valkenberg, 2016-09-02 The contents of this book originated in a conference at the Catholic University of America in May 2015 The essays and lectures contained within focus on the relationships of the Catholic Church with the other Abrahamic faiths primarily Islam and Judaism There is some discussion of the Asian religions as well This volume in structure loosely follows the document Nostra Aetate itself The first part of the book gives a broad view of the document and its importance The following parts concentrate on the relationships between the Catholic Church and the Asian Muslim and Jewish religions The concluding section of the book surveys the reception Nostra Aetate received in various ecclesial and academic contexts

Our Bishops, Heroes for the New Evangelization Justin McClain, 2017-06-05 These are challenging times when it comes to the need for lay Catholics to understand the Church's position on any number of doctrinal issues Likewise we need bishops who will lead warmly and amicably yet likewise accurately and as dutiful spiritual fathers The goal of this book is to invite the Catholic laity along with anyone of good will to become steadily familiar with the teachings of the Church as transmitted by the writings of modern Catholic bishops There is a particular focus on the bishops of the English speaking world as well as on the writings of the bishops over the course of the last two centuries If you would like to grow in your Catholic faith this book explains how the bishops have patiently and pastorally led the faithful to walk ever closer to the ultimate Good Shepherd the Lord Jesus Christ

The Construction of Belief Aziz Esmail, Abdou Filali-Ansary, 2013-02-01

Mohammed Arkoun was one of the most prominent and influential Arab intellectuals of his day. During a career spanning more than thirty years, he was revered as an outstanding research scholar, a bold critic of the theoretical tensions embedded within Islamic Studies, and an outspoken public figure upholding political, social, and cultural modernism. This Festschrift honours Arkoun's scholarship, bringing together the contributions of eleven distinguished scholars of history, religious studies, and philosophy. It offers a comprehensive selection of critical engagements with Arkoun's work, reflecting on his considerable influence on contemporary thinking about Islam and its ideological, philosophical, and theological dimensions. Published in association with the Aga Khan University Institute for the Study of Muslim Civilisations.

Papal Teaching in the Age of Infallibility, 1870 to the Present Kevin T. Keating, 2018-06-29 Kevin Keating examines the major writings of the Roman Pontiffs from Pius IX in the last half of the nineteenth century to the most recent writings of Francis. He explores the shift in papal focus from internal church matters and attacks on modern thought to concern for matters affecting all of humanity, not just spiritually but socially, politically, and economically as well. Looming over all of these teachings is the specter of the doctrine of infallibility. First defined in 1870 to cover only papal infallibility, it would be expanded in the 1960s to include the exercise of infallibility by the worldwide college of bishops. Keating discusses the most significant themes dealt with by popes during this period: the Bible, religious freedom, church-state relations, social doctrine, human sexuality, ecumenism, and interreligious dialogue. He describes how papal teaching has changed, developed, and even been contradicted by later popes, although they have failed to expressly acknowledge departures from prior teaching. He details how the doctrine of infallibility, far from serving to bolster the credibility of papal teaching, often has served to undermine it.

Dialogue as an Imperative to Ecumenical and Interreligious Problems in Nigeria Casmir Chimezie Obi, 2015-08-06 The Church is the Sacrament of Communion with God and unity among all men. Cf. Vatican II doc. L. G. 1: Christ prayed for this unity amongst his adherents in accordance with the unity between him and God the Father. Cf. Jn 17:21. This unity will be a sign by which the outside world is to believe in him, hence calling on the Church to rise up to this demand. Efforts were made by the Church to respond to this demand, but it was at the Second Vatican Council that the search for unity became an imperative. With this Council, the Church acknowledged the possibility of salvation for the members of other Christian traditions and people of other religions. The Church has done a lot to promote this unity through the teachings of the Magisterium and the activities of the recent Popes. It is then important to study the situation of Nigeria, where this call of the Vatican II has received scant response, both in ecumenical and interreligious relations. Having done pastoral work in places with interdenominational and interreligious rivalry in Nigeria, I became concerned and worried. The present religious crises in Nigeria have escalated to an issue of grave concern with the Boko Haram insurgency. My motivation is to demonstrate the teaching of the Church regarding interdenominational and interreligious dialogue within Nigeria. There has been no sustained effort to build bridges of religious unity in the country. This research will demonstrate the necessity of ecumenical dialogue as a prelude to interreligious dialogue in Nigeria On the global level the need for various religions to foster relationships has become an imperative Two important bodies CAN and NIREC will be studied in this book The work aims at demonstrating the involvement of the Nigerian Christians and Muslims in ecumenical and interreligious dialogue Essentially concerned with the Catholic view of ecumenical and interreligious dialogue its application to the Nigerian situation No in depth study of the religions involved It is rather the fact of their existence the role dialogue will play with them to solve religious problems in Nigeria Though ATR was considered in this work but the issue of dialogue will only involve Nigerian Muslims Christians The research wishes to provoke further study on dialogue between ATR and any of the other two religions Two issues involved the reality importance of the Catholic teachings on ecumenical interreligious dialogue and their application to the Nigerian situation Key methods involved in this work are literary research and analysis through theological historical critical descriptive analytical expository approaches

Hebrews in Contexts Gabriella Gelardini, Harold

Attridge, 2016-05-09 Scholars of Hebrews have repeatedly echoed the almost proverbial saying that the book appears to its reader as a Melchizedekian being without genealogy For such scholars the aphorism identified prominent traits of Hebrews its enigma its otherness its marginality Although Franz Overbeck might unintentionally have stimulated such correlations they do not represent what his dictum originally meant Writing during the high noon of historicism in 1880 Overbeck lamented a lack of historical context one that he had deduced on the basis of flawed presuppositions of the ideological frameworks prevalent of his time His assertion made an impact and consequently Hebrews was not only othered within New Testament scholarship its context was neglected and by some even judged as irrelevant altogether Understandably the neglect created a deficit keenly felt by more recent scholarship which has developed a particular interest in Hebrews contexts Hebrews in Contexts edited by Gabriella Gelardini and Harold W Attridge is an expression of this interest It gathers authors who explore extensively on Hebrews relations to other early traditions and texts Jewish Hellenistic and Roman in order to map Hebrews historical cultural and religious identity in greater and perhaps surprising detail
