Einhorn Rüdiger Robert Beer,1972 Zoology in Early Modern Culture: Intersections of Science, Theology, Philology, and Political and Religious Education ,2014-10-09 This volume tries to map out the intriguing amalgam of the different partly conflicting approaches that shaped early modern zoology Early modern reading of the Book of Nature comprised among others the description of species in the literary tradition of antiquity as well as empirical observations vivisection and modern eyewitness accounts the translation of zoological species into visual art for devotion prayer and religious education but also scientific and scholarly curiosity theoretical philosophical and theological thinking regarding God s creation the Flood and the generation of animals new attempts with respect to nomenclature and taxonomy the discovery of unknown species in the New World impressive Wunderkammer collections and the keeping of exotic animals in princely menageries The volume demonstrates that theology and philology played a pivotal role in the complex formation of this new science Contributors include Brian Ogilvie Bernd Roling Erik Jorink Paul Smith Sabine Kalff Tam s Demeter Amanda Herrin Marringje Rikken Alexander Loose Sophia Hendrikx and Karl Enenkel Art and Mysticism Louise Nelstrop,Helen Appleton,2018-06-12 From the visual and textual art of Anglo Saxon England onwards images held a surprising power in the Western Christian tradition Not only did these artistic representations provide images through which to find God they also held mystical potential and likewise mystical writing from the early medieval period onwards is also filled with images of God that likewise refracts and reflects His glory This collection of essays introduces the currents of thought and practice that underpin this artistic engagement with Western Christian mysticism and explores the continued link between art and theology The book features contributions from an international panel of leading academics and is divided into four sections The first section offers theoretical and philosophical considerations of mystical aesthetics and the interplay between mysticism and art The final three sections investigate this interplay between the arts and mysticism from three key vantage points The purpose of the volume is to explore this rarely considered yet crucial interface between art and mysticism It is therefore an important and illuminating collection of scholarship that will appeal to scholars of theology and Christian mysticism as much as those who study literature the arts and art history Günter Grass: Ein europäischer Autor? Dick van Stekelenburg,2024-01-22 Founded in 1972 this series welcomes publications that further develop the investigation of German language literature s and culture s from a transdisciplinary perspective covering the period from 1600 onwards This includes edited volumes and monographs offering state of the art research as well as new critical editions of primary sources and collections Our mission remains to publish high quality research especially new transdisciplinary approaches to German Studies Consequently the series offers a venue for exploring emerging fields of study that intersect with German cultural studies This may include but is not limited to gender and sexuality studies critical race and whiteness studies disability studies transcultural and postcolonial studies film theatre and comic studies All submissions are subject to a double
