teorías del y The Crucified Mind Robert Havard, 2001 Why is the Spanish input to Surrealism so distinctive and strong What do such renowned figures as Dal Bu uel Lorca Aleixandre and Alberti have in common This book untangles the issue of Surrealism in Spain by focusing on a consistent feature in Spanish avant garde poetry art and film of the late twenties and thirties its supersaturation in religion A repressive religious upbringing typically under the Jesuits intensifies both the paranoiac and the mystical Surrealism s twin pillars which were already deeply ingrained in the Spanish psyche Striking examples are Lorca s prophetic voice in New York Dal and Bu uel s Eucharistic transformations Alberti s Loyolan materio mysticism Alberti is the fulcrum of this study since his poetry goes the full distance of Surrealism s evolution from Freudian catharsis to metaphysical transcendence until it expires in a Marxist reaction to church bound tradition when his nation convulses in civil war the surrealist ethos in Spain is not reducible to measuring how closely it imitates French theory It is more serious than the French says Alberti and its bearings are found on a cross of mental suffering and in a journey out of hell that made real art in practice ROBERT HAVARD is Professor of Spanish University of Wales Aberystwyth A Companion to Gabriel García Márquez Raymond L. Williams, 2010 This book offers discussion and analysis of the subtle writing of Nobel Laureate Gabriel Garc a M rquez a traditionalist who draws from classic Western texts a Modernist committed to modernizing the conservative literary tradition in Colombia and Latin America an internationally recognized major writer of the 1960s Boom the key figure in popularizing what has been called magic realism and finally a Modernist who has occasionally engaged in some of the strategies of the postmodern The author demonstrates that Garc a M rquez is above all a committed and highly accomplished Modernist fiction writer who has successfully synthesized his political vision in his writing and absorbed a vast array of cultural and literary traditions Drawing on Garc a M rquez s interviews with Williams and others over the years the book also explores the importance of the non literary the presence of oral tradition and the visual arts thus providing a more complete insight into Garc a M rquez s strategies as a Modernist with heterogeneous aesthetic interests as well as an understanding of his social and political preoccupations RAYMOND LESLIE WILLIAMS is Professor of Latin American Literature at the University of California Riverside Distant Relation Eoin S. Thomson, 2001-01-24 The Distant Relation breaks down the artificial division between philosophy and literature by weaving contemporary philosophic arguments through close readings of Carpentier Rulfo Paz and Garcia Marquez Thomson draws the reader into the largely uninhabited space between philosophy and literature providing new critical strategies that allow text and reader to respond to the very distance they share These strategies involve a reconceptualization of distance that recognizes the productive and affirmative nature of separation The Distant Relation will attract anyone interested in the ongoing struggle to overcome conventional interpretations of language time and identity within the broader context of philosophical trends and Spanish American studies
