Einde Of Nieuw Begin:

Text and Interpretation Hartin, Petzer, 2019-07-01 Text and Interpretation gives an insight into the many different approaches that more recent South African scholarship has adopted in the interpretation of the New Testament While the number of approaches in New Testament interpretation has proliferated over the past few years all the proposals still fall under one of the three traditional poles sender author text receptor reader Classified according to this division each chapter has a twofold aim Firstly the perspective is situated within a wider framework of interpretation to illustrate the context out of which this approach emerges Secondly each article has selected a particular New Testament text to demonstrate this approach in practice The authors of these chapters the majority of which are South African scholars were chosen because of their expertise in their specific fields By presenting these studies together in one collection the scholarship in these different areas will become more readily accessible to a wider group of scholars Farewell to Innocence Allan Aubrey

Boesak, 2015-05-01 While we acknowledge that all expressions of liberation theology are not identical we must protest very strongly against the false divisions that some make between black theology in South Africa and black theology in the United States between black theology and African theology and between black theology and Latin American liberation theology But moving away from the illusioned universality of western theology to the contextuality of liberation theology is a risky business one that cannot be done innocently In the search for theological and human authenticity in its own situation black theology does not stand alone It is but one expression of this search going on within many different contexts Until now the Christian church had chosen to move through history with a bland kind of innocence hiding the painful truths of oppression behind a facade of myths and real or imagined anxieties This is no longer possible The oppressed who believe in God the Father of Jesus Christ no longer want to believe in the myths created to subjugate them It is no longer possible to innocently accept history as it happens silently hoping that God would take the responsibility for human failure The theology of liberation spells out this realization For the Christian church it constitutes in no uncertain terms farewell to innocence

Transforming Mission: Paradigm Shifts in Theology of Mission David J. Bosch, 2011 David Bosch's Transforming Mission now available in over a dozen languages is widely recognized as an historic and magisterial contribution to the study of mission Examining the entire sweep of Christian tradition he shows how five paradigms have historically encapsulated the Christian understanding of mission and then outlines the characteristics of an emerging postmodern paradigm dialectically linking the transcendent and imminent dimensions of salvation In this new anniversary edition Darrel Guder and Martin Reppenhausen explore the impact of Bosch's work and the unfolding application of his seminal vision Official and Popular Religion Pieter Hendrik Vrijhof, Jacques Waardenburg, 2019-10-08 No detailed description available for Official and Popular Religion Witness To The World David J. Bosch, 2006-10-01 A great deal of uncertainty exists in the church as to what mission really is The shifts in political power away from the traditionally Christian West the call for a moratorium and the other critical voices from the Third World churches and the increasing self assurance and missionary consciousness among adherents of non Christian religions all these have given rise to the question whether Christian mission work still makes sense and if it does what form it should take Is mission identical to evangelism in the sense of proclaiming eternal salvation Does it include social and political involvement and if so how Where does salvation take place only in the Church or in the individual or in society or in the world or in the non Christian religions The picture is one of change and complexity tension and urgency The answers we give to these questions must be consonant with the will of God and relevant to the situation in which we find ourselves

Europe and the Gospel Evert Van de Poll, 2013-08-21 Combining human interest stories with thought provoking analyses Dr Evert Van de Poll paints the socio cultural and religious picture of this exceptional continent its population and cultural variety past and present idea of we Europeans immigration multiculturalism and the issue of Muslim integration the construction of the EU and the concerns it raises and the quest for the soul of Europe Special attention is paid to Christian and other roots of Europe the mixed historical record of Christianity vestiges of its past dominance its place and influence in today s societies that are rapidly de Christianising and secularization as a European phenomenon The author indicates specific challenges for Church development mission and social service In so doing he outlines the contours of a contextualised communication of the Gospel

Romanesque Renaissance Konrad Adriaan Ottenheim, 2021-01-11 In early modern times scholars and architects investigated age old buildings in order to look for useful sources of inspiration They too occasionally misinterpreted younger buildings as proofs of majestic Roman or other ancient glory such as the buildings of the Carolingian Ottonian and Stauffer emperors But even if the correct age of a certain building was known buildings from c 800 1200 were sometimes regarded as Antique architecture since the concept of Antiquity was far more stretched than our modern periodisation allows This was a Europe wide phenomenon The results are rather diverse in style but they all share an intellectual and artistic strategy a conscious revival of an ancient architecture whatever the date and origin of these models Contributors Barbara Arciszewska Lex Bosman Ian Campbell Eliana Carrara Bianca de Divitiis Krista De Jonge Emanuela Ferretti Emanuela Garofalo Stefaan Grieten Hubertus G nther Stephan Hoppe Sanne Maekelberg Kristoffer Neville Marco Rosario Nobile Konrad Ottenheim Stefano Piazza and Richard Schofield

New Modes of Thinking on the Eve of a New Century University of South Africa.

Research Institute for Theology and Religion. Symposium, C. W. Du Toit, 1996 We live in a transition period where new modes of thinking and models of doing are being drafted in an effort to develop a better lifestyle for everyone In this process ideologies from the past and present systems all play a role in influencing our decisions The importance of finding appropriate models that will suit our context demands cognisance of past and present mistakes This book considers the main ideas of the 20th century that influenced us in South Africa and elsewhere Can we avoid future totalitarian schemes are there guidelines for truth unity and a good societal life These and other issues are considered with reference to examples from the South African scene

Religion in Process Johannes A. van der Ven, 2020-10-19 This book argues that contemporary Christianity is in crisis because freedom of religion is concealed and under pressure by secularization and migration A drastic change is necessary in the Catholic Church at first from a God given hierarchical structure to a democratic religion that rests on human dignity and human rights The text conveys that such a change that should happen from within will put an end to challenges such as in Catholicism where outside human rights are promoted but from inside a different story is told Cultural change in religion is also covered with the move from centuries old dictates to the reasonable justification of freedom of experiences symbols rituals and inter religious intercourse as well as the cross communication between believers and non believers alike This approach makes religion an as yet unfinished religion The text appeals to researchers and academics working in human rights and religion

Labor Divided in the Postwar European Welfare State Dennie Oude Nijhuis, 2013-06-24 This book explains how the success of attempts to expand the boundaries of the postwar welfare state in the Netherlands and the United Kingdom depended on organized labor's willingness to support redistribution of risk and income among different groups of workers By illuminating and explaining differences within and between labor union movements it traces the historical origins of inclusive and dual welfare systems In doing so the book shows that labor unions can either have a profoundly conservative impact on the welfare state or act as an impelling force for progressive welfare

Jesus Incognito Martien E. Brinkman, 2013 In this book Martien Brinkman explores the Jesus incognito as found in Western film literature and the visual arts since 1960 His interest here is focused primarily on indirect references to the Jesus figure To his surprise he found an abundance of allusions to Jesus in key figures in modern art This confirmed his view that film literature and the visual arts make a substantial contribution even in secular Western culture to continuing reflection on Jesus significance Brinkman finds important characteristics of a hidden Christ in films by Gabriel Axel Ingmar Bergman Krzysztof Kieslowski and Lars von Trier novels by Peter De Vries J M Coetzee and Arnon Grunberg poems by Les Murray and Czeslaw Milosz and paintings by Andy Warhol Harald Duwe and Frans Franciscus He defines a hidden Christ as a fictional human individual who can be seen as a new embodiment of the meaning that can be attributed in the present to the biblical figure of Jesus The hidden Christ is therefore a contemporized Jesus figure This book will be of interest for everyone who shares Brinkman's quest for this Jesus incognito Farewell to Innocence Allan Boesak, 1977 Discussion at
