The Writing in the Stars Rodney Williamson, 2007-01-01 Born in Mexico City in 1914 writer poet and diplomat Octavio Paz won the Nobel Prize for Literature in 1990 eight years before his death in 1998 The Writing in the Stars explores Paz s life and ideas by establishing a dialogue between the structure and recurring images of his major poems and the ideas of Carl Jung Although other literary critics have pointed to Jungian concepts in Paz a comprehensive study on the subject has yet to be undertaken Rodney Williamson takes up this challenge adopting a Jungian perspective to explore successive phases of Paz s poetry Williamson illustrates how archetypal images infuse Paz s early poetry and his surrealist period and shows how the circular structure of Paz s longer poems such as Piedra de sol and Blanco are based on the Eastern sacred circle or mandala a major archetype of psychic wholeness in Jung He argues that a grasp of the psychological importance of Jung s archetypes is essential to understanding the various syntheses of creative truth and existence sought by Paz at different defining moments of his career as a poet The Writing in the Stars will prove fascinating to anyone interested in Latin American literature Jungian psychology or critical theory

Cruel God, Kind God Zenon Lotufo Jr., 2012-04-13 This enlightening analysis of the image of a cruel God sustained by conservative Christianity reveals how this image formed the psychological effects of this concept and the ways in which it has guided religious individuals in both positive and negative ways This book is born in large measure as a result of a writing by contemporary theologian J Harold Ellens In his essay Religious Metaphors Can Kill from Praeger's The Destructive Power of Religion Ellens espouses that theological doctrines are rooted in a model of God that determines all the aspects of those doctrines and strongly influences the cultures into which it is inserted Conservative Christianity in the Western world says Ellens has at its center the image of a cruel and wrathful God The juridical atonement theory of Anselm is a result of such an image of God and has an important role in justifying the resort to violence in human interaction Starting from these considerations Cruel God Kind God How Images of God Shape Belief Attitude and Outlook analyzes three general topics how two very different kinds of Christianities have emerged from these disparate images of God how the doctrines of original sin the plan of salvation and penal substitution can be explained by psychological factors as can the wide dissemination and acceptance of these doctrines and how the image of a cruel God affects mental health atrophies personality and produces guilt and shame

A New Companion to Hispanic Mysticism Hilaire Kallendorf, 2010 The canon of Hispanic mysticism is expanding No longer is our picture of this special brand of early modern devotional practice limited to a handful of venerable saints Instead we recognize a wide range of marginal figures as practitioners of mysticism broadly defined Neither do we limit the study of mysticism necessarily to the Christian religion nor even to the realm of literature Representations of mysticism are also found in the visual plastic and musical arts The terminology and theoretical framework of mysticism permeate early modern Hispanic cultures Paradoxically by taking a more inclusive approach to studying mysticism in its marginal manifestations we draw mysticism in all its complex iterations back toward its rightful place at the center of early modern spiritual experience Contributors Colin Thompson Alastair Hamilton Christina Lee Clara Herrera Darcy Donahue Elena del Rio Parra Evelyn Toft Fernando Duran Lopez Piansisco Morales Freddy Dominguez Glyn Redworth Jane Ackerman Jessica Boon Jose Adriano de Freitas Carvalho Luce Lopez Barat Maria Mercedes Carrion Maryrica Lottman and Tess Knighton

Besse, 2018-06-15 Susan K Besse broadens our understanding of the political by establishing the relevance of gender for the construction of state hegemony in Brazil after World War I Restructuring Patriarchy demonstrates that the consolidation and legitimization of power by President Getulio Vargas s Estado Novo depended to a large extent on the reorganization of social relations in the private sphere New expectations and patterns of behavior for women emerged in postwar Brazil from heated debates between men and women housewives and career women feminists and antifeminists reformist professionals and conservative clerics and industrialists and bureaucrats But as urban middle and upper class women challenged patriarchal authority at home and assumed new roles in public prominent intellectuals professionals and politicians defined and imposed new hygienic rational and scientific gender norms Thus modernization of the gender system within Brazil s rising urban industrial society accommodated new necessities and opportunities for women without fundamentally changing the gender inequality that underlay the larger structure of social inequality in Brazil
