remarkable account of the impact of postmodern philosophy on the question of ethics and politics commendable also for its balanced view of Heidegger's relationship to politics and ethics an excellent account of Heidegger's philosophical understanding of technology Choice This book takes as its point of departure the question of ethics that values and their pursuit in the West often perpetuate their own worst enemies At issue are the dangers in the structures and movements of images values and ways of knowing that are most intimately a part of our lives Diversity of Belonging in Europe

Susannah Eckersley, Claske Vos, 2022-12-27 Diversity of Belonging in Europe analyzes conflicting notions of identity and belonging in contemporary Europe. Addressing the creation, negotiation and re-use of diverse spaces and places of belonging, the book examines their fascinating complexities in the context of a changing Europe. Taking an innovative interdisciplinary approach, the volume examines renegotiations of belonging played out through cultural encounters with difference and change in diverse public spaces and contested places. Highlighting the interconnections between social change and culture, heritage and memory, the chapters analyze multilayered public spaces and the negotiations over culture and belonging that are connected to them. Through analyses of diverse case studies, the editors and authors draw out the significance of the participation or exclusion of differing community grassroots and activist groups in such practices and discourses of belonging in relation to the contemporary emergence of identity conflicts and political uses of the past across Europe. They analyze the ways in which people's sense of belonging is connected to cultural heritage and memory practices undertaken in different public spaces including museums, cultural and community centres, city monuments and built heritage, neglected urban spaces and online fora. Diversity of Belonging in Europe provides a valuable contribution to the existing bodies of work on identities, migration, public space, memory and heritage. The book will be of interest to scholars and students with an interest in contested belonging, public spaces and the role of culture and heritage. Susannah Eckersley is Senior Lecturer at Newcastle University, UK, an Associated Research Fellow at the Leibniz Centre for Contemporary History ZZF in Potsdam, Germany, and the Project Leader of encounter points, a collaborative European research project on public spaces and belonging funded by HERA. Her expertise is in memory, museums, difficult heritage, migration, identities and belonging. Claske Vos is an anthropologist and Assistant Professor in the Department of European Studies at the Humanities Faculty of the University of Amsterdam, the Netherlands. Her current work focuses on the intersection of EU funding, cultural activism and enlargement. Her expertise is in European cultural policy, cultural heritage, Southeast Europe and European identity formation. More than a Monologue: Sexual Diversity and the Catholic Church J. Patrick Hornbeck II, Michael A. Norko, 2014-03-03 This volume like its companion Voices of Our Times collects essays drawn from a series of public conferences held in autumn 2011 entitled More than a Monologue. The series was the fruit of collaboration among four institutions of higher learning: two Catholic universities and two nondenominational divinity schools. The conferences aimed to raise awareness of and advance informed, compassionate and dialogical conversation about issues of sexual diversity within the Catholic community as well as in the broader civic worlds that the Catholic Church and Catholic people inhabit. They generated fresh, rich sets of scholarly and reflective contributions that promise to take forward the delicate work of theological, ethical and ecclesial development. Along with Voices of Our Times, this volume captures insights from the conferences and aims to foster what the Jesuit Superior General Fr Adolfo Nicolás has called the depth of thought and imagination needed to engage effectively with complex realities, especially in areas marked by brokenness, pain and the need for healing. The volumes will serve as vital resources for understanding and addressing better the too often fraught relations between LGBTQ lesbian gay bisexual transgender and queer persons their loved ones and allies and the Catholic community Inquiry Thought and Expression explores dimensions of ministry ethics theology and law related to a range of LGBTQ concerns including Catholic teaching its reception among the faithful and the Roman Catholic Church's significant role in world societies Within the volume a series of essays on ministry explores various perspectives not frequently heard within the church Marriage equality and the treatment of LGBTQ individuals by and within the Roman Catholic Church are considered from the vantage points of law ethics and theology Themes of language and discourse are explored in analyses of the place of sexual diversity in church history thought and authority The two volumes of More than a Monologue like the conferences from which they developed actively move beyond the monologic voice of the institutional church on the subject of LGBTQ issues inviting and promoting open conversations about sexual diversity and the church Those who read Inquiry Thought and Expression will encounter not just an excellent resource for research and teaching in the area of moral theology but also an opportunity to actively listen to and engage in groundbreaking discussions about faith and sexuality within and outside the Catholic Church
