

3.49 Editor & Publisher International Yearbook published a listing of the top 10 daily newspapers in the United States, as shown here. Use these population data to compute a mean and a standard deviation. The figures are given in average daily circulation from Monday through Friday. Because the numbers are large, it may save you some effort to recode the data. One way to recode these data is to move the decimal point six places to the left (e.g., 1,774,880 becomes 1.77488). If you recode the data this way, the resulting mean and standard deviation will be correct for the recoded data. To rewrite the answers so that they are correct for the original data, move the decimal point back to the right six places in the answers.

Accountability for Violations of International Humanitarian Law Jadranka Petrovic, 2015-06-26. International criminal adjudication, together with the prosecution and appropriate punishment of offenders at a national level, remains the most effective means of enforcing International Humanitarian Law. This book considers the various issues emanating from present-day breaches of norms of International Humanitarian Law (IHL) and the question of how impunity for such breaches can be tackled. Honouring the work of Timothy McCormack, Professor of International Law at the University of Melbourne and a world-renowned expert on IHL and International Criminal Law, contributors of the book explore the interplay between the rules governing accountability for violations of IHL and other areas of law that impact the prosecution of war crimes, including international criminal law, human rights law, arms control law, constitutional law, and national criminal law. In providing a contemporary consideration of the various issues emerging from present-day breaches of norms of IHL, especially in light of growing interest in fragmentation and normative pluralism, this book will be of great use and interest to students and researchers in public international law, international law, and conflict studies. Conservation and Improvement of Sloping Lands, Volume 3 P. J. Storey, 2011-02-01. Volume 3 takes the subject of better land husbandry further. The book first points out the sort of things which have been and are being used but are failing to deliver what is required. It then explains the causes of erosion, the theory and practice of soil and water conservation, and practical and lasting ways to construct terraces including su The Ethics of Tax Evasion Robert W. McGee, 2011-12-21 Why do people evade paying taxes This is the central question addressed in this volume by Robert McGee and a multidisciplinary group of contributors from around the world Applying insights from economics public finance political science law philosophy theology and sociology the authors consider the complex motivations for not paying taxes and the conditions under which this behavior might be rationalized Applying theoretical approaches as well as empirical research The Ethics of Tax Evasion considers three general arguments for tax evasion 1 in cases where the government is corrupt or engaged in human rights abuses 2 where citizens claim inability to pay unfairness in the tax system paying for things that do not benefit the taxpayer excessively high tax rates or where taxes are used to support an unpopular war and 3 through philosophical moral or religious opposition The authors further explore these issues by asking whether attitudes toward tax evasion differ by country or other demographic variables such as gender age ethnicity income level marital status education or religion The result is a multi faceted analysis of tax evasion in cultural and institutional context and more generally a study in ethical dilemmas and rational decision making The Palestine Yearbook of International Law, 1999-2000 Academie de Droit International, 2002-05-31 This well established and widely respected Yearbook is a primary source of information on significant and topical legal issues relating to the Palestinian territories It provides in a single annual volume not only leading articles on topics of major interest to the international legal community but also key legislation court decisions legal cases treaties resolutions special reports and other relevant legal material translated from the original Arabic or Hebrew into English The 11th volume of The Palestine Yearbook of International Law is devoted specifically to the question of Palestine refugees and includes a comparison of the international legal framework designed to protect refugees with the framework already established for the protection of Palestinian Refugees an examination of the various pieces of legislation enacted to legally confiscate Palestinian lands raising the question as to how the plight of Palestinian refugees may be addressed in the international legal system legal precedents regarding refugees including the Dayton accord and UN Resolutions various agreements signed over the course of the past year a detailed bibliography of books monographs and articles a comprehensive index This new volume as with its predecessors will be an invaluable source of reference and record on the complex legal issues relating to the Palestinian territories and will be of prime interest to legal practitioners researchers scholars and anyone involved in law politics human rights or international relations who has an interest in this region
