Education And Social Transition In The Third World:

Education and Social Transition in the Third World Martin Carnoy, Joel Samoff, 2014-07-14 Through a comparative analysis of educational theory and practice this analytic overview illuminates the larger economic and political changes occurring in five peripheral countries China Cuba Tanzania Mozambique and Nicaragua commonly viewed as in transition to socialism Current political patterns and leadership in these countries have emerged in the context of predominantly agricultural industrially underdeveloped economies Each state has played a major role in social transformation relying on the educational system to train educate and socialize its future citizens Discussing the similarities and differences among these states the authors show the primacy of politics and the interaction of material and ideological goals in the process of social transition and how shifting policies reflect and are reflected in educational change This collection first examines critical analyses of education in capitalist societies both industrialized and peripheral and explores the utility of those perspectives in the political and educational conditions of the countries under study Together these essays offer the first systematic explanation of how and why education in socialist countries undergoing rapid change differs from education in developing capitalist countries Contributions to the study were made by Mary Ann Burris Anton Johnston and Carlos Alberto Torres Originally published in 1990 The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print on demand technology to again make available previously out of print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905 Education, Ethnicity, Society and Global Change in Asia Gerard A. Postiglione, 2017-07-14 In the World Library of Educationalists series international experts compile career long collections of what they judge to be their finest pieces extracts from books key articles salient research findings major theoretical and practical contributions so the world can read them in a single manageable volume Readers will be able to follow the themes and strands and see how their work contributes to the development of the field For more than three decades Gerard A Postiglione has witnessed first hand the globalization of education and society in Hong Kong China and the wider Asian region He is a pioneer among Western scholars in the field and his fluency in Chinese has resulted in innovative primary research and fieldwork He has brought sociological policy and comparative perspectives to important educational issues in Asia His research emphasizes the diversity and complexity of the region from studies of education and the academic profession during Hong Kong s retrocession to reform of ethnic minority education and the rise of world class universities in the Chinese mainland as well as the complexity of mass higher education in an increasingly dynamic Asia He is one of the researchers most sought after by international organizations concerned with educational reform in Asia and by major media outlets to inform the public on issues of globalization and higher education Gerard was honoured by the Comparative and International Education Society with a Lifetime Contribution Award and Best Book Award for his contribution to the field In 2016 he was inducted as a Fellow of the American Educational Research Association This selection of 12 of his most representative papers and chapters documents his scholarship in comparative higher education in Asia The Sociology of Post-Colonial Societies J. E. Goldthorpe,1996-08-13 An analysis of the disparity between rich and poor countries and a discussion of the problems of the poor countries Education in Southern Africa Clive Harber,2013-09-12 Education in Southern Africa is a comprehensive critical reference guide to education in the region With chapters written by an international team of leading regional education experts the book explores the education systems of each country in the region With chapters covering Botswana Lesotho Madagascar Mozambique Namibia South Africa Swaziland and Zimbabwe the book critically examines the development of education provision in each country as well as local and global contexts Including a comparative introduction to the issues facing education in the region as a whole and guides to available online datasets this handbook will be an essential reference for researchers scholars international agencies and policy makers at all levels Nordic Voices ,2009-01-01 This volume represents the work of sixteen authors who all work at different universities and other academic institutions in the Nordic countries It provides insight into the diversity of research being conducted in the northernmost parts of Europe Although it would be incorrect to assert that research in this far away part of Europe represents something drastically different than that done in other parts of the world it would be equally incorrect to maintain that being at the outskirts on the cusp or on the periphery _ whichever way one wishes to describe the position of the Nordic countries in relation to the rest of the world does not influence the ways in which educational processes phenomena and their consequences are viewed These sixteen Nordic Voices discuss with readers different issues regarding teaching and researching Comparative and International Education in the Nordic countries The editors began their collaboration in 2006 working together to revitalize the Nordic Comparative and International Education Society NOCIES was officially re established in May 2008 Halla B Holmarsdottir who is from Iceland lives and works in Norway where she is Associate Professor in Multicultural and International Education at Oslo University College Mina O Dowd whose father is from the USA and mother is Norwegian lives and works in Sweden Nordic Voices Teaching and Researching Comparative and International Education in the Nordic Countries is a result of the collaboration that began over three years ago

Social Transformation and Private Education in China Jing Lin,1999-10-30 Private schools resurfaced in China after 1978 when the Chinese government embarked on an economic reform for modernization This book offers a comprehensive review of the development characteristics issues and problems of private schools at primary secondary and university levels especially elite private schools for children of very wealthy families Based on fieldwork at about 40 private and public schools in China this study also critically examines social response and government reactions to private education development and ends with reflections on its significance and future prospects touching on issues concerning social equality efficiency public school reform and democratization in China Political Sociology of Adult Education Carlos Alberto Torres, 2013-09-03 Critical Theorist Carlos Alberto Torres offers a political sociology of adult learning and education based on Critical Social Theory and the always inspiring work of Paulo Freire Empirically grounded and theoretically sophisticated this new book follows the footsteps of his classic book published in the early nineties The Politics of Nonformal Education in Latin America Torres book offers comparative and international sociological analyses of adult learning and education an area in which there is an obsession with practice and an aversion to theory with some notable and laudable exceptions but which has the potential to provide avenues for social justice education in ways that no other systems and policies can This book revitalizes social theory in education and provides ample evidence of the power of adult learning and education examining a variety of policy documents connected with the various adult education congresses promoted by the UNESCO which are thoroughly scrutinized for what they bring to or omit from the policy agenda In the context of new developments in adult learning and education particularly the impact of multiple globalizations neoliberalism and the new role of international organizations in reconceptualizing lifelong learning new evidence based research new narratives and the vibrancy of social movements striving for a new and possible world it is clear that new theoretical designs were needed making this is a must read book

Education and Development Simon McGrath, 2018-05-08 This title explores the place of education in development debates and provides a systematic as well as a theoretical overview of the main approaches to education and development It emphasises the fact that education is profoundly shaped by national and local cultures even if many issues are shared across institutions in different locations Education and Development discusses different theoretical accounts from different disciplinary traditions to help students understand the complexity of the overall debate The text does not shy away from discussions of education's negative impacts and insists that an account of education must include consideration of early childhood development adult vocational and higher education as well as the growing range of informal and distance forms It includes chapters on human capital human rights and human development and on education gender and development and draws on examples from a wide range of countries and regions such as India Hong Kong Kenya and South Africa The book has a well developed pedagogy including text boxes chapter summaries key questions links to websites and videos and annotated further reading sections Particular attention is paid to ensuring that a plurality of voices contexts and educational sub sectors are represented in the boxes weblinks and references Education and Development provides an introductory overview to the field aimed at the undergraduate level while critically engaging with key themes and questions The book will also be of interest to development practitioners policymakers entrepreneurs and corporate employees engaged in aspects of education and development work Hegemony and Education Under Neoliberalism Peter Mayo, 2015-03-12 Based in a holistic exposition and appraisal of Gramsci's writings that are of relevance to education in neoliberal times this book rather than simply applying Gramsci's theories to issues in education argues that education constitutes the leitmotif of his entire oeuvre and lies at the heart of his conceptualization of the ancient Greek term hegemony that was used by other political theorists before him Starting from this understanding the book goes on to compare Gramsci s theories with those of later thinkers in the development of a critical pedagogy that can confront neoliberalism in all its forms Transitioning Education in Africa Gia Cromer,2023-08-08 Transitioning Education in Africa External Education Providers Emergencies and Authoritarian Structures explores how transitions from education in emergency to post conflict education systems are planned and managed at the national level Currently education for refugees is largely accomplished in emergency or crisis situations by external education providers EEPs in authoritarian contexts Using historical analysis of education policies appreciative inquiry surveys and semi structured interviews Gia Cromer argues that despite historic and current international community stated goals of increasing government capability to provide education neither EEPs nor refugee hosting countries have made these changes especially at the national level This book provides insights on both historical norms toward Africa and authoritarian organizational philosophies and structures that could be contributing to this failure to successfully transition procedures to provide education It also provides one of the few analyses of the problems in education provision for displaced people asylees and refugees specific to eleven countries in Africa The analysis concludes with education policy recommendations for national level education administrators to philosophically and practically decolonize education for the self determination of future education structures in Africa Echoes from Freire for a Critically Engaged Pedagogy Peter Mayo,2012-12-20 In this concise and accessible text Peter Mayo outlines some of the major concepts in Freire s praxis In pursuit of a critically engaging pedagogy Mayo compares Freire s work with a range of other thinkers and educators including Lorenzo Milani Antonia Darder John Dewey Margaret Ledwith Antonio Gramsci and Henry Giroux Chapters in the book include discussions of the State s role in education specifically higher education a critical analysis of the dominant discourse in education centering on competences and the type of slant this discourse takes a study of adult education through a Freirean lens an historical view of Nicaragua s Freire inspired literacy and popular education campaigns of 1980 a fresh perspective on the role of social movements in the contexts of social transformation a new analysis of the relevance of Freirean concepts for transformative research and an exploration of educators as intellectuals and social actors The result is a compelling study of how Paulo Freire s writings continue to resonate around the world and of how we must continue to apply and interpret them anew Sociology of Education: Theories and methods Stephen J. Ball,2000 Learning from Comparing: new directions in comparative education research Robin Alexander,Patricia Broadfoot,David Phillips,1999-01-01 Learning from Comparing is a major two volume study which reassesses the contribution of comparative educational research and theory to our understanding of contemporary educational problems and to our capacity to solve them At a time when educational research is under attack on the grounds of bias and irrelevance and under pressure to address only those questions which are acceptable politically as good a definition of bias as any this is a serious attempt to bridge the worlds of research policy and practice The editors have put together a collection in terms of both perspective and nationality which ensures contrasting viewpoints on each topic

Policy-making for Education Reform in Developing Countries James H. Williams, William K. Cummings, 2005-03-31 The first book in a two volume series designed to help those working or preparing to work as education change agents in developing countries this volume will help change agents acquire a deeper more comprehensive understanding of the policy process and how it can be influenced

Globalization of an Educational Idea Ingrid Miethe, Tim Kaiser, Tobias Kriele, Alexandra Piepiorka, 2019-07-22 In this book authors showcase the worldwide spread of Workers Faculties as an example of both cooperation between socialist countries in education and globalization processes in the field of education Based on extensive research carried out in Cuban German Mozambican and Vietnamese archives as well as expert interviews it combines detailed case studies of educational transfers and policy implementation with a discussion of theoretical approaches to the study of globalization in and of education Research on Workers Faculties provides an especially interesting example for the study of educational transfer between socialist countries as well as for the interplay of such transfers with processes of globalisation for two reasons On one hand the first Workers Faculties were established already shortly after the October Revolution in Russia and Workers Faculties continue to exist in Cuba until today A study of these institutions therefore provides a dynamic perspective covering the whole period of the existence of the socialist camp On the other hand the spread of the Workers Faculty idea to four continents allows for an analysis that takes into account widely differing local contexts This book offers an analysis of general trends and particularities in the history of the global spread of the Workers Faculty idea and its implementation in local contexts Finally it discusses the results with a view towards theories of globalization in the field of education as well as of specificities of processes of socialist globalization

Leaders in the Sociology of Education Alan R. Sadovnik, Ryan W. Coughlan, 2016-10-26 Leaders in the Sociology of Education Intellectual Self Portraits contains eighteen self portraits written by some of the leading sociologists of education in the world Representing the United States the United Kingdom and Hong Kong the authors discuss a variety of factors that have affected their lifetime of scholarship including their childhoods their education and mentors the state of the field during their coming of age the institutions where they have worked the major sociologists during their lifetimes the political and economic conditions during their lifetimes and the social and political movements during their lifetimes These autobiographical essays reveal a great deal not only about their work and their influences but also about themselves Taken as a whole the book provides sociology of knowledge about the creation of sociology of education research since the 1960s It reveals a number of important themes central to all of the authors work including educational inequality the influence of the classical sociological theorists Karl Marx Max Weber and Emile Durkheim and the influence of more recent classical sociologists of education Basil Bernstein Pierre Bourdieu and James Coleman The authors research represents a variety of theoretical and methodological orientations including functionalism conflict and critical theory interactionist theory and feminist theory as well as quantitative qualitative and mixed methods research Finally the editors discuss a number of lessons to be learned from the lives and works of these sociologists of education

Education and Development in Colonial and Postcolonial Africa Damiano Matasci,Miguel Bandeira Jerónimo,Hugo Gonçalves Does,2020-01-03 This open access edited volume offers an analysis of the entangled histories of education and development in twentieth century Africa It deals with the plurality of actors that competed and collaborated to formulate educational and developmental paradigms and projects debating their utility and purpose pondering their necessity and risk and evaluating their intended and unintended consequences in colonial and postcolonial moments Since the late nineteenth century the educability of the native was the subject of several debates and experiments numerous voices arguments and agendas emerged involving multiple institutions and experts governmental and non governmental religious and laic operating from the corridors of international organizations to the towns and rural villages of Africa This plurality of expressions of political social cultural and economic imagination of education and development is at the core of this collective work

Who's Afraid of Children? Helen Brocklehurst,2006 Brocklehurst s impressive work breaks new ground in normative international political theory The author develops a new theoretical framework which exposes how children are present in international relations and security practices

Education, Modern Development, and Indigenous Knowledge Seana McGovern,2013-06-17 This book re conceptualizes the field of international and comparative education by utilizing indigenous knowledge as a central component for altering the dominant eurocentric social science research paradigm Examples from indigenous sources of knowledge are juxtaposed to the dominant discourses on education and modern development in subaltern societies in order to provide scholars with alternative ways of viewing education and development and to shape how subaltern peoples are understood and represented in academic research Bibliography Index

Universities and the Public Sphere Brian Pusser,Ken Kempner,Simon Marginson,Imanol Ordorika,2012-05-22 Universities have been propelled into the center of the global political economy of knowledge production by a number of factors mass education academic capitalism the globalization of knowledge the democratization of communication in the era of the Internet and the emergence of the knowledge and innovation economy The latest book in the International Studies in Higher Education series Universities and the Public Sphere addresses the vital role of research universities as global public spheres sites where public interaction conversation and deliberation take place where the nature of the State and private interests can be openly debated and contested At a time of increased privatization open markets and government involvement in higher education the book also addresses the challenges facing the university in its role as a global public sphere In this volume international contributors challenge prevalent views of the global marketplace to create a deeper understanding of higher education s role in knowledge creation and nation building In nearly every national context the pressures of globalization neo liberal economic restructuring and new managerial imperatives challenge traditional norms of autonomy academic freedom access and affordability The authors in Universities and the Public Sphere argue that universities are uniquely suited to have transformative democratic potential as global public spheres
