Student Power in Africa's Higher Education Frederick K. Byaruhanga, 2013-10-08 This book the first of its kind to treat Uganda provides a historical analysis of the role of student voices in the development of Uganda's higher education It not only chronicles incidents of student protests but also explores and analyses their trigger points as well as the strategies employed by the university the government and the students to manage or resolve those crises In addition the book highlights the role played by national politics in shaping student political consciousness in particular their involvement in protests riots and demonstrations The book therefore limits its scope to the unfolding and impact of student crisis on the process of higher education Byaruhanga recommends that colleges and universities need to increase communication with students as well as promote student involvement in decision and policy making among other things in order to forestall future conflicts Most distinctively the book aims to address the current paucity of research on student activism in Uganda's higher education and highlights the critical need for research on higher education in Africa as a field of study The book also may serve as a base for cross national comparative analysis

Nigeria - Politics, Religion, Pentecostal-Charismatic Power and Challenges Akintayo Emmanuel, 2023-10-13 Nigeria presents an enthralling case study for understanding developing archetypes in interreligious encounters in Africa The global community needs a cultural understanding and sensitivity for productive engagement with the Arab and non Arab Muslim world The Nigeria religious exigencies provide a requisite intelligence into the challenges facing a global community seeking to foster peace Without a domain of tolerance love equity and justice Nigeria will continually be immured by pessimism parochialism cynicism and mutual suspicion Despite being the largest economy in Africa and the most populous Black country Nigeria demonstrates incessantly an uncommon fault line between Christianity and Islam The significance of this goes beyond the borders of Nigeria but has become a global showcase anywhere the two religions exist contemporaneously Nigeria is the nexus between west and central Africa Rooted in the dusty Sahel of the north the savannah plains the rich rainforests of the Atlantic coast the rocky hills of the West and the oil filled swamps of the Delta Nigeria is the beauty sound vision passion and the soul of the African continent In Nigeria the Nigeria Pentecostal Charismatic Movement possesses a distinctive flair that demands a holistic understanding of the movement's historical, cultural, fundamental and religious dimensions in a multifarious religious landscape. The disquisition of the movement's political cognizance, identity, power, authority, theology, popular culture, ethics and missiological impact in northern Nigeria presents a fine embroidery of their trials, frustrations and challenges but inveterate in faith, hope and love that opens up innovative panoramas of peaceful dialogical prospects and coexistence between Christians and Muslims in northern Nigeria. In Nigeria Politics Religion Pentecostal Charismatic Power and Challenges Akintayo Emmanuel reconnoiters the complex missiological hindrances challenging the Nigerian Pentecostal Charismatic Movement. Their contextual missional landslide disheveled with complicated paradoxes in the way the Christian majority have responded to Muslims in northern Nigeria is anatomized. The Nigerian Pentecostal Charismatic Movement's puissance to solve some of Nigeria's political, ideological, cultural and spiritual dimensions of crisis and sectarian violence is achievable if the movement can mitigate her missiological hindrances. The responses of Nigerian Pentecostal Charismatic Movement to Nigeria's socio-political and ethno-religious complexities can construct a great future for the soul of Nigeria. They do not only have the capacity to provide the Christian alternatives to Nigeria's peculiarities; they can also stimulate Nigeria's deification among other nations by continuing to disentangle from unscrupulousness and atrociousness embedded within a reproach and opprobrium to any people.

Religion, Violence, and Local Power-Sharing in Nigeria Laura Thaut Vinson, 2017-10-26

Why does religion become a fault line of communal violence in some pluralistic countries and not others? Under what conditions will religious identity as opposed to other salient ethnic cleavages become the spark that ignites communal violence? Contemporary world politics since 9/11 is increasingly marked by intra-state communal clashes in which religious identity is the main fault line. Yet violence erupts only in some religiously pluralistic countries and only in some parts of those countries. This study argues that prominent theories in the study of civil conflict cannot adequately account for the variation in subnational identity-based violence. Examining this variation in the context of Nigeria's pluralistic north-central region, this book finds support for a new theory of power sharing. It finds that communities are less likely to fall prey to a divisive narrative of religious difference where local leaders informally agreed to abide by an inclusive local government power sharing arrangement.

Revitalizing Nigerian Education in Digital Age Soji Oni, 2012-10-11

Revitalizing Nigerian Education in Digital Age. What most of the papers in this book have in common is the concern for the revitalization of Nigerian education in the digital age through ICT and other modern methods of making education functional and effective in the new modernity. While some of the chapters deal with conceptual issues, others consider the various roles of education in this digital age and how Nigeria can be relevant. Most of the chapters present well-researched, detailed and informative papers on how to reposition Nigerian education in the digital age. Specifically, the role of education in bringing Nigeria's new world about are discussed in simple language and then taken up in different forms all through the book. Since Nigeria has to act fast and decisively to be on the same development and education wavelength as the other members of today's global family serious actions are being suggested in this book Revitalizing Nigerian Education in Digital Age simply means taking the above desiderata seriously Nigeria has a daunting task here in view of the heavy education burden This is the message that this book puts across

Women and Power Olutoyin Mejiuni, 2013-05-15 Education is an important tool for the development of human potential Organizations and individuals interested in development consider knowledge skills and attitudes obtained through formal non formal and incidental learning as invaluable assets Therefore it is necessary to reflect on fundamental elements that shape the process through which education is attained How do people learn and what are the conditions that facilitate effective learning Answers to these questions demonstrate that no education can be politically neutral because there is no value free education The traditional or indigenous education systems in Nigeria which covered and still cover physical training development of character respect for elders and peers development of intellectual skills specific vocational trainings developing a sense of belonging and participation in community affairs and understanding appreciating and promoting the cultural heritage of the community were and are not value free In other words the goals and purpose of education the content the entire process and the procedures chosen for evaluation in education are all value laden This book attempts to show that the teaching learning process in higher education and religion taught and learned through non formal and informal education or the hidden curriculum and other socialization processes within and outside the formal school system all interface to determine the persons that women become This education enhances or limits women's capabilities whether in the civic political sphere or in their attempts to resist violence Hence education and religion have ways of empowering or disempowering women Agricultural engineering developed as an engineering discipline underpinned by physics, applies scientific principles, knowledge, and technological innovations in the agricultural and food industries. Among these, Agricultural Mechanization is ranked among the top 10 in a list of 20 Top Engineering Achievements of the last century that have had the greatest impact on the quality of life. 'Along the Routes to Power' Martin Pütz, Joshua A.

Fishman, JoAnne Neff-van Aertselaer, 2011-12-22. The present volume grew out of the 30th International LAUD Symposium held on April 19-22, 2004, at the University of Koblenz-Landau in Landau, Germany. The conference, 'Empowerment through Language', was centrally concerned with the concept of power and/or empowerment as observed in the status and use of language(s) and their speakers in bilingual and multilingual communities. The book discusses the theoretical issues inherent in the relation between language and power, the empowerment strategies involved in language policy and language planning situations, and the issue of language endangerment in Africa, i.e. the fate of minority languages and their speakers and the sociopolitical factors perpetuating their exclusion from access to knowledge and skills. The volume constitutes a collection of papers by prominent linguists from many countries who explore the exciting interdisciplinary area of language power and linguistic empowerment. Broadly speaking, the papers focus on the theoretical and sociolinguistic problems related to the role of power in language policy and language planning situations in multilingual settings language choices code switches and associated topics Thus the aim of the volume is to open up language policy and language planning issues as observed in multilingual contexts nations institutions other settings and domains to the wider community of critical sociolinguistics by concentrating on the relationship between language and power More particularly it offers a decidedly sociolinguistic perspective to the study of language and power which likewise has been tackled from other perspectives in the areas of sociology and political science This interdisciplinary relationship is important both for linguistics and for the sociology of language In this way the book is an important contribution to general linguistics sociolinguistics minority issues in multilingual settings as well as the social sciences In honor of his upcoming 80th birthday 2006 Fishman s colleagues and former students are preparing five volumes by him or about him this being one of them Four Decades in the Study of Nigerian Languages & Linguistics Ozo-mekuri Ndimele, 2019-01-01 This volume is produced in commemoration of the official retirement of Professor Kay Williamson from the Department of Linguistics and Communication Studies University of Port Harcourt Nigeria The contributing essayists cover five main generations of Nigerian linguists The collection is divided into six sections Language history and Society Applied Linguistics and Orthography Design Gender and Communication Studies Stylistics and Literature Pragmatics Discourse Analysis and Translation and Formal Linguistics Some of the contributors include Ayo Bamgbose Okon Essie Ben Elugbe P A Nwachukwu E N Emenanjo P Anagbogu Chinyere Ohiri Aniche O M Ndimele O G Harry Levi Igwe C U Omego O Ojukwu A U Weje O N Anyanwu and A Idafuro Power, Politics, and Higher Education in Southern Africa: International Regimes, Local Governments, and Educational Autonomy José Augusto Cossa, 2008 The interface of power politics and education as an arena for the exercise of influential and authoritative decisions of global regional and national actors seeking to control African educational processes constitutes a key area for more critical reflection and needed research Indeed the persistent challenges and the search for development paradigms in the Africa call for the production of critical knowledge produced by scholars who can effectively locate their analyses of the local and national in the broader framework as the site of contention and negotiation between these actors with their common and also competing interests This is the context in which this book with a focus on Southern Africa and using Mozambique as an illustrative case study can be localized Handbook of Research on Enhancing Teacher Education with Advanced Instructional Technologies Ololube, Nwachukwu Prince, 2015-07-17 Before today s teachers are ready to instruct the intellectual leaders of tomorrow they must first be trained themselves Information and communication technology can greatly increase the effectiveness of this training and also aid teachers as they seek to bring the latest technological advancements into their own classrooms The Handbook of Research on Enhancing Teacher Education with Advanced Instructional Technologies explains the need to bring technology to the forefront of teacher training With an emphasis on how information and communication technology can provide richer learning outcomes this book is an essential
