Crossover Picturebooks Sandra L. Beckett, 2013-06-17 This book situates the picturebook genre within the widespread international phenomenon of crossover literature, examining an international corpus of picturebooks including artists' books, wordless picturebooks, and celebrity picturebooks that appeal to readers of all ages. Focusing on contemporary picturebooks, Sandra Beckett shows that the picturebook has traditionally been seen as a children's genre, but in the eyes of many authors, illustrators, and publishers, it is a narrative form that can address any and all age groups. Innovative graphics and formats, as well as the creative, often complex dialogue between text and image, provide multiple levels of meaning and invite readers of all ages to consider texts that are primarily marketed as children's books. The interplay of text and image that distinguishes the picturebook from other forms of fiction and makes it a unique art form also makes it the ultimate crossover genre. Crossover picturebooks are often very complex texts that are challenging for adults as well as children. Many are characterized by difficult adult themes, genre blending, metafictional discourse, intertextuality, sophisticated graphics, and complex text-image interplay. Exciting experiments with new formats and techniques, as well as novel interactions with new media and technologies, have made the picturebook one of the most vibrant and innovative contemporary literary genres, one that seems to know no boundaries. Crossover Picturebooks is a valuable addition to the study of a genre that is gaining increasing recognition and appreciation and contributes significantly to the field of children's literature as a whole.

Poems for Life, 2011-12-01 What is your favorite poem? That is the question students from two fifth-grade classes at a New York grade school asked famous people to whom they had written. Their idea, the students explained, was to put together a book that would benefit the Women's Commission for Refugee Women and Children. The students were also studying poems in class and wanted to know if anybody still, in fact, read and gained insight from poetry. Touched by this appeal to their hearts, minds, and memories, fifty celebrities responded to their inquiries including Geraldine Ferraro Allen Ginsberg Rudi Giuliani Peter Jennings Angela Lansbury Yo Yo Ma Isabella Rossellini Diane Sawyer Ally Sheedy Kurt Vonnegut and Tom Wolfe The poems they offer range from John Donne to Langston Hughes but their letters all express hope that the students and readers of this wonderful gift book will read and take inspiration from the poetry of past and present Of all the words that have stuck to the ribs of my soul poetry has been the most filling writes Anna Quindlen in her introduction and this beautiful inspiring collection of poetry is the perfect expression of how poets can influence and shape our lives
