Yarnall, 2017-07-05 John La Farge A Biographical and Critical Study is the first biography in a century of the American painter illustrator muralist stained glass artist and writer Examining La Farge s career from his youth to his late rebound as a decorative artist from New York City and New England to Europe to Japan to the South Seas this is also the only biography to date composed independently of the artist and his estate Drawing on primary documentation culled from archives and contemporary newspapers and journals the biography thoroughly documents La Farge s career and artwork Earlier biographies avoided the darker aspects of his complex and conflicted life which had dramatic effects on his work The study also offers critical analysis of the artist s works showing influences from other artists and giving contemporary and modern responses La Farge authority James L Yarnall scrutinizes how posterity has viewed the artist throughout the century since his death The book is copiously illustrated with black and white and color images The Life and Work of Martin Johnson Heade Theodore E. Stebbins, Janet L. Comey, Martin Johnson Heade, Karen E. Quinn, 2000-01-01 Martin Johnson Heade was one of the most significant American painters of the nineteenth century creator of portraits history and genre pictures still lifes ornithological studies landscapes and marines and his own unique orchid and hummingbird compositions This book brings a perspective to Heade and his works presenting him as one of the most original and productive painters of his time Theodore Stebbins builds on his acclaimed 1975 study of Heade drawing on several newly discovered collections of Heade s letters and the painter s own Brazilian journal Stebbins tells of Heade s training and early career as an itinerant portraitist and discusses his move to New York where under the influence of Frederic E Church he began painting landscapes and seascapes He examines Heade s relationships with patrons and dealers writers and scientists and he sheds new light on Heade s trips to Brazil to the Central American tropics and to London And he describes Heade s move to Florida in 1883 which marked not his retirement but a final period of creativity that lasted until his death in 1904 The book includes not only an examination of Heade s life and works but also reproductions of all his 620 known paintings including nearly 250 that have been discovered since 1975 Grappling with Legacy Sylvia Brown, 2017-05-08 This is a fascinating and intellectually honest work about a remarkable family that has played a major role in the history of Providence and Rhode Island Sylvia Brown has made a tremendous contribution in writing this wonderful book It is clearly a labor of love and we should all be grateful to her for it Vartan Gregorian President of Carnegie Corporation of New York former President of Brown University A splendid work of history an honest clearly written and solidly based account of the private and public lives through four centuries of one of Americas most important and fascinating families Gordon Wood Pulitzer Prize for History Alva O Way

University Professor and Professor of History Emeritus at Brown University What fuels a familys compulsion for philanthropy Self interest A feeling of guilt A sense of genuine altruism Charitable giving is such an intrinsic part of American culture that its story deserves to be told not in a dry academic tome but through the tale of a colorful multifaceted family Since 1638 the Browns of Rhode Island have provided community leaders in one of the nations most idiosyncratic states In the 18th century they excelled at maritime commerce were pioneers of the American industrial revolution and adorned their hometown of Providence with public buildings churches and a university In the 19th century they pioneered the modern notion that universities can be forces for social good And in the 20th century they sought to transform the human experience through great art and architecture Over three hundred years the Browns also wrestled with societys toughest issues slavery immigration child labor the dispossessed and with their own internal family tensions Author Sylvia Brown tells the story of the ten generations of Browns that came before her with warmth and lucidity Today in an era of wealth creation and philanthropic innovation not seen since the Gilded Age Grappling with Legacy provides fascinating insights into a unique aspect of Americas heritage Race and Racism in Nineteenth-Century Art Naurice Frank Woods Jr., 2021-06-28 Painters Robert Duncanson ca 1821 1872 and Edward Bannister 1828 1901 and sculptor Mary Edmonia Lewis ca 1844 1907 each became accomplished African American artists But as emerging art makers of color during the antebellum period they experienced numerous incidents of racism that severely hampered their pursuits of a profession that many in the mainstream considered the highest form of social cultivation Despite barriers imposed upon them due to their racial inheritance these artists shared a common cause in demanding acceptance alongside their white contemporaries as capable painters and sculptors on local regional and international levels Author Naurice Frank Woods Jr provides an in depth examination of the strategies deployed by Duncanson Bannister and Lewis that enabled them not only to overcome prevailing race and gender inequality but also to achieve a measure of success that eventually placed them in the top rank of nineteenth century American art Unfortunately the racism that hampered these three artists throughout their careers ultimately denied them their rightful place as significant contributors to the development of American art Dominant art historians and art critics excluded them in their accounts of the period In this volume Woods restores their artistic legacies and redeems their memories introducing these significant artists to rightful new audiences American Paintings and Sculpture at the Sterling and Francine Clark Art Institute Margaret C. Conrads, Sterling and Francine Clark Art Institute, 1990 A catalog of the American art in the collection includes work by John Singer Sargent Winslow Homer Mary Cassatt Frederick Remington and others The Rockefeller Collection of American Art at the Fine Arts Museums of San Francisco Fine Arts Museums of San Francisco, Marc Simpson, Patricia A.
