

The background of the entire image is a photograph of a forest landscape. In the foreground, there are several dark evergreen trees, possibly spruce or fir, standing on a field of dry, brownish grass. The middle ground shows more trees, but they are shrouded in a thick mist or fog. The sky is a gradient of warm colors, from a pale yellow near the horizon to a soft pink and purple at the top, suggesting a sunrise or sunset. The overall mood is serene and somewhat melancholic.

Patrick Hornbeck II, Michael A. Norko, 2014-03-03 This volume like its companion Voices of Our Times collects essays drawn from a series of public conferences held in autumn 2011 entitled More than a Monologue. The series was the fruit of collaboration among four institutions of higher learning: two Catholic universities and two nondenominational divinity schools. The conferences aimed to raise awareness of and advance informed, compassionate and dialogical conversation about issues of sexual diversity within the Catholic community as well as in the broader civic worlds that the Catholic Church and Catholic people inhabit. They generated fresh, rich sets of scholarly and reflective contributions that promise to take forward the delicate work of theological, ethical and ecclesial development. Along with Voices of Our Times, this volume captures insights from the conferences and aims to foster what the Jesuit Superior General Fr Adolfo Nicolás has called the depth of thought and imagination needed to engage effectively with complex realities, especially in areas marked by brokenness, pain and the need for healing. The volumes will serve as vital
