Cultural Critique and the Global Corporation Purnima Bose, Laura E. Lyons, 2010 This book examines the stories that corporations tell about themselves and explores the powerful influence of corporations in the transformation of cultural and social life Six case studies draw on CEO memoirs annual reports management manuals advertising campaigns and other sources to analyze the self representations and rhetorical maneuvers that corporations use to obscure the full extent of their power Images of corporate character and responsibility are intertwined with the changes in local economy politics and culture wrought by globalization and neoliberalism The contributors to this volume describe the effects of specific corporate practices on individuals and communities and how activists and academics are responding to labor and environmental abuses

One Crow Sorrow Lisa Martin-DeMoor, 2011-11-15 Lisa Martin DeMoor's debut collection of poetry One Crow Sorrow is both fearless and vulnerable an exploration of grief and loss that is rooted in life affirmation in deep attention to the natural world From a tangle of snowflakes in Saskatchewan to cell masses like dislodged icebergs the earth and body inform one another their cycles of life entwined The resulting poems explore grief as an extension of love and mortality as an extension of living Pain she writes is the opened bloom of beauty Invested Indifference Kara Granzow, 2020-06-15 In 2004 Amnesty International characterized Canadian society as indifferent to high rates of violence against Indigenous women and girls When the Canadian government took another twelve years to launch a national inquiry that indictment seemed true Invested Indifference offers a divergent perspective by examining practices during three different periods in the place we now call Edmonton juxtaposing early settler texts documents concerning the former Charles Camsell Indian Hospital and contemporary online police materials Kara Granzow reaches a startling conclusion that what we see as societal indifference doesn't come from an absence of feeling but from a deep rooted and affective investment in framing specific lives as disposable Granzow demonstrates that through mechanisms such as the law medicine and control of land and space violence against Indigenous peoples has become symbolically and politically ensconced in the social construction of Canadian nationhood

Out Here Tomasz Basiuk, Dominika Ferens, Tomasz Sikora, 2009-03-26 Out Here originates from a series of queer studies conferences which took place in Poland between 2002 and 2004 and includes essays an autobiographical account and two short stories Their authors are of eight nationalities Canadian Belgian Flemish German Hungarian Polish Spanish Ukrainian and U S American The academic papers represent a wide range of disciplines philosophy literature ethnography cultural and gender studies Some combine theoretical insights and critical analysis with suggestions for activism The short stories explore the formative moments of a queer adolescence in Anglophone Canada The eclecticism of Out Here reflects the cauldron like mix of concerns taken up locally in places considered peripheral in relation to the centers of queer theory in British and American academia It is out here or back then often within the context of rampant homophobia that queer methodologies prove especially productive Out here queer theory is alive and kicking Whether the authors write about sexual awakenings in Sri Lanka and Canada or heterosexism in contemporary Ukraine Hungary Belgian parks and 1970s Britain or racial exclusion in American gay bars or the veiled homophobia of Polish textbooks what connects them is the commitment to questioning the limitations placed on queer desire

Edmonton In Our Own Words Linda Goyette, Carolina Jakeway Roemmich, 2005-04-18 Linda Goyette and Carolina Roemmich have tapped Edmonton's collective memoir through the written record the spoken stories and the vast silences All of the people who ever lived at this bend in the North Saskatchewan took part in creating the city we know as Edmonton Through traditional Indigenous stories about the earliest travellers along the bend in the river diaries archival records and letters of 19th century inhabitants and the recollections of living residents who talk about the emerging city Edmonton's history is told using the words and stories of the people who have called this city home Citizens with diverse viewpoints speak for themselves describing important events in Edmonton's social political and economic development Foreword by Keith Turnbull The official publication of the City of Edmonton's Centennial Edmonton In Our Own Words includes many never seen before photographs from private collections historic maps and a timeline of Edmonton's history Imagine a conversation between Edmonton's past inhabitants and its living citizens What would we tell the rest of the world about our place on the map What stories would we tell with tears in our eyes or laughter or pride In Edmonton In Our Own Words experience the personal stories of eyewitnesses and descendants explaining arguing crying scolding laughing and interrupting one another in a city s evolving conversation with itself as Edmonton celebrates its past and future The authors tap Edmonton s collective memoir through written records and spoken stories All those who ever lived at this bend in the North Saskatchewan took part in creating the city we know as Edmonton Citizens with diverse viewpoints speak for themselves describing important events in the city s social political and economic development Edmonton A. W. Cashman, Tony Cashman, 2002-07 Whether the edge of the frontier or the centre of the oil boom Edmonton has been a vibrant city for nearly a century In Edmonton Stories from the River City Tony Cashman tells the tales of the people who built the Alberta capital Meet John Rowand Edmonton s first Hawaiian tourist George Thomson the postmaster of Old Strathcona Amer Stimmel Edmonton s most popular if least successful mayoral candidate Tom Campbell Edmonton s Mr Scotland J C Noel a judge who brought an unusual sensibility to northern justice John Mike Michaels founder of a downtown landmark and dozens of other characters who made Edmonton the dynamic culturally diverse city it is today Writing with an easy light hearted touch Tony Cashman presents forty vignettes of life in a simpler era Whether you re a visitor to the city or an Albertan born and bred these Edmonton stories will charm you again and again The Malahat Review ,2006

Kidmonton Linda Goyette, 2011-02-01 An original look at a city s development through the eyes and words of real children who have lived there Kidmonton True Stories of River City Kids is a lively illustrated book for young readers that relates the city s history entirely from the point of view of real children over time Using the techniques of fiction to bring true stories to life the book embraces all of Edmonton s children aboriginal immigrant inner city and suburban challenged and privileged born in Edmonton and recently arrived A timeline glossary and suggestions for more reading and city exploring are also included This chapter book has been written specifically for eight and nine year olds who often encounter Alberta s history for the first time in Grade Four Full of fresh vivid writing and humour it will be a pleasure to read in the classroom or at home Kidmonton tells the city s story to its youngest citizens in a bold new way Please visit www.courageouskids.ca for more information on the whole Courageous Kids series Edmonton's Urban Villages Ron Kuban, 2005-07-08 How did a collection of neighborhood volunteer organizations come to influence the development of a major Canadian city Few other North American cities have embraced the community league movement with the vigor of Edmonton For 87 years tens of thousands of volunteers from the Edmonton Federation of Community Leagues EFCL have often acted as a counterweight to large private and institutional interests shaping municipal development by providing a voice and a training ground for grassroots civic participation In its wake the EFCL has left a host of sports cultural and civic initiatives for the improvement of Edmonton and an important lesson on how to create community The Commercial and Financial Chronicle ,1876

and imagination author Linda Goyette has created a collection of 25 stories based on the true stories of named children of the past and present Too often the youngest Canadians are erased from our historical memory Rocky Mountain Kids provides firstperson creative non fiction narratives from the region s children many of whom went on to be influential adults In the style of its successful predecessor Kidmonton these are lively and entertaining stories but they don t flinch in their description of hardship and heroism Balanced and well researched Goyette writes of First Nations M tis immigrant and settler children as well as contemporary kids of the Rockies with informative postscript to help readers distinguish between the fact and the fiction Against the timeless backdrop of the Rockies we can all embrace a sense of childhood wonder Please visit www.courageouskids.ca for more information on the whole Courageous Kids series Commercial and Financial Chronicle ,1925 The Sweet Fuels Erin Knight,2007 With a supple meditative approach Erin Knight explores the complexity of beauty in this first collection by an astonishing new talent The Sweet Fuels also reflects on the notion of orientation whether in terms of magnetic north or street signs the entrails of an animal or the vowels in a name as a task of translation Of the more than four dozen poems in the book some are written in English others are rendered from Spanish Still others perform a high wire act written in English converted to Spanish and then back into English The practise of translation allows for a direction that does not try to reorder or simplify the world but rather emphasizes the promise of continuous engagement with our points of reference The Water Chronicle ,1913 The Commercial & Financial Chronicle ... ,1921
