Gardens take many forms and have a variety of functions. They can serve as spaces of peace and tranquility, a way to cultivate wildlife or as places to develop agricultural resources. Globally, gardens have inspired, comforted and sustained people from all walks of life and since the Garden of Eden many iconic gardens have inspired great artists, poets, musicians and writers. In this Very Short Introduction, Gordon Campbell embraces gardens in all their splendour, from parks and fruit and vegetable gardens to ornamental gardens, and takes the reader on a globe-trotting historical journey through iconic and cultural signposts of gardens from different regions and traditions. Ranging from the gardens of ancient Persia to modern day allotments, he concludes by looking to the future of the garden in the age of global warming and the adaptive spirit of human innovation.

The Garden of Ideas Richard Aitken, 2010. The Garden of Ideas tells an inspiring and engaging story of Australian garden design. From the imaginings of emigrant garden makers of the late eighteenth century to the concerns of twenty-first century gardeners, this book charts its way across four centuries through a handsome and satisfying fusion of images and text. The Garden of Ideas is embellished with an unparalleled array of images, paintings, drawings, prints, plans and photographs, each richly evocative of their time and most never previously published. Unearthed from around Australia and many from overseas, these images carry the story of Australian garden style down the years in the process criss-crossing social and cultural history across the wide extremes of our continent. Richard Aitken, whose book Botanical Riches was published in 2006 to popular and critical acclaim, brings a lifetime of experience to The Garden of Ideas. He achieves fresh insights and presents our passion for garden making with wit and flair. The Garden of Ideas is a valuable source book for the sophisticated gardener and an indispensable companion for the garden lover.
