K.,2007-08-14 Intended as a text for undergraduate and postgraduate courses B Ed M Ed B A M A Education and diploma level courses in Education as well as for courses in Special Education this comprehensive and accessible book provides a sound base for understanding Special Children through an insightful and incisive discussion on Special Education. The text dwells on exceptional children or children with special needs who either suffer from various deficits or disabilities or are gifted. Such children include the mentally retarded, the visually and hearing impaired, the emotionally disturbed, those with autism, cerebral palsy, and the deprived, as well as the gifted and the creative. This well-organized and pedagogically rich text should be extremely useful to students as well as professionals, special education teachers, those engaged in guidance and counselling, educational policy makers, and field workers who have an abiding interest in the education of exceptional children and in special education.

KEY FEATURES Includes student-friendly features like illustrations, examples, tables, and research-based experimental findings. Provides a complete picture of exceptionality from the early years of human history to the present day. Gives case histories to practically illustrate the subject.

Educating the Exceptional Child Kirk, Samuel A. Kirk, 1992-12 Educating an Exceptional Child Kirk, 1997-09 Educating Exceptional Children, 2012 Education of Exceptional Children Panda K.C., 1999

This is a basic text on the education of exceptional children covering fundamentals of special education and integrated education for various categories of exceptional children: the mentally retarded, the hearing handicapped, the visually handicapped, the learning disabled, the slow learner, the emotionally disturbed, the speech and language handicapped, the physically handicapped, the gifted, and the socially disadvantaged. It also covers the genesis of the special education movement in our country, policies and programmes, critical issues and innovations, the rights of the disabled, manpower development avenues, and research perspectives in education of exceptional children.

Methods Of Teaching Exceptional Children J. Madhu Bala, 2010

Teacher education is quantitatively marching ahead towards quality education. The central and state governments through the NCTE and the Directorates of School Higher Education are rendering their legitimate service in improving the quality of teacher education by formulating and implementing various academic policies and educational programmes. Along with these policies and programmes, the teacher educators and the prospective teachers teaching and studying in teacher education institutions need good curriculum and quality books.

Contents: Introduction, Basic Issues, Fundamental Elements, The Disadvantaged, Mentally Disabled Children, Socially Backward Children, Slow Learning, Specific Provisions, New Experiments, Integrated Streams, Training the Teachers, Talented Children, Research Work, Assessment of Research, Official Policies, Programme of Action, Young Criminals, Conclusion.

Education of Exceptional Children M. Dash, 2007

The present book is an introduction to education of exceptional children. It incorporates modern trends and practices in the identification, assessment, placement, and education of children with special needs: hearing impaired, visually impaired, mentally retarded, learning disabled, emotionally disturbed, socially disadvantaged, and gifted children. And the role of the regular teacher in meeting their special needs and managing them in the integrated settings. Special chapters are also devoted for a discussion on integrated education and special education with reference to Npe.
