Advocate of Peace Through Justice ,1920     The Principles of New Ethics IV Wang Haiming, 2020-12-29 From Descartes to Spinoza Western philosophers have attempted to propose an axiomatic systemization of ethics However without consensus on the contents and objects of ethics the system remains incomplete This four volume set presents a model that highlights a Chinese philosopher's insights into ethics after a 22 year study Three essential components of ethics are examined meta ethics normative ethics and virtue ethics In this volume the author analyzes the relationship between people's sense of reputation the political and economic status of a nation and the observation of virtue ethics and he argues that reputation can encourage people to conform to virtue ethics In addition a nation s political and economic status is closely connected to people s virtue ethics That is people will have higher virtue ethics when constitutional democracy a market economy without government control freedom of speech and the moral system of liberalism and egalitarianism are established in a nation This title is an essential read for students and scholars of ethics and philosophy in general The Advocate of Peace ,1919 Strength of Mind Jacob L. Goodson,2018-09-19 Higher education in the twenty first century should bring together freedom and knowledge with courage and hope Why these four concepts As Goodson argues in Strength of Mind higher education in the twenty first century offers preparation for ordinary life Freedom and knowledge serve as the conditions for cultivating courage and hope within one s ordinary life More specifically courage and hope ought to be understood as the virtues required for enjoying ordinary life If college educated citizens wish to hold onto the concepts of courage and hope however then both courage and hope need to be understood as intellectual virtues As a moral virtue courage has become outdated As a theological virtue hope violates the logic of the golden mean Focusing on intellectual virtues also requires shifting from moral perfectionism to rational perfectionism Rational perfectionism involves keeping impossible demands in view for oneself while constantly and continually striving for one s unattained but attainable self Goodson defends these arguments by learning from the bits of wisdom found within American Transcendentalism Emerson Cavell German Idealism Kant Hegel Jewish philosophy Maimonides Spinoza Putnam neo pragmatism Putnam Rorty West post modern theories about pedagogy Nietzsche Foucault Rorty and secular accounts of perfectionism Murdoch Cavell John Dewey's Educational Philosophy in International Perspective Larry A. Hickman,Giuseppe Spadafora,2009-04-24 This title examines the influence of American philosopher John Dewey 1859 1952 11 experts examine his work placing special emphasis on his influence in education in Italy Central and Eastern Europe and in Spain and South America His views on the ties between education and the democratic state and school and society are also examined Gadflies in the Public Space Ramin Jahanbegloo,2016-12-13 The concept of disobedient consciousness and the rebellious Socratic mind that grows out of this book is above all a product of Ramin Jahanbegloo s life meetings with the two apparently contradictory worlds of philosophy and politics More precisely it is the result of approaching the public realm in terms of a philosophical quest for truth and justice This restless quest for truth and justice has a history that continues to bear upon us however much we choose to ignore it We can think about the current situation of philosophy by exploring that history The image of Socrates represents a mid point between politics and philosophy the Socratic mind exemplified by the presence of the public gadfly in history finds itself at the beginning of a new struggle for truth The journey to this struggle started with the trial of Socrates followed by the experiences of Henry David Thoreau Mahatma Gandhi Martin Luther King Jr and Albert Camus But the forging of the rebellious mind and the sustaining of the civic task of philosophy are goals which impose themselves to each of us whenever we are reminded by the urgency of critical thinking in our own dark times The future of humankind necessarily requires convictions and commitments but it also requires Socratic rebels of the mind and of action who have the courage to swim against the tide Examining dissent in the history of philosophy this book will appeal to scholars of political theory and political philosophy and to scholars and students of political and intellectual history      Readings for Learning to Teach in the Secondary School Susan Anne Capel, Marilyn Leask, Tony Turner, 2010 This collection brings together key articles to develop and support student teachers understanding of the theory research and evidence base that underpins effective practice Each reading is contextualised and includes questions to encourage reflection and help engage with material critically      The Transformative Politics of Music Education Tuulikki Laes, Gert Biesta, Heidi Westerlund, 2025-02-14 This book introduces a unique approach to the interconnections between music education and politics By taking a broader more diverse and explicitly ethico political philosophical and theoretical stance the book challenges institutional and structural conditions that may be resistant to change and expands the understanding of the professional responsibility of music educators in the 21st century to meet a variety of societal and ecological challenges Emerging from a collaboration between international music education scholars and prominent contemporary educational theorist Gert Biesta this book connects contemporary educational theories with music education to unlock its transformational capacity In eight chapters the contributors show how music education can move towards ways of being and doing that are attuned to social justice and to the broader social and ecological responsibility of music professionals Strengthening the interdisciplinary connections between music education and education philosophy sociology policy systems thinking and more the volume offers a renewed vision of the scope and boundaries of both music teacher education and professional work in music more widely Connecting the decades long work of internationally established music educator scholars and ideas from large scale research projects with a shared interest in transformative theorisation this book fills a knowledge gap and reframes the philosophy of music education as a vibrantly multidisciplinary theory generating field Relevant to researchers and students across music teacher education and performance studies this book speaks to both conservatoires and university contexts across Europe and North America helping us unlock the transformative capacity of music education
