Education Reform Quest For Excellence:

Education Reform and the Quest for Excellence Lok Sang Ho, Paul Morris, Yue-ping Chung, 2005-11-01 This book investigates and analyses critical issues in education reform and discusses possible pitfalls in the current global drive to promote excellence Instead of documenting the successes and frustrations encountered by education reformers in specific jurisdictions this book aims to offer directions for education reformers and sets out to be prescriptive rather than descriptive While the cases covered here are focused on Hong Kong they are no less useful in throwing light upon the direction of education reform all over the world The first section of the volume Conceptual Framework provides the theoretical underpinnings for the design and implementation of education reform The next two sections Reform of Tertiary Education and Experiments Dilemmas and Risks in Secondary Schools look at reform at the tertiary and secondary levels in greater detail The final section Ideals vs Reality the Interplay of Diverse Interests and Diverse Perceptions looks at the conflicting goals and perceptions of different stakeholders with a concluding chapter that summarizes the main lessons to be learnt This book will be of interest to scholars educators parents policymakers politicians and all who are concerned about our younger generation and their future The editors Lok Sang Ho Paul Morris and Yue ping Chung are to be congratulated on producing a volume which is both hard hitting and insightful about education reforms in Hong Kong The range of experiences of the contributing authors contribute to a most interesting mix of perspectives about education reform The focus is squarely on Hong Kong in terms of general policy and reform issues followed by more specific chapters dealing with issues of graduate teachers English as a medium of instruction and the role of the media However the issues raised are very applicable to many countries This book is a valuable contribution to the literature on education reform Professor Colin J Marsh Curtin University Perth Western Australia

Making Sense of Education in Post-Handover Hong Kong Thomas Kwan-Choi Tse, Michael H. Lee, 2016-11-10 Since 1997 when Hong Kong became a Special Administrative Region of the People's Republic of China a string of education reforms have been introduced to improve the quality of education and maintain Hong Kong's economic competitiveness in the age of globalization This book provides a comprehensive and critical analysis of major issues and challenges faced by the education system ranging from pre school to higher education It analyses the prospects for educational development in Hong Kong It further addresses how the Hong Kong government has responded to the perceived challenges of the external environment and internal forces and explains the rationales for the actions taken Not only does it review how the reform initiative challenges have been dealt with it also reviews how effective these initiatives are and its implications on future directions
