Lu-chai Chung, 1974 Christianity and Education in Modern China Wong Man Kong, George Kam Wah Mak, 2024-12-11 In Christianity and Education in Modern China Wong Man Kong George Kam Wah Mak and other contributors demonstrate how Christianity served as a driving force in the development of modern education in China Each of the chapters offers new insights into Christian involvement in different issues concerning education in modern China The contributors examine how Christian missionaries and Chinese Christian educators interacted with China's social cultural and political contexts Also explored are the Christian legacies of higher education in mainland China and Taiwan as well as how the spirit of Christian higher education in modern China has been carried on in Asia This volume suggests that Western missionary and Chinese Christian perspectives of higher education were complementary with each other in modern China Timely and informative Christianity and Education in Modern China tells the stories of less known Christian educators development experts and researchers who indigenized global knowledge and skills to address Chinese problems Its masterful narratives and analytical details highlight the transformative influence of Christianity on Chinese educational sphere Joseph Tse Hei Lee Pace University in New York Rich and broad this interdisciplinary volume holds a prism to Protestant Christian higher education in modern China Extending also to the Hong Kong and Taiwan regions its twelve chapters offer many new insights across the whole spectrum of educational activity in Chinese society in the twentieth century A rewarding read Ryan Dunch University of Alberta The Development of Education in Modern China Clara Soo-Hoo, 1915 Nationalism and Education in Modern China Cyrus Henderson Peake, 1932 Presents a survey of the aims curricula and textbooks used in China from 1860 1930 to give a hint to the mental attitudes of that next generation Aspects of Private Education in Modern China Weiwei

Kou,2003 Citizenship and Education in Contemporary China Yeow-Tong Chia,Zhenzhou Zhao,2023-05-31 A key objective of education in China is to cultivate one's moral values with the ultimate objective of becoming fully human Unlike the West which regards moral cultivation as related to but separate from citizenship cultivation East Asia including China views moral and citizenship cultivation as synonymous The essays in this book offer various perspectives on and understandings of Chinese citizenship and education by a group of scholars of Chinese heritage situated inside and outside of China They offer compelling evidence and rich theoretical discussions about the practice of teaching citizenship in the state education the interplay between citizenship and China's cultural and religious traditions and the construction of citizenship from the groups from marginal positions The book uses citizenship as a lens to examine the pressing issues of identity democracy religion and cosmopolitanism and sheds new light on China's ongoing social and educational changes Thinking through citizenship and citizenship education may act as an important driving force to transform the culture and paradigms of governance in China and the new meanings of becoming fully human This book will be of interest to researchers and advanced students of Education Politics Sociology and Public Policy The chapters in this book were originally published in various Routledge journals Nationalism and Education in Modern China Cyrus H.. Peake,1932 Private Education in Modern China Peng Deng,1997-09-23 Briefly reviews the educational legacy of imperial China then traces the movement for private education from its beginning in the middle of the 19th century to the resurgence in post Mao China He includes Catholic and Protestant mission schools as well as other non governmental schools Deng describes educators as heroic figures and fills gaps in the record with laudatory comments Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR

Economic Development in Modern China Before 1949 Guan Quan,2023-07-31 As the first volume of a two volume set on Chinese economic history this book investigates Chinese economic development between 1912 and 1949 and unravels the overall level during that time From the perspective of development economics the two volume set studies the economic history and development of China since 1912 with a focus on the quantitative analysis of economic activities Comprised of two core parts this first volume centering on the period of the Republic of China first describes the historical process and characteristics of the economy at different stages and then looks into the momentum and inner logic that underpin the economic development The former part covers issues of agriculture industry population and labour force urbanization price changes people's consumption and living standard regional difference etc The latter part includes discussions on natural and human resources capital formation and technological progress the role of government and finance international trade and foreign capital This title will be an interesting read for scholars and students working on Chinese economic history the Chinese economy and modern Chinese society Reproductive Realities in Modern China Sarah Mellors Rodriguez,2023-01-19 Sarah Mellors Rodriguez explores how ordinary people navigated China's shifting fertility policies before and during the One Child Policy era Urban Schools and English Language Education in Late Modern China Miguel

Pérez-Milans, 2013-07-24 Shortlisted for the 2014 BAAL Book Prize This book explores the meaning of modernization in contemporary Chinese education It examines the implications of the implementation of reforms in English language education for experimental urban schools in the People's Republic of China Pérez Milans sheds light on how national linguistic and cultural ideologies linked to modernization are being institutionally reproduced legitimated and interpersonally negotiated through everyday practice in the current context of Chinese educational reforms He places special emphasis on those reforms regarding English language education with respect to the economic processes of globalization that are shaping and being shaped by the contemporary Chinese nation state In particular the book analyzes the processes of institutional categorization of the good experimental school the good student and the appropriate knowledge that emerge from the daily discursive organization of those schools with special attention to the related contradictions uncertainties and dilemmas Thus it provides an account of the ongoing cultural processes of change faced by contemporary Chinese educational institutions under conditions of late modernity Winner of The University of Hong Kong's Faculty Early Career Research Output Award for outstanding book publication by the Faculty of Education

Property Ownership and Private Higher Education in China Spring Su, 2011-05-13 Recent decades have witnessed the proliferation in China of huge numbers of private universities and colleges in response to a wide ranging spectrum of socio economic and political demands under the country's flourishing market economy and its wholesale pursuit of decentralization This book explores the issue of property ownership an area which is regarded as an essential element in the attraction into the sector of local private institutions and foreign partnerships as well as in facilitating the future development of the country's existing institutions The focus throughout this book is primarily on the legal economic managerial and financial aspects of the relevant issues as well as other related topics such as consumer protections and fund raising activities A feasibility analysis and discussion is also provided on for profit universities and their potential market niches in China in recognition of the fact that the current regulations which allow private universities to maintain a non profit status whilst actually enjoying profit returns clearly provides some legitimacy to the phenomenon of for profit in disguise It is argued in this book that such quasi profit regulations may further exacerbate profiteering behavior whilst it is also noted that in the short term there is a clear need to provide adequate protections within the apparent hybrid version of an ownership system a system characterized by a mix of capitalism and socialism through the adoption of a definitive legal framework within which economic actors can coordinate their efforts through a mutually understood framework of action Finally it is clear that in the transition from the rule of the people to the rule of law legislation practices and compliance do not always go hand in hand in China thus the healthy development of the educational sector will undoubtedly require some time as well as the introduction of complementary mechanisms for such legislation to be fully enforced in practice This book concludes
