

9 SCHOOL FUNDRAISING IDEAS

ONLINE FUNDRAISING

Make giving donations easy by adding a form or button to your website or start a GoFundMe campaign.

COOKIE DOUGH FUNDRAISER

Boost your cookie sales by hosting a Taste Tester event at school to pump up excitement ahead of the fundraiser.

RAFFLES

Involve the whole community by getting a big crew together and canvassing local businesses and organizations to seek prizes.

COMMUNITY COOKBOOK

Put the word out to the school that you want their best recipes – or choose a theme or category. Sell ads to local businesses to cover the cost of printing.

A-THONS

The possibilities with an A-Thon are endless. Anything you can count will work for this type of fundraiser. Get creative and customize it to your school – think pages, steps, dancing, laps.

SCHOOL MERCHANDISE

Add patriotism to your fundraising efforts with branded merchandise. It's not just teachers, students and parents but a potential market of past – and future – students too.

AUCTIONS

Going once. Going twice. Gone! Auctions are an excellent way to make it rain fundraising dollars. Whether you make it live, silent, online or virtual, auctions are high-energy events that bring in money.

GALA EVENTS

Go large with a glitzy ball or host a cozy trivia night, but make sure you add a popular silent auction to pump up the donor dollars.

BAKE SALE

The best fundraisers bring people together, and bake sales are at the top of the list for doing just that. They are lots of fun, encourages participation and relatively easy to organize.

Educational Fund Raising And The Law:

Educational Fund Raising and the Law Charles T. Bargerstock, 1984 The law relating to charitable gifts to schools is described and fund raising considerations are addressed The first of four chapters Education Fund Raising in the Legal Context reviews the history of the law of charity over the past 400 years i e law in England during 1500 1800 and law in America during 1800 1900 The Donor and the Law covers questions about the propriety of particular types of gifts or trusts and how those questions affect the donor The Institution and the Law deals with propriety questions as they affect the institution In the last chapter Enhancing Fund Raising in the Legal Context suggestions are made to help fund raisers influence charity legislation and public opinion to promote greater support for their institutions The following types of charitable gifts are discussed charitable trusts and bequests conditional gifts gifts of real or personal property subscriptions and gifts in anticipation of death Additional topics include tax policy and the donor federal and state tax treatment the charitable foundation incorporation of charities gift valuation for tax purposes regulation of fund solicitation regulation of fund administration and charitable trustees A glossary of legal terms and an extensive bibliography are appended Author SW

New Strategies for Educational Fund Raising Michael J. Worth, 2002 In this sequel to the highly respected and practical 1993 book on fund raising Worth and his group of authoritative contributors cover areas that did not even exist in this field in 1993 including the concepts of principal gifts and benchmarking They adapt strategies from Worth's earlier book and introduce many new ones to meet current challenges and take advantage of new opportunities Comprising 31 chapters divided into ten logical parts the authors provide a complete picture of this field which is so important to leaders in higher education Beginning with a strong base of knowledge the authors then discuss topics ranging from raising funds from individuals creating the campaign accounting long range planning leadership the mission kickoff corporate and foundation support traditions of giving managing and supporting development programs ethical concerns and trends for the future Michael Worth gives a great deal of attention to the environment in which those responsible for advancement in higher education have to work today The book addresses new areas in the field that didn't exist when Worth wrote his first edition of this book in 1993 For example the use of financial instruments in the planning of gift giving are more sophisticated and business techniques have been tapped to improve management of programs and measurement of success Part II of the book describes the underlying foundations of educational fund raising in three chapters each written by an expert contributor This section of the book describes the base of knowledge in the field theory and research and discusses the institutional plan and its relationship to the goals and objectives of the institution Part V covers corporate and foundation support which is based on reasoned strategies and business plans and goals rather than on altruism and emotion which can often be the foundation for individual giving The book also includes a glossary and a selective bibliography The Law of Fundraising Bruce R. Hopkins, 2009-03-23 Raising funds to fulfill a nonprofit organization's goals is critical to its success but fundraising regulations are an increasingly complex maze The Law of Fundraising Fourth Edition is the only book to tackle the increasingly complex maze of federal and state fundraising regulations It details federal and state laws with an emphasis on administrative tax and constitutional laws As well it explains state and federal rules impacting the responsibilities of fundraising professionals This guide is supplemented annually to keep nonprofit professionals on top of the latest fundraising legal developments
