Educating for Sustainability in a Small Island Nation

Jane Spiteri,2023-01-19 This volume problematizes the intentions of early childhood education for sustainability ECEfS from two new perspectives the context of small island states and the bi directional intergenerational learning about the environment and sustainability that takes place in a variety of contexts including the family home and school It questions how belonging to a small island and the children s home influence learning in the early years of life In doing so this book offers new insights and new theoretical perspectives into intergenerational environmental learning in the school family and beyond Informed by consideration of the most recent literature in early childhood education and sustainability this volume also looks at how these informal learning spaces provide young children with the opportunities to enhance further learning in the field thus portraying the fluidity of intergenerational learning from different theoretical standpoints It provides a deep insight into ECEfS and intergenerational learning about the environment and environmental issues in early childhood education from a perspective of a small island state by adopting a children s rights perspective It additionally explores the relationship between early childhood theories children s rights and postcolonial theory

Achieving Sustainable E-Government in Pacific Island States

Rowena Cullen,Graham Hassall,2017-02-17 This book analyzes the common set of obstacles to the development and integration of government Information and Communication Technology ICT projects and effective e government initiatives in developing countries It draws on the expertise and experience of more developed states in the Pacific notably Australia and New Zealand both highly rated in global rankings for e government and active in a variety of e government development projects across the region There has been a general failure to identify priorities and align projects with local needs in ICT e government projects Small Island Developing States or SIDS present a unique problem in terms of e government Not only do they suffer from a common set of barriers to ICT development such as their remoteness geographical dispersion moist tropical climates largely rural populations and lack of ICT capacity and infrastructure but are also dependent on external agencies for investment and must negotiate with powerful donors who have conflicting agendas E government is widely regarded as transformational increasing efficiency productivity accountability economic growth and citizen involvement But while the governments of SIDS are committed to harnessing ICTs for effective government and economic development they face major challenges in establishing successful e government initiatives due to the problems outlined above coupled with a lack of HR capacities and appropriate strategies and policies Drawing on the experience of the states mentioned above as well as regional quasi governmental bodies nongovernmental organizations NGOs aid agencies and the private sector the book will be of interest to researchers and students in the fields of e government public administration political science communication information science and social media
