Educational Media And You:

Educational Media and Technology Yearbook 2003 Mary Ann Fitzgerald, Michael Orey, Robert Maribe Branch, 2003-06-30
The 28th volume of the Educational Media and Technology Yearbook describes current developments and trends in the field of instructional technology. Prominent themes for this volume include e learning collaboration, the standards reform movement, and a critical look at the field in its historical context. The audience for the Yearbook consists of media and technology professionals in schools, higher education, and business contexts, including instructional technology faculty, school library media specialists, curriculum leaders, business training professionals, and instructional designers. The Educational Media and Technology Yearbook has become a standard reference in many libraries and professional collections.

Educational Media and Technology Yearbook Robert Maribe Branch, Hyewon Lee, Sheng-Shiang Tseng, 2021-08-24
This book is Volume 43 of the Educational Media and Technology Yearbook. For the past 40 years, our Yearbook has contributed to the field of Educational Technology by presenting contemporary topics, ideas, and developments regarding diverse technology tools for education. The Yearbook has inspired researchers, practitioners, and teachers to consider how to develop technological designs, curricula, and instruction. The audience for the Yearbook typically consists of media and technology professionals in K-12 schools, higher education, and business contexts. The Yearbook editors have dedicated themselves to providing a record of contemporary trends related to educational communications and technology and strive to highlight special movements that have clearly influenced the educational technology field. This volume continues the tradition of offering topics of interest to professionals practicing in other areas of educational media and technology. Includes research on emerging and contemporary topics in the field of educational technology. Provides an ongoing report on the current issues in the field of educational technology. Contains a section presenting organizations dedicated to educational technology. Includes a section presenting graduate programs in the field of educational technology. Includes a section presenting mediagraphy in the field of educational technology.

Educational Media and Technology Yearbook Michael Orey, Stephanie A. Jones, Robert Maribe Branch, 2011-12-13
The Educational Media and Technology Yearbook is dedicated to theoretical, empirical, and practical approaches to educational media development. All chapters are invited and selected based on a variety of strategies to determine current trends and issues in the field. The 2011 edition will highlight innovative Trends and Issues in Learning Design and Technology Trends and Issues in Information and Library Science and features a section that lists and describes Media Related Organizations and Associations in North America, departments in the allied fields, and a listing of journals in the field. The Educational Media and Technology Yearbook, a scholarly resource for a highly specialized professional community, is an official publication of the AECT and has been published annually for 35 years.
