Zimmerman,Dale H. Schunk,2014-08-13 Educational Psychology A Century of Contributions the first comprehensive book length treatment of this topic looks at the historic contributions of 16 leading psychologists as well as others who influenced the field of educational psychology from its philosophical moorings in the late 19th century to its current scientific status at the dawn of the 21st It presents information regarding these individuals ideas and scientific discoveries along with a sense of the historical context in which they lived The book is divided into three sections that correspond to three eras in the history of the discipline the founding period 1880s to 1920 the rise to prominence period 1920 to1960 and the modern period 1960 to the present Each section begins with an overview chapter describing the period in terms of key social political and historical events affecting educational theory research and practice In addition the overview chapters discuss major theoretical methodological and instructional contributions of the period and how they changed the course of educational psychology The biographical chapters describe the scholar s major contribution in terms of theory research and practice and his or her legacy and impact These descriptions portray these individuals as real human beings responding to historical events and social influences of their time in personal and collective ways that changed the nature and direction of the field Educational Psychology A Century of Contributions is a cohesive collection appropriate for graduate and advanced undergraduate students in educational psychology A History of American Gifted Education Jennifer L. Jolly,2018-04-17 A History of American Gifted Education provides the first comprehensive history of the field of gifted education which is essential to recognizing its contribution to the overall American educational landscape The text relies heavily on primary documents and artifacts as well as essential secondary documents such as the disparate historical texts and relevant biographies that already exist This book commences its investigation of American gifted education with the founding of the field of psychology and subsequently gifted education at the early part of the 20th century and concludes just over a century later with the passage of the No Child Left Behind Act in 2001

The Montessori Method Maria Montessori, 2004 An essential resource for all students and scholars of early childhood education this book offers a rich array of material about Maria Montessori and the Montessori Method Distinguished education scholar Gerald Gutek begins with an in depth biography of Montessori exploring how a determined young woman overcame the obstacles that blocked her educational and career opportunities in Italy during the late Victorian age The author then analyzes the sources and influences that shaped the Montessori philosophy of education After laying the foundation for Montessori s development Gutek presents an annotated and abridged edition of The Montessori Method 1912 the seminal work that introduced her educational innovations to a U S audience The book concludes with key historical documents including disciple Anne E George s notes on the Montessori lectures and William H Kilpatrick s critique of the Montessori method Preserving the historical context of Montessori s contribution Gutek also shows the continuing relevance of her thought to educational reform in the twenty first century

The Handbook of School Psychology Terry B. Gutkin, Cecil R.
