Edgar A Childs Best Friend:

Edgar, A Child's Best Friend Arend Wieman, 2001 Edgar is an animal in the dream world whose sole purpose is to help and assist children during their dream travels into their dream lands Edgar also passes on knowledge and wisdom important for their upbringing growth and relationships with their parents and other children Every dream experience passes on a positive virtue of a child's life of today designed to assist a young newcomer to this world in a constructive way to lend strength to the child's still flexible character and vulnerable emotions Understanding Children's Development Anne B. Smith, Keith Ballard, 1998 This fully revised and updated edition of a fundamental New Zealand psychology text examines how and why children develop and how they are influenced by the people and events in their lives Discussed are theories of development and learning the importance of early experience intelligence and assessment and the family The development of social behavior gender roles language and thinking are also covered The question of mainstreaming the integration of children with special educational needs into regular preschools and classrooms is also debated There is a strong emphasis on local conditions and the New Zealand historical and social context This new edition addresses the important issue of giving children themselves a voice in order to better understand their development and to involve them in decisions about their lives
