Education And Reeducation Of Pow 31g 23742357 An Autobiographical Narrative:

Axis Prisoners of War in Tennessee Antonio S. Thompson, 2023-03-09 During World War II Axis prisoners of war received arguably better treatment in the U S than anywhere else Bound by the Geneva Convention but also hoping for reciprocal treatment of American POWs the U S sought to humanely house and employ 425 000 Axis prisoners many in rural communities in the South This is the first book length examination of Tennessee s role in the POW program and how the influx of prisoners affected communities Towns like Tullahoma transformed into military metropolises Memphis received millions in defense spending Paris had a secret barrage balloon base The wooded Crossville camp housed German and Italian officers Prisoners worked tobacco lumber and cotton across the state Some threatened escape or worse When the program ended more than 25 000 POWs lived and worked in Tennessee Texas and Texans in World War II Christopher B.

Bean, 2022-08-24 Texans in World War II offers an informative look at the challenges and changes faced by Texans on the home front during the Second World War This collection of essays by leading scholars of Texas history covers topics from the African American and Tejano experience to organized labor from the expanding opportunities for women to the importance of oil and agriculture Texans in World War II makes local the frequently studied social history of wartime bringing it home to Texas An eye opening read for Texans eager to learn more about this defining era in their state s history this book will also prove deeply informative for scholars students and general readers seeking detailed definitive information about World War II and its implications for daily life economic growth and social and political change in the Lone Star State The

Education and Reeducation of POW 31G-23742357 Wolfgang D. Schmidt, 2001-03-01 The Education and Reeducation of POW 31G 23742357 an autobiographical narrative should actually be a first person story but was written as a third person tall tale to the best of this first person s waning but still rather vivid memories Nothing in it should be taken as earnest and truthful as a hollywoodian docudrama because much of it is composed from a German point of view and no German writer after Goethe is a trustworthy reporter of the German soul or psyche or stool and their wars and history Late in April 1945 Wolfgang the storyteller became simply a piece of disarmed enemy forces No German soldiers taken after March 45 became legally Prisoners of War and treated as such but were Disarmed Enemy Forces to whom the International Red Cross had no access and who were treated accordingly Becoming a POW with the above mentioned number in late September 45 was his insurance for not winding up in one of the post WWII underworld camps of the Eisenhower de Gaulle design in which hundreds of thousands erstwhile German soldiers perished not the heavies of Nazidom but ordinary yokels from teenagers to aged Volkssturm invalids who in GI language wouldn t know the difference between shit and Shinola Nevertheless all along his existence as a prisoner Wolfgang did in fact luck out The foundation of this lucking out was certainly his High School English plus having taught himself the technique of expressing himself in that fabulous Basic English plus a few dozens technical English terms like carburetor and switch board and for comparing Schiller s romantic drama Die Jungfrau von

Orleans with George Bernhard Shaw's so much more realistic Joan d Ark in English for that matter because GBS fascinated him and was one of the most performed playwrights of the German stage even during the Nazi era Wolfgang close contacts with Americans had its beginning when he surrendered in a way negotiated the surrender of the 1st Elefantent Flak Batterie to an armed patrol of the 99th US Infantry Division from Pennsylvania somewhere north of Tyrolean Kufstein in the Bavarian Alps This surrender procedure was almost comical and may appear impossible in the context of this gruesome war but the truth of the story may be checked out with the war diary of the Checker Board Division which may contain a thousand words describing the whole scene A few weeks later Wolfgang was transferred north to the Red One Infantry Division in which many years later two of his American born would serve Wolfgang lucked out being the straw boss and interpreter of the prisoner work detail assigned to the kitchen and mess of headquarters company 1st Battalion 3rd Regiment and within a couple of days enjoyed apart from his work being the answer man of many GIs who could not explain that shrill difference between the training propaganda films to which they had been exposed and the Germany which they now experienced the masses of refugees ethnic Germans from Bohemia the DPs with many Jews among them and the various types of camps ranging from those of absolute horror to labor camps in reasonable order such as the one in which Wolfgang and his buddies and other work details were quartered These were good days and according to rumors the prisoners would be discharged rather soon but then were free to continue to work their jobs as hired indigenous personnel living in the camp without being imprisoned It all sounded very good Then General Eisenhower bounced Patton who had earlier declared that no prisoners of war taken by his Third Army would be surrendered to camps of starvation and annihilation in France thus putting a dirty stain on the American flag He would rather resign from the Army than participate in this utmost crime which contradicts the ideals and objectives for which he had fought this war After being bounced but still around General Ge Books in Print
