Education, Politics and Religion James Arthur, Liam Gearon, Alan Sears, 2010-06-28 In recent years a number of popular books have savaged religion arguing it is a dangerous delusion that poisons human societies and relationships This is but the most recent manifestation of a secularising agenda that has been sweeping contemporary democratic societies since the Enlightenment This book pushes back against that agenda examining its key assumptions and arguing that the exclusion of religious people and ideas from education and the public square is both undemocratic and unwise For the most part the book draws arguments and examples from Christianity the religious tradition of the authors but it recognises that many religions share the concerns and possibilities examined The book examines contemporary expressions of the secularising agenda in Western democracies with particular focus on how that is played out in education It demonstrates how republican theory understood within a faith perspective provides a shared understanding and substantive basis for education within a Western democracy It explores the historical connections and disconnections between religion and civic life in the West from ancient to contemporary times and examines religiously based civic action and pedagogical approaches contending both have the

complete creatures neither perfect I am not an exception You might disagree with some of my opinions which is very much understandable because no two people will always agree on the same thing all the time However I recommend you and every single reader of this and other books to carefully read every single subject topic very well before making any conclusion to agree or disagree Majority of topics and subjects in this book are based on own personal experience and research And no part of this book is a copy from any other text However I get some of my evidence and reference from the holy Quran and the tradition of Prophet Muhammad You might read a book with an open mind but the real life events that took place and I highlighted some of them are always better to act on something you learn before it could happen to you or you might experience it before and you dont want it to happen to you again I recommend for every reader to follow the best examples which I highlighted majority of which will surely help you Finally if I said something that offended you that is not my intention my real and true intention is to help people in different level of society in regards to issues facing them And sometimes it is almost impossible to make your point without using a reference and example that might sound offensive to someone however that is not the intention of most authors to offend the readers I wish may God Allah make it easy for us to accept the truth and follow the right part to him May Allah keep peace and his blessing hand on the soul of my mother and father who passed away with the rest of Islamic community who passed away too May Allah increase his peace and tranquillity on the legacy of Prophet Muhammad his followers and the rest of Islamic community and individuals I end with the name of Allah the most gracious the most merciful
