Training and Education in Islam Murtada Mutahhari, 2011-01-01 The twentieth century saw heightened tension between religious and secular approaches to education In this era of cataclysmic social change Mutahhari presented this Islamic perspective on training and education using his signature approach of applying traditional Islamic sources to contemporary questions Although in his time rote learning was prized Mutahhari emphasised the importance of critical thinking skills He also emphasised education outside of the classroom such as learning through work Taking a holistic perspective he discussed the importance of spiritual and moral training worship as a means of personal development and the importance of developing self esteem Although delivered in the 1970s these lectures remain essential reading for anyone involved in training or education

Studies in Education During the Age of the Renaissance, 1400-1600 William Harrison Woodward, 1924

Female Education in the Age of Enlightenment, vol 2 Janet Todd, 2024-10-28 Both men and women took part in the education debate that culminated in the 1790s with Wollstonecraft More and Edgeworth but positions and arguments were laid down long before by Fordyce Gregory Gisbourne West Macaulay and Chapone as featured in this text Multicultural Education in an Age of Globalization Chinaka S. DomNwachukwu,2019-05-13 Multicultural Education in an Age of Globalization Compelling Issues for Engagement starts out with a discussion of western colonization of the 19th and 20th centuries and the residual effects of colonialism in the forms of colonial mindset of power dominance and white racial superiority that have continued to challenge the hopes of a peaceful and more harmonious exchange and interaction in the 21st century global communities Issues such as white privilege and cultural humility are discussed in depth Subsequently the idea of globalization and the concept of global citizenship are also addressed in light of their implications for multicultural education curriculum and practice in the 21st century classrooms The book identifies and discusses compelling issues that must be carefully addressed as we undertake multicultural education in the 21st century educational setting whether in the K 12 or higher education setting Such issues include Affirmative Action Gender Equity issues Religion in the public school setting and the problem of Poverty in the 21st century societies Female Education in the Age of Enlightenment, vol 6 Janet Todd,2024-08-01 Both men and women took part in the education debate that culminated in the 1790s with Wollstonecraft More and Edgeworth but positions and arguments were laid down long before by Fordyce Gregory Gisbourne West Macaulay and Chapone as featured in this text Female Education in the Age of Enlightenment, vol 3 Janet Todd,2024-10-28 Both men and women took part in the education debate that culminated in the 1790s with Wollstonecraft More and Edgeworth but positions and arguments were laid down long before by Fordyce Gregory Gisbourne West Macaulay and Chapone as featured in this text Contributions to the History of Education: Volume 2, During the Age of the Renaissance 1400-1600 William Harrison Woodward,2013-09-12 Originally published in 1921 this book sets out the roots of modern educational ideas as invented by celebrated educators in the Renaissance both in Italy and elsewhere in Europe Woodward describes the innovations provided by Continental Renaissance figures such as Erasmus Melanchthon and Bud and English authors like Thomas Elyot Female Education, in relation to the wants of the age ... Prize essay William ANDERSON (Congregational Minister, Member of the General Council of the University of Aberdeen.),1851 Female Education in the Age of Enlightenment, vol 1 Janet Todd,2024-12-11 Both men and women took part in the education debate that culminated in the 1790s with Wollstonecraft More and Edgeworth but positions and arguments were laid down long before by Fordyce Gregory Gisbourne West Macaulay and Chapone as featured in this text Education in an Age of Nihilism Nigel Blake,Paul Smeyers,Richard Smith,Paul Standish,2012-12-06 This book addresses concerns about educational and moral standards in a world increasingly characterised by nihilism On the one hand there is widespread anxiety that standards are falling on the other new machinery of accountability and inspection to show that they are not The authors in this book state that we cannot avoid nihilism if we are simply laissez faire about values neither can we reduce

them to standards of performance nor must we return to traditional values They state that we need to create a new set of values based on a critical assessment of contemporary practice in the light of a number of philosophical texts that address the question of nihilism including the work of Nietzsche

A History of Western Philosophy of Education in the Age of Enlightenment Tal Gilead, 2021-01-28 This volume traces the history of Western philosophy of education through the Age of Enlightenment The period between 1650 and 1850 was one of rapid intellectual development that revolutionized how education is viewed Even the most progressive thinkers of the start of this period would have found the educational ideas expressed at its end odd alien and even dangerous Shaped by broad intellectual movements such as the Enlightenment the counter enlightenment and romanticism as well as by the work of exceptional individuals including John Locke Jean Jacques Rousseau H lvetius Mary Wollstonecraft Pestalozzi Fr bel and Emerson the educational philosophy of this period has laid the foundations of how we think of and conduct education today About A History of Western Philosophy of Education An essential resource for researchers scholars and students of education this five volume set that traces the development of philosophy of education through Western culture and history Focusing on philosophers who have theorized education and its implementation the series constitutes a fresh dynamic and developing view of educational philosophy It expands our educational possibilities by reinvigorating philosophy s vibrant critical tradition connecting old and new perspectives and identifying the continuity of critique and reconstruction It also includes a timeline showing major historical events including educational initiatives and the publication of noteworthy philosophical works

Political Fiction, the Spirit of the Age, and Allen Drury Tom Kemme, 1987 The President of the United States says the Constitution cannot act in many specified instances without the advice and consent of Congress But advice is not a strong word And taking or not taking advice is a fairly nebulous situation creating an instability a fundamental ambiguity at the very heart of power between the Congress and the President It is this instability and this wide openness that allows the free play of the more intangible types of power that begin where the constitution breaks off sex personality and character Things which are left out of civics textbooks are what Allen Drury took as his subject in such novels as Advise and Consent A Shade of Difference and Capable of Honor
