Education As My Agenda:

Education As My Agenda J. Robinson, 2005 Power Dynamics in Education Chetan Sinha, 2023-03-24 The educational domain provides a platform for social mobility and social change This book investigates the new National Educational Policy NEP to understand how it can bring social justice and transform education in a meaningful way to match the imagination of students from diverse groups The author discusses matters of emotion and authority in education and argues for the need for educational psychology which takes into account the self conscious emotions of students and teachers The book reflects on important topics such as critical pedagogy dehumanization power in education through bricolage and legitimacy in education all within the context of critical educational psychology Through research and observations it discusses the socialpsychological aspect of stereotyping othering and prejudices in the educational domain The book will be of interest to students teachers and researchers working on education school education sociology of education and educational psychology It will also be useful for academicians educators policymakers schoolteachers and those interested in the politics of education Education and Neoliberal Globalization Carlos Alberto Torres, 2008-11-19 This volume by noted critical education scholar Carlos Alberto Torres takes up the question of how structural changes in schooling and the growing impacts of neoliberalism and globalization affect social change national development and democratic educational systems throughout the world The first section of the book offers analytical avenues to understand and criticize the practices and policies of neoliberal states both domestically and internationally More than a mere lament of the state of educational policy however Torres also documents the critiques and alternatives developed by social movements against neoliberal governments and policies Ultimately his work urges readers to engage in the struggle to resist the oppressive forces of neoliberal globalization and proactively and deliberately act in informed ways to create a better world Education For Future Practice , 2010-01-01 Education for Future Practice engages with the challenge faced by higher education to envisage probable possible and desired futures for practice and education and to realise ways of educating practitioners for these futures Future education involves the pursuit of shared visions and purpose in the midst of the turbulence created by a diverse influences on education and practice These influences arise from learners participation in multiple practice and learning communities unpredictable workplaces dynamic education and practice market places the various demands and interests of stakeholders higher education imperatives and unparalleled opportunities and expectations associated with advancing information and communication technologies The book contains four sections Education for practice Contextualising practice Contextualising education for practice Doing education for practice The Politics of Education in Turkey Zühre Emanet, 2023-06-15 Control over education has been a keenly contested area since the Justice and Development Party AKP came to power in Turkey Central to this contest has been the question of whose values would be passed down to future generations with the inculcation of gender segregation in primary schools a key marker in ongoing cultural battles over Turkey's secularist founding principles and the growing dominance of Islamist political movements This book offers an in depth analysis of gender inequality in action in the Turkish schooling system by examining changes in education provision and culture in the years since 2012 Based on two school ethnographies conducted in an AKP dominated district of Istanbul where the author worked as a teacher and researcher it examines neoliberal education policies and their co option by the AKP and other Islamist movements to promote their own agendas while also considering the effects of the struggle between rival Islamist groups Grounding its theoretical approach with empirical evidence of ideology in action it provides an important analysis of the way in which boys and girls are socialized in Turkey's public schooling system

Political Agendas for Education Joel Spring, 2017-07-14 Following the epic contentious 2016 presidential election Joel Spring's ongoing documentation and analysis of political agendas for education reflect the major political issues since 2012 Here he examines the 2016 education planks of the Republican Democratic Libertarian and Green Parties using their official platforms and other statements speeches given by each candidate and media reports and publications Each party's position is linked to previous political movements in education Spring offers an alternative agenda for American schools including a proposed education amendment to the U S Constitution and replacing human capital agendas with goals emphasizing education for a long life and happiness Taking a fresh look at the social and political forces educational research and ideologies shaping their educational agendas and a comparative approach the book stimulates reflection and discussion Updates and changes in the Sixth Edition Betsy DeVos's education agenda supporting vouchers free market competition and for profit schools and its relationship to the education section of the 2016 Republican platform The important role religion and culture played in the evolution of Republican education policies after the school prayer and Bible decisions of the 1960s The influence of human capital economics on Democratic education proposals How No Child Left Behind and Democratic President Barack Obama opened doors to the growth of the for profit education industry and investment bankers The 2016 Democratic positions on the cost of higher education and student loan debts The Democratic left as represented by the 2016 campaign of Democrat Bernie Sanders and his influence on the presidential candidate Hillary Clinton and the Democratic Party platform The education proposals of the Green and Libertarian parties

Continuing to Disrupt the Status Quo? Whitney Sherman Newcomb,2014-03-01 Continuing to Disrupt the Status Quo Young and New Women Professors of Educational Leadership was conceptualized as a follow up to Breaking Into the All Male Club Female Professors of Educational Administration Mertz 2009 a book about and by many women who were the first women faculty admitted into departments of educational administration primarily in the 1970 s and 1980 s This book offers narratives of those women new to the field of educational leadership and makes comparisons to those stories shared by the veteran women in the field to highlight both similarities and differences Continuing to Disrupt the Status Quo Young and New Women Professors of Educational Leadership is a literary way to preserve and continue the tradition of the sharing addition of voices to the field of educational leadership that was begun with Breaking Into the All Male Club It begs the question If the women from Breaking Into the All Male Club are firsts pioneers and groundbreakers then who are we the young and new women of the field If the entrance of women into the field of educational leadership was threatening enough for the veteran women and still is for many of the young and new women then the addition of age and ethnicity as confounding factors has likely created a cacophony of dissonance forty years later Continuing to Disrupt the Status Quo represents a decade of stories 2002 2012 from young and new women to the field of educational leadership The Academic Gateway Timothy Sibbald,Victoria Handford,2017-04-18 The Academic Gateway Understanding the Journey to Tenure investigates the experiences of professors employed in tenure track positions who are starting their career within a university environment but have not yet attained the affirmation and permanence that tenure offers The role that they have taken on entails the preparation of students within a professional school Some of them have very limited professional experience while others bring multiple years of experience with them in their transition to a faculty of education The contributors speak to the three key components of their faculty role teaching service and research Addressing organizational structures and differences relative to prior roles they examine how these changes have assisted confused or altered the way they conduct their day to day work

They speak about relevant prior experiences the preparation they received through graduate school and the details of the learning curve as they entered into their tenure track role Have they been successful The reader will experience the same uncertainty and anticipation every professor goes through during their journey to tenure This approach amplifies the realism of not knowing whether issues that are spoken about will ultimately be overcome and enhances the validity of their experiences by not biasing the contributions towards those who expect success

De-Colonization, Heritage, and Advocacy Svanibor Pettan, Jeff Titon, 2019-02-20 The nine ethnomusicologists who contributed to this volume present a diverse range of views approaches and methodologies that address indigenous peoples immigrants and marginalized communities Discussing participatory action research social justice empowerment and critical race theory in relation to ethnomusicology De Colonization Heritage and Advocacy is the second of three paperback volumes derived from the original Oxford Handbook of Applied Ethnomusicology The Handbook can be understood as an applied ethnomusicology project as a medium of getting to know the thoughts and experiences of global ethnomusicologists of enriching general knowledge and understanding about ethnomusicologies and applied ethnomusicologies in various parts of the world and of inspiring readers to put the accumulated knowledge understanding and skills into good use for the betterment of our world
