Pollard,2023-11-27 It is easy simply to attribute the high profile of Sollers the numerous autobiographical details in his novels and also the espousal of so many different views and causes to egocentrism and opportunism Alternatively one could say that they are all significant elements in an ongoing enquiry into the role of fiction in a society where attitudes are often thought to be determined more by images than by the written word Given Sollers s questioning of society s conventional images as in Debord s notion of the spectacle his awareness of his own role in the media and his interest in developing a discourse on the visual arts how do such concerns come together to create new forms of fiction and a coherent aesthetics These seemingly disparate questions are all in fact related to Sollers s desire to challenge the accepted parameters of representation by creating an alternative scene in the novel a subject which forms the basis of this book Madame Daniel Lesueur and Her Novels Madre Merrill,1922 Tactical Silence in the Novels of Malika Mokeddem Jane E.
