Joycelyn Moody,2003 Sentimental Confessions is a groundbreaking study of evangelicalism sentimentalism and nationalism in early African American holy women s autobiography At its core are analyses of the life writings of six women Maria

Stewart Jarena Lee Zilpha Elaw Nancy Prince Mattie J Jackson and Julia Foote all of which appeared in the mid nineteenth century Joycelyn Moody shows how these authors appropriated white sanctioned literary conventions to assert their voices and to protest the racism patriarchy and other forces that created and sustained their poverty and enslavement In doing so

Moody also reveals the wealth of insights that could be gained from these kinds of writings if we were to acknowledge the spiritual convictions of their authors if we read them because not although they are holy texts The deeply held passionately expressed beliefs of these women says Moody should not be brushed aside by scholars who may be tempted to view them as na ve or as indicative only of the racial class and gender oppressions these women suffered In addition Moody promotes new
