Ellerbe Tradition:

Rochester Stories: A Med City History Paul David Scanlon, 2021 Best known for the world renowned Mayo Clinic Rochester's rich history holds so much more beyond medical excellence But why was the world's greatest medical center built virtually in the middle of a cornfield in the first place What happened to the Native Americans in the area Were there ever bears in Bear Creek Why are there so many geese at Silver Lake and how did the Zumbro River get its name What do the extinction of the dinosaurs and the passenger pigeon have to do with Rochester Retired Mayo Clinic doctor and Rochester native Paul Scanlon answers these questions and more in this collection of historic tales from Med City The Ellerbe Tradition Thomas Farr Ellerbe, Bonnie J. Hayskar, 1980-01-01

Caring for the Heart W Bruce Fye, 2015-02-03 This groundbreaking book describes developments in the diagnosis and treatment of heart disease explains how the Mayo Clinic became a world famous medical center and reveals how new technologies and procedures promoted medical specialization It is written for general readers as well as health care professionals historians and policy analysts

Women of Mayo Clinic Virginia M Wright-Peterson, 2016-03-01 The story of Mayo Clinic begins on the Minnesota prairie following a devastating tornado in 1883 It also begins with the women who joined the growing practice as physicians as laboratory researchers as developers of radium therapy and cancer treatments and as innovators in virtually all aspects of patient care education and research While these women contributed to the clinic's origins and success their roles have not been widely celebrated until now Women of Mayo Clinic traces those early days from the perspectives of more than forty women nurses librarians social workers mothers sisters and wives who were instrumental in the world renowned medical center's development Mother Alfred Moes persuaded Dr William Worrall Mayo to take on the hospital project Edith Graham was the first professionally trained nurse to work at the practice Alice Magaw developed a national reputation administering anesthesia in the operating rooms there Maud Mellish Wilson established the library and burnished the clinic's standing through widely distributed publications about its innovations Virginia Wright Peterson tells the stories of these and other talented dedicated pioneers through institutional records and clippings from the period introducing a welcome new perspective on the history of both Mayo Clinic and women in medicine

Rise of the Modern Hospital Jeanne Kisacky, 2017-12-02 Rise of the Modern Hospital is a focused examination of hospital design in the United States from the 1870s through the 1940s This understudied period witnessed profound changes in hospitals as they shifted from last charitable resorts for the sick poor to premier locations of cutting edge medical treatment for all classes and from low rise decentralized facilities to high rise centralized structures Jeanne Kisacky reveals the changing role of the hospital within the city the competing claims of doctors and architects for expertise in hospital design and the influence of new medical theories and practices on established traditions She traces the dilemma designers faced between creating an environment that could function as a therapy in and of itself and an environment that was essentially a tool for the facilitation of increasingly technologically assisted medical procedures Heavily illustrated with floor plans drawings and photographs this book considers the hospital building as both a cultural artifact revelatory of external medical and social change and a cultural determinant actively shaping what could and did take place within hospitals St. Paul's Architecture Jeffrey A. Hess, Paul Clifford Larson, From the grand boulevard of Summit Avenue to the gleaming State Capitol St Paul s Architecture presents more than 225 notable surviving buildings and the history of several neighborhoods in the city With historical photographs and illustrations this engaging book is a valuable resource not only for those interested in architectural heritage but also for anyone who admires St Paul s unique beauty and charm Medical Travel Brand Management Frederick J. Department of Housing and Urban Development. Library, 1981 Lost Twin Cities Larry Millett, 1992 1993 American Institute of Architects International Architecture Book Award World Architecture , 2001 Minnesota 1900 Michael Conforti, 1994 This book examines advances in architecture design and painting in a region widely recognized for its contribution to the Arts and Crafts and Prairie School movements. It features the work of many well-known American artists including the architects Cass Gilbert, Harvey Ellis, Frank Lloyd Wright, Purcell and Elmslie, ceramicist and Arts and Crafts philosopher Ernest Batchelder, and the painters Homer Dodge Martin and Alexander Fournier. The six essays also focus on the ceramic and metalwork production of the Handicraft Guild of Minneapolis, the Craftshouse of John Bradstreet, and American Indian art and artifacts created both for native and white use at the time. Alan Lathrop discusses Minnesota architecture by combining his knowledge of architectural practitioners of the time with an awareness of international stylistic trends, particularly the tradition of the École des Beaux Arts. In this first overview of the state's architecture of the period ever published, Michael Conforti and Jennifer Komar link the development of retailing in the late nineteenth century to the interior design practice and Arts and Crafts production of John Bradstreet. Thomas O. Sullivan provides a study of Robert Koehler, one of the region's most respected painters, while he reviews the work of over two dozen of the state's other painters working at the time. The special communal nature of Minnesota's artistic life is emphasized in Marcia Anderson's contribution. Her study of the Handicraft Guild of Minneapolis presents years of archival research on the Guild, which she presents in the context of the international Arts and Crafts movement. Mark Hammons provides the first monograph ever published on the architectural partnership of Purcell and Elmslie, the most commissioned architects of the Prairie School after Frank Lloyd Wright. Hammons analyzes the team-centered working process of the firm and relates their creative process and formal vocabulary to the contemporary metaphysical discourse that was the foundation of their architectural philosophy. Louise Lincoln and Paulette Molin study the nature of relationships between whites and the Chippewa and Dakota Indians in their discussion of native material culture. Lincoln and Molin decode a complex, nuanced cultural interchange embodying both traditional and assimilationist trends. Their essay is the first in-depth examination of the range of American Indian art from this region, one that considers both objects crafted for native use and those produced for the tourist market. BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc. Traditions and History of Anderson County Louise Ayer Vandiver, 1928 The Wagner Collection of Business and Corporate History, Formed Thru 1986, 1987 A History of Marion County, South Carolina, from Its Earliest Times to the Present, 1901 William W. Sellers, 1902 A History of Marlboro County John Alexander William Thomas, 1897 Art Books 1980-1984 R.R. Bowker Company, 1985 Women's Press Organizations, 1881-1999 Elizabeth V. Burt, 2000-06-30

Little has been published about press organizations and even less about women's press organizations. This book is the first to document the history of women's press organizations. In addition to rich historical accounts of some of these organizations, it also provides a picture of many of the women journalists involved in these press organizations, many of whom were leaders both in journalism and in the social movements of their time. This book is a description and analysis of forty women's press organizations that have been key to the development of women writers of the press since the first established organization in 1881. Each entry describes the challenges faced by women that brought about the establishment of the organization at that particular time and place, some of the women who played key roles in the group's leadership, the group's major activities and programs, and its contributions to women of the press. The main purpose of these organizations was to provide women with a place where they could discuss professional issues and career strategies at a time when they were largely excluded from or marginalized by male-dominated media institutions. However, many also reflected the interests of some of the social and political reform movements associated with the women's movements of the 19th and 20th centuries, including the woman suffrage, peace, and ERA movements. Although some of the organizations described here no longer exist, new ones have taken on the challenge in a profession where women still do not have equity.
