Street-Gang and Tribal-Warrior Autobiographies H. David Brumble, 2018-04-10 Street Gang and Tribal Warrior Autobiographies is a study of the autobiographies of tribal warrior cultures in North America the Amazon the Orinoco Basin the highlands of Luzon the island of Alor of headhunters women Apaches New Guinea big men and a Yanomami captive The book also discusses tribal warrior autobiographies closer to home Colton Simpson s Inside the Crips Mona Ruiz s Two Badges Nathan McCall s Makes Me Wanna Holler and Sanyika Shakur s Monster autobiographies that remember gangbanging at a time when there were close to 500 gang related homicides a year in Los Angeles a time when gangbangers were so alienated from the larger society that they reinvented something very similar to the tribal warrior cultures right in the asphalt heart of American cities Grisly probing and resonant with the voices of generations of fighters Street Gang and Tribal Warrior Autobiographies is an unsettling work of cross disciplinary scholarship The Perfect Painter: Or, a Compleat History of the Original, Progress and Improvement of Painting, Etc. [By Henry Bell.], 1730 Journal of Narrative and Life History, 1992 International Journal of Oral History, 1984 The Story of the Great War Francis Joseph Reynolds, Allen Leon Churchill, Francis Trevelyan Miller, 1916 Custom and Confrontation Roger M. Keesing, 1992-12 Anthropologists and students of anthropology may read this book because it is a superior ethnography detailed and enriched by theoretical insights But at the heart of this book is a moral take a simple but powerful story about an indigenous people who were wronged who resisted for more than 100 years and who may yet prevail This message ultimately lends the book its true meaning and value William Rodman Anthropologica A major contribution to the ethnography and history of Malaita and Melanesia and to the growing literature on cultural resistance But above all his humane and painful analysis of the meeting of peoples living in different worlds and constructing their agendas and moralities on incommensurate and apparently equally arbitrary principles represents a major contribution and challenge to anthropological thought addressing the basic issue of what it is to be human Fredrik Barth Publications in History Historical Society of New Mexico, 1927 Publications in History, 1927 New Mexico Historical Review Lansing Bartlett Bloom, Paul A. F. Walter, 1927 The Gallegos Relation of the Rodriguez Expedition to New Mexico Hernan Gallegos Lamero, 1927 The Voice of the Past Paul Thompson, Joanna Bornat, 2017 Oral history gives history back to the people in their own words And in giving a past it also helps them towards a future of their own making Oral history and life stories help to create a truer picture of the past and the changing present documenting the lives and feelings of all kinds of people many otherwise hidden from history It explores personal and family relationships and uncovers the secret cultures of work It connects public and private experience and it highlights the experiences of migrating between cultures At the same time it can bring courage to the old meaning to communities and contact between generations Sometimes it can offer a path for healing divided communities and those with traumatic memories Without it the history and sociology of our time would be poor and narrow In this fourth edition of his pioneering work fully revised with Joanna Bornat Paul Thompson challenges the accepted myths of historical scholarship He discusses the reliability of oral evidence in comparison with other sources and considers the social context of its development He looks at the relationship between memory the self and identity He traces oral history through its own past and weighs up the recent achievements of a movement which has become international with notably strong developments in North America Europe Australia Latin America South Africa and the Far East despite resistance from more conservative academics This new edition combines the classic text of The Voice of the Past with many new sections including especially the worldwide development of different forms of oral history and the parallel memory boom as well as discussions of theory in oral history and of memory trauma and reconciliation It offers a deep social and historical interpretation along with succinct practical advice on designing and carrying out a project The Voice of the Past remains an invaluable tool for anyone setting out to use oral history and life stories to construct a more authentic and balanced record of the past and the present Let's Make It!

Transforming Heritage Practice in the 21st Century John H. Jameson, Sergiu Musteață, 2019-06-14 Recent years have witnessed a rapid increase in the fields of cultural heritage studies and community archaeology worldwide with expanding discussions about the mechanisms and consequences of community participation This trend has brought to the forefront debates about who owns the past who has knowledge and how heritage values can be shared more effectively with communities who then ascribe meaning and value to heritage materials Globalization forces have created a need for contextualizing knowledge to address complex issues and collaboration across and beyond academic disciplines using more integrated methodologies that include the participation of non academics and increased stakeholder involvement Successful programs provide power sharing mechanisms and motivation that effect more active involvement by lay persons in archaeological fieldwork as well as interpretation and information dissemination processes With the contents of this volume we envision community archaeology to go beyond descriptions of outreach and public engagement to more critical and reflexive actions and thinking The volume is presented in the context of the evolution of cultural heritage studies from the 20th century expert approach to the 21st century people centered approach with public participation and community involvement at all phases of the decision making process The volume contains contributions of 28 chapters and 59 authors covering an extensive geographical range including Africa South America Central America Western Europe Eastern Europe North America and Australasia Chapters provide exemplary cases in a growing lexicon of public archaeology where power is shared within frameworks of voluntary activism in a wide diversity of cooperative settings and stakeholder interactions
