Embracing The Other Philosophical Psychological And Historical Perspectives On Altruism:

Embracing the Other Pearl Oliner, Samuel P. Oliner, Lawrence Baron, Lawrence Blum, 1995-07 All but buried for most of the twentieth century the concept of altruism has re emerged in this last quarter as a focus of intense scholarly inquiry and general public interest In the wake of increased consciousness of the human potential for destructiveness both scholars and the general public are seeking interventions which will not only inhibit the process but may in fact chart a new creative path toward a global community Largely initiated by a group of pioneering social psychologists early questions on altruism centered on its motivation and development primarily in the context of contrived laboratory experiments Although publications on the topic have been considerable over the last several years and now represent the work of representatives from many disciplines of inquiry this volume is distinguished from others in several ways Embracing the Other emerged primarily as a response to recent research on an extraordinary manifestation of real life altruism namely to recent studies of non Jewish rescuers of Jews during World War II It is the work of a multi disciplinary and international group of scholars including philosophers social psychologists historians sociologists and educators challenging several prevailing conceptual definitions and motivational sources of altruism The book combines both new empirical and historical research as well as theoretical and philosophical approaches and includes a lengthy section addressing the practical implications of current thinking on altruism for society at large The result is a multi textured work addressing critical issues in varied disciplines while centered on shared themes

Altruism Scott, Niall, Seglow, Jonathan, 2007-11-01 This title explores how we have come to be altruistic and considers why it is important to remain altruistic not just for the sake of others but in order to maintain the fragile fabric of human society

Handbook of Moral Development Melanie Killen, 2013-10-08 The Handbook of Moral Development is the definitive source of theory and research on the development of morality Since the publication of the first edition ground breaking approaches to studying the development of morality have re invigorated debates about what it means to conceptualize and measure morality in early childhood how children understand fairness and equality what the evolutionary basis is for morality and the role of culture The contributors of this new edition grapple with these questions and provide answers for how morality originates changes evolves and develops during childhood adolescence and into adulthood Thoroughly updated and expanded the second edition features new chapters that focus on infancy neuroscience theory of mind moral personality and identity cooperation and culture gender sexuality prejudice and discrimination Reflecting the interdisciplinary nature of the study of moral development this edition contains contributions from over 50 scholars in developmental science cognitive psychology social neuroscience comparative psychology and evolution and education

Coexistence in the Aftermath of Mass Violence Eve Zucker, Laura McGrew, 2020-12-07 Coexistence in the Aftermath of Mass Violence demonstrates how imagination empathy and resilience contribute to the processes of social repair after ethnic and political violence Adding to the literature on transitional justice peacebuilding and the anthropology of violence and social repair the authors show how these conceptual pathways imagination empathy and resilience enhance recovery coexistence and sustainable peace Coexistence or reconciliation is the underlying goal or condition desired after mass violence enabling survivors to move forward with their lives Imagination allows these survivors victims perpetrators bystanders to draw guidance and inspiration from their social and cultural imaginaries to develop empathy and to envision a future of peace and coexistence Resilience emerges through periods of violence and its aftermaths through acts of survival compassion modes of rebuilding social worlds and the establishment of a peaceful society Focusing on society at the grass roots level the authors discuss the myriad and little understood processes of social repair that allow ruptured societies and communities to move toward a peaceful and stable future The volume also illustrates some of the ways in which imagination empathy and resilience may contribute to the prevention of future violence and the authors conclude with a number of practical and policy recommendations The cases include Cambodia Rwanda Sierra Leone Somaliland Columbia the Southern Cone Iraq and Bosnia

The Holocaust, Religion, and the Politics of Collective Memory

Ronald J. Berger, 2017-07-05 The program of extermination Nazis called the Final Solution took the lives of approximately six million Jews amounting to roughly 60 percent of European Jewry and a third of the world's Jewish population Studying the Holocaust from a sociological perspective Ronald J Berger explains why the Final Solution happened to a particular people for particular reasons why the Jews were for the Nazis the central enemy Taking a unique approach in its examination of the devastating event The Holocaust Religion and the Politics of Collective Memory fuses history and sociology in its study of the Holocaust Berger's book illuminates the Holocaust as a social construction As historical scholarship on the Holocaust has proliferated perhaps no other tragedy or event has been as thoroughly documented Yet sociologists have paid less attention to the Holocaust than historians and have been slower to fully integrate the genocide into their corpus of disciplinary knowledge and realize that this monumental tragedy affords opportunities to examine issues that are central to main themes of sociological inquiry Berger's aim is to counter sociologists who argue that the genocide should be maintained as an area of study unto itself as a topic that should be segregated from conventional sociology courses and general concerns of sociological inquiry The author argues that the issues raised by the Holocaust are central to social science as well as historical studies

Looking Backward, Moving Forward Richard G. Hovannisian, 2017-07-05 The decades separating our new century from the Armenian Genocide the prototype of modern day nation killings have fundamentally changed the political composition of the region Virtually no Armenians remain on their historic territories in what is today eastern Turkey The Armenian people have been scattered about the world And a small independent republic has come to replace the Armenian Soviet Socialist Republic which was all that was left of the homeland as the result of Turkish invasion and Bolshevik collusion in 1920 One element has remained constant Notwithstanding the eloquent compelling evidence housed in the United States National Archives and repositories around the world successive Turkish governments have denied that the predecessor Young Turk regime committed genocide and like the Nazis who followed their example sought aggressively to deflect blame by accusing the victims themselves This volume argues that the time has come for Turkey to reassess the propriety of its approach and to begin the process that will allow it move into a post genocide era The work includes Genocide An Agenda for Action Gijs M de Vries Determinants of the Armenian Genocide Donald Bloxham Looking Backward and Forward Joyce Apsel The United States Response to the Armenian Genocide Simon Payaslian The League of Nations and the Reclamation of Armenian Genocide Survivors Vahram L Shemmassian Raphael Lemkin and the Armenian Genocide Steven L Jacobs Reconstructing Turkish Historiography of the Armenian Massacres and Deaths of 1915 Fatma Muge Go cek Bitter Sweet Memories The Armenian Genocide and International Law Joe Verhoeven New Directions in Literary Response to the Armenian Genocide Rubina Perroomian Denial and Free Speech Henry C Theriault Healing and Reconciliation Ervin Staub State and Nation Raffi K Hovannisian
