History Architecture and Islamic Studies bringing new objects to light and shedding new light on old objects The Arts of the Mamluks in Egypt and Syria Doris Behrens-Abouseif, 2012 Mamluk Studies is the first series that is exclusively dedicated to the history culture and society of the Mamluk Era 1250 1517 It contains source editions monographs collections of articles and conference proceedings in English French and German The Mamluk Empire is a historically unique model of a society A predominantly Arabic population was dominated by a purely Turkish born elite of manumitted military slaves who sought to regenerate themselves continuously through a self imposed fiat The only person who could become a Mamluk was a Turk who had been born free outside the Islamic territories as a non Muslim then enslaved brought to Egypt converted to Islam freed and finally trained as a warrior Only those who met these prerequisites were members of the ruling stratum with all the concomitant political military and economic advantages Patrons and companions provided the individual rootless Mamluk with a place and support in society

Siwa Margaret M. Vale, 2015-01-01 Siwa is a remote oasis deep in the heart of the Egyptian desert near the border with Libya Until an asphalt road was built to the Mediterranean coast in the 1980s its only links to the outside world were by arduous camel tracks As a result of this isolation Siwa developed a unique culture manifested in its crafts of basketry pottery and embroidery and in its styles of costume and silverwork The most visible and celebrated example of this was the silver jewelery that was worn by women in abundance at weddings and other ceremonies Based on conversations with women and men in the oasis and with reference to old texts this book describes the jewelery and costume at this highpoint of Siwan culture against the backdrop of its date gardens and springs social life and dramatic history It places the women s jewelery costume and embroidery into social perspective and describes how they were used in ceremonies and everyday life and how they were related to their beliefs and attitudes to the world The book also describes how in the second half of the twentieth century the arrival of the road and of television brought drastic change and the oasis was exposed to the styles and fashions of the outside world and how the traditional silver ornaments were gradually replaced by gold
