Embroidering Shrouds:

Texts and Textiles Diana Mary Eva Thomas, 2017-03-07 This study shows how fiction that makes use of textiles as an essential element utilizes synaesthetic writing and synaesthetic metaphor to create an affective link to and response in the reader These links and responses are examined using affect theory from Silvan Tomkins and Brian Massumi and work on synaesthesia by Richard Cytowic Lawrence Marks and V S Ramachandran among others Synaesthetic writing including synaesthetic metaphors has been explored in poetry since the 1920s and more recently in fiction but these studies have been general in nature By narrowing the field of investigation to those novels that specifically employ three types of hand crafted textiles quilt making knitting and embroidery the book isolates how these textiles are used in fiction The combination of synaesthesia memory metaphor and particularly synaesthetic metaphor in fiction with textiles in the text of the case studies selected shows how these are used to create affect in readers enhancing their engagement in the story The work is framed within the context of the history of textile production and the use of textiles in fiction internationally but concentrates on Australian authors who have used textiles in their writing The decision to focus on Australian authors was taken in light of the quality and depth of the writing of textile fiction produced in Australia between 1980 and 2005 in the three categories of hand crafted textiles quilt making knitting and embroidery The texts chosen for intensive study are Kate Grenville's The Idea of Perfection 1999 quilting Marele Day's Lambs of God 1997 knitting and Anne Bartlett's Knitting 2005 knitting Jessica Anderson's Tirra Lirra by the River 1978 embroidery and Marion Halligan's Spider Cup 1990 embroidery The Deceiver Priscilla Masters, 2018-02-01 A desperate phone call from an old acquaintance plunges forensic psychiatrist Claire Roget into an explosive situation with echoes in her own past Forensic psychiatrist Dr Claire Roget finds it impossible to refuse when she receives a desperate phone call from an old acquaintance obstetrician Charles Tissot One of his patients Heather Kimble alleges that Tissot seduced her at a party and that he is the father of her unborn child His career on the line Charles begs Claire to expose Heather's fragile mental state and discredit her wild claims With a history of making similar false allegations her two previous babies having suffered unexplained cot deaths Heather's accusations would appear to be nothing more than the result of a damaged mind But as Claire delves further it becomes clear that Charles hasn't been telling her the whole truth Could Heather's story possibly have some merit And is her unborn child in danger The Devil's Chair Priscilla Masters, 2014-08-01 DI Alex Randall and coroner Martha Gunn search for a missing child but their investigation is compromised by local superstitions and beliefs In the peaceful setting of the National Trust near Church Stretton south of Shrewsbury Tracey Walsh drives herself and her four year old daughter Daisy up the remote Burway in the early hours of the morning tragically loses control of her car and crashes into the valley below Tracey is rushed to hospital but where is Daisy She has vanished provoking an intense police search of the area around the Devil's Chair land that is rife with legends and strange stories of witchcraft sorcery and unexplained disappearances Detective Inspector Alex Randall the senior investigating officer soon admits to coroner Martha Gunn that he is baffled by the case Alex and Martha must sift through fact and fiction folklore and reality in their search for answers A Velvet Scream Priscilla Masters,2012-06-01

Masters,2019-06-01 DI Joanna Piercy is not happy when she's assigned the apparently minor case of finding a missing elderly man but it turns out to be far more sinister DI Joanna Piercy is irritated at what she perceives to be an attempt to wrap her up in cotton wool during her pregnancy when she is asked to take on the case of Zachary Foster a missing ninety six year old man suffering from dementia Zachary has vanished from his residential care home on the edge of Leek during the night with his beloved old teddy bear He can't have gone far surely but how did a frail elderly man manage to abscond from a secure house at night As Joanna investigates it soon becomes clear that this apparently minor case is far more sinister than it first appears Could her own life and that of her unborn child be at risk The Final Curtain Priscilla Masters,2013-08-12 A particularly intriguing mystery featuring a female police detective and a former child star with secrets to hide Booklist Just back from her honeymoon Detective Inspector Joanna Piercy heads back to work in Staffordshire England and gets handed a case she can do without nuisance calls from an old lady ringing the police incessantly to report seemingly trivial incidents The woman in question is Timony Weeks a child star of the sixties in the once popular soap Butterfield Farm who now lives in an isolated farmhouse It seems unlikely that someone is really moving her nightdress around or leaving a dead mouse in her bread box Joanna is sure she s putting on an act and wasting police time But as things escalate something doesn t feel right and as Joanna digs into Timony s past she finds that the aging actress may be in danger after all A solid police procedural especially likely to appeal to 1960s nostalgia buffs Kirkus Reviews
