The Art of David Ireland Karen Tsujimoto, Jennifer R. Gross, 2003-12-15 Widely recognized as one of the West Coast's most important and critically acclaimed practitioners of conceptual and installation art David Ireland born 1930 has taken the concept of art itself as one of his subjects A self-described post discipline artist guided by Zen thought and postmodern aesthetics Ireland moves fluidly from making small drawings to creating sculptures as large as houses Freely incorporating anything within his conceptual or physical reach dirt concrete wire and other everyday materials his work is subtle puzzling and witty and consistently challenges traditional definitions of art In this book accompanying the first full scale retrospective of Ireland s work curator and author Karen Tsujimoto provides an insightful overview of more than thirty years of the artist s accomplishments from his drawings sculptures and site specific installations to his remarkable series of architectural transformations including his well known house at 500 Capp Street in San Francisco Chronicling Ireland s circuitous route to his calling Tsujimoto explores how key life experiences have influenced his artistic perspective from his early art student days through his years as an African importer and safari guide to his long standing interest in Eastern and particularly Zen philosophy and his deep connections with the San Francisco Bay Area conceptual art community An illuminating essay by art historian and curator Jennifer R Gross also considers Ireland s art in terms of historical materialism assessing his use of neglected materials and artifacts as a process of cultural preservation
