The Epistle of Second Baruch Mark Whitters,2003-05-01 2 Baruch is one of the more important apocalyptic writings among the Jewish Pseudepigrapha written at the end of the 1st century AD and so contemporary with the New Testament The Epistle is a message to the Jews of the Dispersion Whitters is arguing that the document was once an authoritative text for a specific community and gives us clues about the important era between the two Jewish wars of 70 and 132 AD when Judaism was assuming radical new forms This Epistle tells Diapora Jews how to live in a world without the Jerusalem Temple

Gurtner,2009-10-15 2 Baruch is a Jewish pseudepigraphon from the late first or early second century CE It is comprised of an apocalypse 2 Baruch 1 77 and an epistle 2 Baruch 78 87 This ancient work addresses the important matter of theodicy in light of the destruction of the temple by the Romans in 70 CE It depicts vivid and puzzling pictures of apocalyptic images in explaining the nature of the tragedy and exhorting its ancient community of readers Gurtner provides the first publication of the Syriac of both the apocalypse and epistle with a fresh English translation on the opposite page Also present in parallel form are the few places where Greek and Latin texts of the book An introduction orients readers to interpretative and textual issues of the book Indexes and Concordances of the Syriac Greek and Latin will allow users to analyze the language of the text more carefully than ever before Fourth Ezra and Second Baruch Matthias Henze,Gabriele Boccaccini,2013-10-28 The two Jewish works that are the subject of this volume 4 Ezra and 2 Baruch were written around the turn of the first century CE in the aftermath of the Roman destruction of the Second Temple Both texts are apocalypses and both occupy an important place in early Jewish literature and thought they were composed right after the Second Temple period as Rabbinic Judaism and early Christianity began to emerge The twenty essays in this volume were first presented and discussed at the Sixth Enoch Seminar at the Villa Cagnola at Gazzada near Milan Italy on June 26 30 2011 Together they reflect the lively debate about 4 Ezra and 2 Baruch among the most distinguished specialists in the field The Contributors are Gabriele Boccaccini Daniel Boyarin John J Collins Devorah Dimant Lutz Doering Lorenzo DiTommaso Steven Fraade Lester L Grabbe Matthias Henze Karina M Hoogan Liv Ingeborg Lied Hindy Najman George W E Nickelsburg Eugen Pentiuc Pierluigi Piovaneli Benjamin Reynolds Loren Stuckenbruck Bal zs Tam si Alexander Toepel Adela Yarbro Collins

The uncanonical and apocryphal scriptures, with introductions to the several books and fragments, an a general intr. to the Apocrypha, by W.R. Churton William Ralph Churton (the younger),1884 Mystery and Secrecy in the Nag Hammadi Collection and Other Ancient Literature: Ideas and Practices Christian H. Bull,Liv Lied,John D. Turner,2011-10-28 Drawing on a wide array of sources this anthology sets out to analyze the concepts of mystery and secrecy that occur in the ritual and rhetoric of antique Mediterranean religion with an emphasis on Gnosticism Christianity and Paganism The Future Inheritance of Land in the Pauline Epistles Miguel G. Echevarria,2019-01-25 The Apostle Paul s vision of eternity is centered on the inheritance theme Although Paul rarely unpacks this concept he employs the inheritance in a manner that encompasses the hope of a renewed cosmos promised to Abraham and his descendants Thus the apostle does not redefine a theme grounded in the Old Testament and Second Temple literature as if it now referred to heaven or some other spiritualized existence He expects what every pious Jew expected the tangible fulfillment of the promise when at last God s people will dwell in a land where they will experience rest under the rule of Messiah What Paul clarifies is that those who are in Christ are the beneficiaries of the inheritance Although believers do not currently possess what has been promised to them they have the hope that the Spirit will lead them on a new exodus through the wilderness of the present sinful age until they inherit the coming world The Uncanonical and Apocryphal Scriptures ,1884 Reading the Present in the Qumran Library Kristin De Troyer,Armin Lange,2005 How did ancient scribes interpret their own reality by means of scriptural exegesis The essays in this volume explore this question from various perspectives by examining the earliest known exegetical texts of Jewish origin namely the exegetical texts from the Qumran library Scholars have debated the precise nature of the exegetical techniques used in the Qumran texts To bring clarity to the discussion this book analyzes the phenomenon of reading the present in the Qumran library and asks how far comparable phenomena can be observed in authoritative literature in ancient Israel and Judah in the textual tradition of the Hebrew and Greek Bible in ancient Judaism and in early Christian literature From publisher s description Snapshots of Evolving Traditions Liv Ingeborg Lied,Hugo Lundhaug,2017-01-23 Scholars of early Christian and Jewish literature have for many years focused on interpreting texts in their hypothetical original forms and contexts while largely overlooking important aspects of the surviving manuscript evidence and the culture that produced it This volume of essays seeks to remedy this situation by focusing on the material aspects of the manuscripts themselves and the fluidity of textual transmission in a manuscript culture With an emphasis on method and looking at texts as they have been used and transmitted in manuscripts this book discusses how we may deal with textual evidence that can often be described as mere snapshots of fluid textual traditions that have been intentionally adapted to fit ever shifting contexts The emphasis of the book is on the contexts and interests of users and producers of texts as they appear in our surviving manuscripts rather than on original authors and their intentions and the essays provide both important correctives to former textual interpretations as well as new insights into the societies and individuals that copied and read the texts in the manuscripts that have actually been preserved to us Proclaiming the Judge of the Living and the Dead Kai Akagi,2019-08-02 Back cover Kai Akagi considers what the speeches in Acts 10 and 17 say about Jesus when they speak of him as a judge This historical and literary study reveals that Jesus role as a judge both suggests that he judges with divine authority and expresses his identity as Jewish messiah

Lament in the Letter of James Grant Flynn, 2025-08-14 In Lament in the Letter of James Grant Flynn presents the first book length study of lament in James After exploring the contours and development of Old Testament lament Flynn examines the lament material in James including a reference to an act of lament allusions to Old Testament laments and exhortations to lament The author then proposes that the choice to use Job as a model of perseverance implies that Job s lament shaped perseverance informs James s understanding of the virtue By rereading the epistle s opening call to consider trials as pure joy with this Joban perseverance in mind Flynn concludes that James envisions an ongoing cycle of lament and joy that reflects both the pain of human suffering and the hope of eschatological perfection

A Jewish Apocalyptic Framework of Eschatology in the Epistle to the Hebrews Jihye Lee, 2021-11-18 In contrast to scholarly belief that the author of the Epistle to the Hebrews envisions the transcendent heavenly world as the eschatological inheritance of God's people Jihye Lee argues that a version of an Urzeit Endzeit eschatological framework as observed in some Jewish apocalyptic texts provides a plausible background against which the arguments of Hebrews are most comprehensively explained. Instead of transcendence to the heavenly world that will come after the destruction of the shakable creation, Lee suggests the possibility of a more dualistic new world. By first defining Urzeit Endzeit eschatology, Lee is then able to explore its place in both pre and post 70 CE Second Temple Judaism. In examining Enoch, the Qumran Texts, Jubilees, the Liber Antiquitatum Biblicarum, 4 Ezra, and 2 Baruch, and finally the Book of Revelation, Lee compares a multitude of eschatological visions and the different depictions of the transformation of the world, judgement, and the new world to come. Bringing these texts together to analyse the issue of God's Rest in Hebrews and the nature of the Unshakable Kingdom, Lee concludes that Hebrews envisions the kingdom as consisting of both the revealed heavenly world and the renewed creation as the eschatological venue of God's dwelling place with his people.

Letters and Communities Paola Ceccarelli, Lutz Doering, Thorsten Fögen, Ingo Gildenhard, 2018-08-16. The writing of letters often evokes associations of a single author and a single addressee who share in the exchange of intimate thoughts across distances of space and time. This model underwrites such iconic notions as the letter representing an image of the soul of the author or constituting one half of a dialogue. However, justified this conception of letter writing may be in particular instances, it tends to marginalize a range of issues that were central to epistolary communication in the ancient world and have yet to receive sustained and systematic investigation. In particular, it overlooks the fact that letters frequently presuppose and were designed to reinforce communities or indeed to constitute them in the first place. This volume explores the interrelation of letters and communities in the ancient world, examining how epistolary communication aided in the construction and cultivation of group identities and communities, whether social political religious ethnic or philosophical A theoretically informed Introduction establishes the interface of epistolary discourse and group formation as a vital but hitherto neglected area of research and is followed by thirteen case studies offering multi disciplinary perspectives from four key cultural configurations Greece Rome Judaism and Christianity The first part opens the volume with two chapters on the theory and practice of epistolary communication that focus on ancient epistolary theory and the unavoidable presence of a letter carrier who introduces a communal aspect into any correspondence while the second comprises five chapters that explore configurations of power and epistolary communication in the Greek and Roman worlds from the archaic period to the end of the Hellenistic age Five chapters on letters and communities in Ancient Judaism and Early Christianity follow in the third part before the volume concludes with an envoi examining the trans historical or indeed timeless philosophical community Seneca the Younger construes in his Letters to Lucilius
