The Georgic Mode in Twentieth-Century American Literature Ethan Mannon, 2024-02-02 The Georgic Mode in Twentieth Century American Literature The Satisfactions of Soil and Sweat explores environmental writing that foregrounds labor Ethan Mannon argues that Virgil's Georgics as well as the georgic mode in general exerted considerable influence upon some of America's best known writers including Robert Frost Willa Cather and Wendell Berry and that these and others worked to revise the mode to better fit their own contexts This book also outlines the contemporary value of the georgic literary tradition two thousand years of writing that begins with the premise that humans must use the world in order to survive and search for a balance between human needs and nature's productive capacity In the georgic mode authors found an adaptable discourse that enabled them to advocate for the protection and responsible use of productive lands present rural places and people in all of their complexity explore human relationships with laboring animals and advertise the sensory pleasures of rooted work

Dear California David Kipen, 2023-10-03 Dispatches from a land of extremes by writers and movie stars natives and visitors activists and pioneers and more California has always been literally a place to write home about Renowned figures and iconoclasts politicians actors and artists the world famous and the not so much all have contributed their voices to the patchwork of the state With this book cultural historian and California scholar David Kipen reveals this long storied place through its diaries and letters and gives readers a highly anticipated follow up to his book Dear Los Angeles Running from January 1 through December 31 leaping across decades and centuries Dear California reflects on the state's shifting landscapes and the notion of place Entries talk across the centuries from indigenous stories told before the Spanish arrived on the Pacific coast through to present day tweets blogs and other ephemera The collected voices show how far we've wandered and how far we still have to go in chasing the elusive California dream This is a book for readers who love California and for anyone who simply treasures flavorful writing Weaving together the personal the insightful the impressionistic the lewd and the hysterically funny Dear California presents collected writings essential to understanding the diversity antagonisms and abiding promise of the Golden State Writings from Edward Abbey Louis Armstrong Ambrose Bierce Octavia Butler John Cage Willa Cather Cesar Chavez Julia Child

Sophia Emmanouilidou, Sezgin Toska, 2020-02-24 How is ecotthinking articulated in varied research fields What are the conjunctions and concurrences of academic endeavors in the attempt to curb environmental destruction This collection of essays offers a multifaceted exploration of the basic tenets of environmentalism proposed by academic curricula across the world Ecodestruction the wilderness rampant pollution tourism developments sustainability educational interventions and the plurivocal turn to ecotheoretical textual analysis are some of the critical perspectives and scientific findings investigated here The book introduces a multilateral understanding of environmental consciousness and suggests that the study of nature should not be compartmentalized into separate fields of analyses but aim for the interconnections between disciplines given that the physical cosmos is an unambiguous and finite host of humanity's endeavours The volume appeals to academics researchers and professionals with a particular interest in the current environmental crisis offers solid insights into the ways human societies construe nature and hopefully will embark on the protection of the ecosphere

Taming Fruit Bernd Brunner, 2021-11-01 A captivating cultural and scientific history of orchards for readers of Michael Pollan's The Botany of Desire and Mark Kurlansky's Salt Throughout history orchards have nourished both body and soul

they are sites for worship and rest inspiration for artists and writers and places for people to gather In Taming Fruit award winning writer Bernd Brunner interweaves evocative illustrations with masterful prose to show that the story of orchards is a story of how we have shaped nature to our desires for millennia As Brunner tells it the first orchards may have been oases dotted with date trees where desert nomads stopped to rest In the Amazon Indigenous people maintained mosaic gardens centuries before colonization Modern fruit cultivation developed over thousands of years in the East and the West As populations expanded fruit trees sprang from the lush gardens of the wealthy and monasteries to fields and roadsides changing landscapes as they fed the hungry But orchards don t just produce fruit they also inspire great artists Taming Fruit shares paintings photographs and illustrations alongside Brunner s enchanting descriptions and research offering a multifaceted and long awaited portrait of the orchard

A Blessing of Toads Sharon Lovejoy,2014-12-10 Through this collection of delightful essays and beautiful illustrations long time contributor to Country Living Gardner Sharon Lovejoy shares the boundless joys of a country garden Lovejoy has chosen to focus on the natural world to be found just outside the door including hummingbirds caterpillars and dragonflies but her informative and witty prose also covers traditional plant care The very titles of her sketches convey pleasure in the vibrant country landscape and the life that teems within it The Bumble Bee Rumba Faeries in the Fuschias sphinx moths Holiday Feasts for the Birds and the Beasts and Conversations with Sunflowers This compilation truly is to borrow another of her titles Something to Crow About

The Fruitful City Helena Moncrieff,2018-04-03 Examining the roots and fruits of the urban foodscape Our cities are places of food polarities food deserts and farmers markets hunger and food waste fast food delivery and urban gardening While locavores and preserving pros abound many of us can t identify the fruit trees in our yards or declare a berry safe to eat Those plants and the people who planted them are often forgotten In The Fruitful City Helena Moncrieff examines our relationship with food through the fruit trees that dot city streets and yards She tracks the origins of these living heirlooms and questions how they went from being subsistence staples to raccoon fodder But in some cities previously forgotten fruit is now in high demand and Moncrieff investigates the surge of non profit urban harvest organizations that try to prevent that food from rotting on concrete and meets the people putting rescued fruit to good use As she travels across Canada slipping into backyards visiting community orchards and taking in canning competitions Moncrieff discovers that attitudinal changes are more important than agricultural ones While the bounty of apples is great reconnecting with nature and our community is the real prize

Field Guide to California Agriculture Paul Starrs,Peter Goin,2010-07-06 This book brings to life one of the most creative and necessary human endeavors and makes understandable the incredible complexity of California agriculture one of the world s most daring experiments in feeding itself A valuable resource that should be read by everyone not just those of us who farm but all of us who depend on farms Michael Ableman farmer photographer and author of From the Good Earth On Good Land and Fields of Plenty No understanding of this state is possible without an understanding of its agriculture that s how important this subject is Gerald Haslam author of Workin Man Blues Country Music in California A fascinating intriguing and sometimes even humorous exploration of California s agriculture from broccoli to marijuana and beyond At long last a book everyday people can read to understand the state s biggest industry Louis Warren University of California Davis

Agroecology in Action Keith Warner,2007 Detailed case studies of agroecological initiatives show how growers scientists agricultural organizations and public agencies can form partnerships to develop innovative ecologically based techniques for reducing reliance on agrochemicals Valley of Heart's Delight Anne Marie Todd,2022-10-25 This agricultural history explores the transformation of the Santa Clara Valley over the past one hundred years from America s largest fruit producing region into the technology capital of the world In the latter half of the twentieth century the region s focus shifted from fruits such as apricots and prunes to computers Both personal and public rhetoric reveals how a sense of place emerges and changes in an evolving agricultural community like the Santa Clara Valley Through extensive archival research and interviews Anne Marie Todd explores the concepts of place and placelessness arguing that place is more than a physical location and that exploring a community s sense of place can help us to map how individuals experience their natural surroundings and their sense of responsibility towards the local environment Todd extends the concept of sense of place to describe Silicon Valley as a non place where weakened or disrupted attachment to place threatens the environment and community The story of the Santa Clara Valley is an American story of the development of agricultural lands and the transformation of rural regions Civic Tourism: The Poetry and Politics of Place Dan Shilling,2007 Examines the tourism industry in the light of civic values that go beyond economics to the social and environmental impacts of tourism development exploring ways to develop a responsible tourism ethic An Interethnic Companion to Asian American Literature King-Kok Cheung,1997 A survey of Asian American literature Kissed by a Fox Priscilla Stuckey,2012-09-01

Drawing inspiration from sources as varied as ancient philosophers and contemporary biologists Kissed by a Fox challenges readers to enact a different story of nature one in which people and place are not separate where other creatures respond to human need and where humans and all others together create the world Dissatisfaction with nature flows throughout Western civilization as deep as its blood as abiding as its bones Convinced to the marrow that something is deeply wrong with nature the Western world tries to remake it into something better For Priscilla Stuckey this is a fundamental and heartbreaking misconception that nature can be fixed exploited or simply ignored Modern societies try to bend nature to human will instead of engaging in give and take with a living breathing land community Using her personal experiences as the cornerstone Stuckey explores the depth of relationship possible with the birch tree in our backyard the nearby urban creek the dog who settles on our bed each night With the eloquence of the great nature writers before her Stuckey encourages us to open ourselves to the unlimited possibilities of a truly connected life The Greenwood Encyclopedia of Asian American Literature Guiyou Huang,2008-12-30 Asian American literature dates back to the close of the 19th century and during the years following World War II it significantly expanded in volume and diversity Monumental in scope this encyclopedia surveys Asian American literature from its origins through 2007 Included are more than 270 alphabetically arranged entries on writers major works significant historical events and important terms and concepts Thus the encyclopedia gives special attention to the historical social cultural and legal contexts surrounding Asian American literature and central to the Asian American experience Each entry is written by an expert contributor and cites works for further reading and the encyclopedia closes with a selected general bibliography of essential print and electronic resources While literature students will value this encyclopedia as a guide to writings by Asian Americans the encyclopedia also supports the social studies curriculum by helping students use literature to learn about Asian American history and culture as it pertains to writers from a host of Asian ethnic and cultural backgrounds including Afghans Chinese Japanese Koreans Filipinos Iranians Indians Vietnamese Hawaiians and other Asian Pacific Islanders The encyclopedia supports the literature curriculum by helping students learn more about Asian American literature In addition it supports the social studies curriculum by helping students learn about the Asian American historical and cultural experience

Grounded Vision William H. Major, 2011-04-13 In Grounded Vision William Major puts contemporary agrarian thinking into a conciliatory and productive dialogue with academic criticism He argues that the lack of participation in academic discussions means a loss to both agrarians and academics since agrarian thought can enrich other ongoing discussions on topics such as ecocriticism postmodernism feminism work studies and politics especially in light of the recent upsurge in grassroots cultural and environmental activities critical of modernity such as the sustainable agriculture and slow food movements

Hidden Kitchens Nikki Silva, Davia Nelson, 2005-10-21 A volume based on the popular NPR radio series explores how communities come together through food combining popular stories from the show with new interviews photographs and recipes from a wide array of atypical kitchens
