Art and the Crisis of Marriage Vivien Green Fryd,2003 Between the two world wars middle class America experienced a marriage crisis that filled the pages of the popular press Divorce rates were rising birthrates falling and women were entering the increasingly industrialized and urbanized workforce in larger numbers than ever before while Victorian morals and manners began to break down in the wake of the first sexual revolution Vivien Green Fryd argues that this crisis played a crucial role in the lives and works of two of America s most familiar and beloved artists Georgia O Keeffe 1887 1986 and Edward Hopper 1882 1967 Combining biographical study of their marriages with formal and iconographical analysis of their works Fryd shows how both artists expressed the pleasures and perils of their relationships in their paintings Hopper s many representations of Victorian homes in sunny tranquil landscapes for instance take on new meanings when viewed in the context of the artist s own tumultuous marriage with Jo and the widespread middle class fears that the new urban multidwelling homes would contribute to the breakdown of the family Fryd also persuasively interprets the many paintings of skulls and crosses that O Keeffe produced in New Mexico as embodying themes of death and rebirth in response to her husband Alfred Stieglitz s long term affair with Dorothy Norman Art and the Crisis of Marriage provides both a penetrating reappraisal of the interconnections between Georgia O Keeffe s and Edward Hopper s lives and works as well as a vivid portrait of how new understandings of family gender and sexuality transformed American society between the wars in ways that continue to shape it today

Figuring it Out Ann B. Shteir,Bernard V. Lightman,2006 A collection of fifteen original essays analyzing gender in the imagery of science Whitaker's Books in Print ,1990 The Love Lives of the Artists Daniel Bullen,2013-02-12 As the oldest of institutions marriage seems outdated in modern times when each individual is encouraged to break with tradition in order to fulfill him or herself And so artists like Diego Rivera and Frida Kahlo seem to be paving the way toward a brave new kind of marriage where spouses would be allowed even encouraged to fulfill different aspects of themselves in outside relationships Shared creativity they believed would transcend their jealousies and compensate their sufferings through art they would rise above conventional marital fidelity and prove a higher fidelity to art and to themselves The Love Lives of the Artists tells the stories of Rainer Maria Rilke and Lou Andreas Salom Alfred Stieglitz and Georgia O Keeffe Jean Paul Sartre and Simone de Beauvoir Diego and Frida and Henry Miller and Ana s Nin five couples who approached their relationships with the same rebellious creativity as they practiced in their art From their early artistic development and their first experiences in love to their artistic marriages and their affairs and then to their fights and reconciliations addictions nervous breakdowns and continued creativity The Love Lives of the Artists describes the promise and the price of freedom and creativity in love

Significant Others: Creativity & Intimate Partnership Whitney Chadwick,2018-04-17 Biographies of artists and writers have traditionally presented an individual s lone struggle for self expression In this book critics and historians challenge these assumptions in a series of essays that focus on artist and writer couples who have shared sexual and artistic bonds Featuring duos such as Auguste Rodin and Camille Claudel Sonia and Robert Delaunay Vanessa Bell and Duncan Grant and Jasper Johns and Robert Ruaschenberg this book combines biography with evaluation of each partner s work in the context of the relationship

Constitutional Courts, Gay Rights and Sexual Orientation Equality Angioletta Sperti, 2017-05-04 In the last fifteen years constitutional issues regarding the rights of gays lesbians and same sex couples have emerged on a global scale The pace of recognition of their fundamental rights both at judicial and legislative level has dramatically increased across different jurisdictions reflecting a growing consensus toward sexual orientation equality This book considers a wide range of decisions by constitutional and international courts from the decriminalization of sexual acts to the recognition of same sex marriage and parental rights for same sex couples It discusses analogies and differences in judicial arguments and rationales in such cases focusing in particular on human dignity privacy liberty equality and non discrimination It argues that courts operate as major exporters of models and principles and that judicial cross fertilization also helps courts in increasing the acceptability of gays and lesbians rights in public opinions and politics Courts discuss changes in the social perception of marriage and family at national and international levels and at the same time confirm and reinforce them forging the legal debate over sexual orientation equality Furthermore by promoting the political reception of the achievements of foreign gay movements in their own jurisdictions courts play an essential role in breaking the political stalemate
