Unrelenting George H Morris,2016-05-01 If there is one name in the American equestrian story that everyone knows it is George Morris A horse lover rider carouser competitor taskmaster dreamer teacher and visionary George Morris has been ever present on the rarified stage of the international riding elite for most of the 70 years he s been in the saddle He has represented our country as an athlete and a coach and at one time or another instructed many of our nation s best horsemen and women His carefully chosen perfectly enunciated words are notoriously powerful They can raise you up or cut you to the quick His approval can be a rainmaker his derision can end a career But as much as people know and respect or perhaps fear the public face of George Morris he has lived in other ways a remarkably private life keeping his own personal struggles with insecurity with ambition and with love behind closed doors It is only now that he has chosen in his own words to share the totality of his life the very public and the incredibly private with the world This engrossing autobiography the real story of the godlike George Morris beautifully demonstrates his ultimate humanity     U. S. Army Olympic Equestrian Competitions 1912-1948 Robert D. Thompson,2008 United States Army Olympic equestrian competitions have been largely overlooked in historical writings This book tells the stories of the triumphs the contributions and the failures of the U S Army Olympians and also captures the humor and good times as well as the drama and disappointments of the U S Army Olympians from the 1912 Games in Stockholm to the 1948 Games in London The stories are rich in detail and include the controversial 1936
