Eritrea Africa's Longest War:

Eritrea, Africa's Longest War David Pool, 1982 Omar Al-Bashir and Africa's Longest War Paul L. Moorcraft, 2015-04-30

President Omar al Bashir is Africa's and arguably Arabia's most controversial leader. In power since 1989, he is the first sitting head of state to be issued with an arrest warrant for war crimes by the International Criminal Court. He has been a central personality in Islamic and African politics as well as a love to hate figure for the US in the war on terror. For military history readers, Al Bashir is a field marshal who has fought possibly the world's longest conflict. Modern Sudan has been embroiled in war since 1955. No proper biography has been written on him before. Nor has there been a comprehensive military history of Sudan. The book briefly covers the military background until independence. Then it dissects the long north-south civil war until Bashir's Islamist military coup in 1989. Thereafter, it narrates the wars in the east-south-west in Darfur. International political and military intervention is also factored in. The author draws on in-depth interviews with Bashir himself and his family and close political, military, and intelligence colleagues.

The A to Z of Civil Wars in Africa Guy Arnold, 2009-09-02

Ever since the end of World War II and even more so since 1960 when 17 African colonies became independent of colonial rule, the African continent has been ravaged by a series of wars. These wars have ranged from liberation struggles against former colonial powers to power struggles between different factions in the aftermath of independence. They have ranged from border wars between newly independent states to civil wars between ethnic groups. As with many conflicts, outside forces were drawn into these wars, and major powers outside the continent intervened on one side or the other for a variety of reasons: political ideology, Cold War considerations, ethnic alignments, and stemming the flow of violence. Whether referring to Algeria's struggle for independence from French colonial rule, Nigeria's internal struggles to achieve a balanced state after the British departure, the Rwandan genocide of 1994, or the current ethnic cleansing in Darfur, The A to Z of Civil Wars in Africa covers all of the wars that have occurred in Africa since independence. This is done through a chronology broken down by country, an introductory essay, a bibliography, and cross-referenced dictionary entries covering the wars, conflicts, major political and military figures, child soldiers, mercenaries, and blood diamonds.

To Fight and Learn Leslie David Gottesman, Leslie Gottesman, 1998

This study examines the remarkable testimony of Eritrea's fighter teachers, the teenagers who spent years behind enemy lines teaching peasants and nomads to read and write during Eritrea's independence struggle.

Historical Dictionary of Ethiopia David H. Shinn, Thomas P. Ofcansky, 2013-04-11

Ethiopia is clearly one of the most important countries in Africa. First of all, with about 75 million people, it is the third most populous country in Africa. Second, it is very strategically located in the Horn of Africa and borders Eritrea, Sudan, Kenya, and Somalia, with some of whom it has touchy and sometimes worse relations Yet its capital Addis Ababa is the headquarters of the African Union the prime meeting place for Africa's leaders So if things went poorly in Ethiopia this would not be good for Africa and for a long time this was the case with internal disruption rife until it was literally suppressed under the strong rule of the recently deceased Meles Zenawi The Historical Dictionary of Ethiopia Second Edition covers the history of Ethiopia through a chronology an introductory essay appendixes and an extensive bibliography The dictionary section has several hundred cross referenced entries on important personalities politics economy foreign relations religion and culture This book is an excellent access point for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about Ethiopia The Atlas of African Affairs Ieuan L.I. Griffiths, 2013-06-17

The Atlas of African Affairs is divided into five sections dealing with environmental historical political and economic issues and with Southern Africa Throughout the book presents an interdisciplinary integrated perspective on African affairs Most of the chapters deal with continent wide themes and are illustrated by maps of Africa as a whole drawn to a standardised outline of the same map projection and scale Other chapters often by way of example discuss parts of the continent or individual countries and are illustrated with appropriate maps The basic format of integrated text and maps is supplemented by guides to further reading at the end of each section as well as a series of detailed statistical tables at the end of the book

Francis, 2017-05-15 Plagued by bloody wars and armed conflicts political instability communal violence and displaced persons and at the mercy of natural catastrophes such as drought and famine it is not surprising that the Western press has long dismissed Africa as the hopeless continent In the face of these challenges Africa today is faced with a stark choice either unite or perish The debate on why and how the continent should unite in terms of co operative peace security and development is more urgent than at any other time in Africa s post colonial history Moving forward from the failure of the earlier typically idealistic Africa unity project David Francis demonstrates how peace and security challenges have created the imperative for change He argues that a series of regional peace and security systems are emerging and that states that have participated in practical experiments in regional peacekeeping peace support operations conflict stabilization management and preventive diplomacy are building de facto systems of peace and security that could be institutionalized and extended Historical Dictionary of Civil Wars in Africa Guy Arnold, 2008 This second edition of the Historical Dictionary of Civil Wars in Africa reviews the wars that have occurred in Africa in the past half century Algeria s struggle for independence from French colonial rule Nigeria s fight to achieve a balanced state after the British departure the Rwandan genocide of 1994 and the current ethnic cleansing in Darfur to name only a few It contains a chronology a list of acronyms and abbreviations an introductory essay a bibliography and cross referenced dictionary entries on wars conflicts major political and military figures and topics such as child soldiers mercenaries and blood diamonds Jacket Adulis ,1984
