German Ethnography in Australia Nicolas Peterson,Anna Kenny,2017-09-21 The contribution of German ethnography to Australian anthropological scholarship on Aboriginal societies and cultures has been limited primarily because few people working in the field read German But it has also been neglected because its humanistic concerns with language religion and mythology contrasted with the mainstream British social anthropological tradition that prevailed in Australia until the late 1960s The advent of native title claims which require drawing on the earliest ethnography for any area together with an increase in research on rock art of the Kimberley region has stimulated interest in this German ethnography as have some recent book translations Even so several major bodies of ethnography such as the 13 volumes on the cultures of northeastern South Australia and the seven volumes on the Aranda of the Alice Springs region remain inaccessible along with many ethnographically rich articles and reports in mission archives In 18 chapters this book introduces and reviews the significance of this neglected work much of it by missionaries who first wrote on Australian Aboriginal cultures in the 1840s Almost all of these German speakers in particular the missionaries learnt an Aboriginal language in order to be able to document religious beliefs mythology and songs as a first step to conversion As a result they produced an enormously valuable body of work that will greatly enrich regional ethnographies Aboriginal Artists of the Western Desert Vivien Johnson,1994 The Australian Desert Roslynn Haynes,2024-11-04 This unique book is the only fully interdisciplinary and comprehensive study of the Australian desert and its pivotal role in the cultural history of Australia Beginning with the prehistory of the continent it engages with geology the Aboriginal Dreaming narratives of origin the arrival of the first Australians Aboriginal culture of the Dreaming anthropology colonial history and the cult of the inland explorer hero and integration of the central deserts through the responses of writers artists and filmmakers into the national identity Chapters explore the unique way Indigenous artists have evolved a method of expressing their spiritual relationship to Country while hiding from uninitiated eyes the secret sacred meaning beneath the paint It takes us on a journey through the politics of Land Rights for First Nations peoples the Uluru Statement from the Heart and an analysis of Indigenous ecological principles which may suggest a new and radical approach to navigating climate change in the Anthropocene The Australian Desert is written for scholars of fine arts anthropology literature film studies cultural history Indigenous studies ecology and tourism and for anyone interested in deserts Dreamings of the Desert Vivien Johnson, Art Gallery of South Australia, 1996

Aboriginal artists re enact the creation the Dreaming a sacred art envisioned today on board canvas and textiles in colorful and energetic U shapes dots concentric circles journey lines and superimposed images Out of Line Margaret Maynard, 2001 Shows how Australian women have created their own sense of national and regional identity through their dress and in so doing puts a new slant on the history of Australian women s fashion in the twentieth century This book argues that Australian women s fashions may be superficially derivative but that there are patterns of dress Aboriginal Art A&I Howard Morphy, 1998-10-11 A survey of the great variety of Aboriginal art Crosscurrents in Australian First Nations and Non-Indigenous Art Sarah Scott, Helen McDonald, Caroline Jordan, 2023-08-11 This edited collection examines art resulting from cross cultural interactions between Australian First Nations and non Indigenous people from the British invasion to today Focusing on themes of collaboration and dialogue the book includes two conversations between First Nations and non Indigenous authors and an historian s self reflexive account of mediating between traditional owners and an international art auction house to repatriate art There are studies of reverse appropriation by early nineteenth century Aboriginal carvers of tourist artefacts and the production of enigmatic toa Cross cultural dialogue is traced from the post war period to Aboriginalism in design and the First Nations fashion industry of today Transculturation conceptualism and collaboration are contextualised in the 1980s a pivotal decade for the growth of collaborative First Nations exhibitions Within the current circumstances of political protest in photographic portraiture and against the mining of sacred Aboriginal land Crosscurrents in Australian First Nations and Non Indigenous Art testifies to the need for Australian institutions to collaborate with First Nations people more often and better This book will appeal to students and scholars of art history Indigenous anthropology and museum and heritage studies
