Design Dialogue: Jews, Culture and Viennese Modernism Elana Shapira, 2018-10-01 The Design Dialogue anthology is a remarkable exploration of the decisive role of Jewish patrons professionals architects designers and authors in shaping modern Viennese architecture design and material culture Leading cultural historians museum curators art historians and architects present cutting edge research examining how famous and less known protagonists created new cultural languages identifications and networks engaged in social debates and contributed to the cultural renewal of Vienna a major capital in Central Europe between 1800 and 1938 Women, Modernity, and Landscape Architecture Sonja Dümpelmann, John Beardsley, 2015-02-11 Modernity was critically important to the formation and evolution of landscape architecture yet its histories in the discipline are still being written This book looks closely at the work and influences of some of the least studied figures of the era established and less well known female landscape architects who pursued modernist ideals in their designs The women discussed in this volume belong to the pioneering first two generations of professional landscape architects and were outstanding in the field They not only developed notable practices but some also became leaders in landscape architectural education as the first professors in the discipline or prolific lecturers and authors As early professionals who navigated the world of a male dominated intellectual and menial work force they were exponents of modernity In addition many personalities discussed in this volume were either figures of transition between tradition and modernism like Silvia Crowe Maria Teresa Parpagliolo or they fully embraced and furthered the modernist agenda like Rosa Kliass Cornelia Oberlander The chapters offer new perspectives and contribute to the development of a more balanced and integrated landscape architectural historiography of the twentieth century Contributions come from practitioners and academics who discuss women based in USA Canada Brazil New Zealand South Africa the former USSR Sweden Britain Germany Austria France and Italy Ideal reading for those studying landscape history women s studies and cultural geography

Relations in Architecture August Sarnitz, 2020-05-05 The title of the book sets the two fields of activity pursued by the architect architectural historian and theorist August Sarnitz building and writing in a reciprocal relation the context to what has been built emerges in the process of writing just as the context to what has been written emerges in the process of building The structure of the book follows precisely this reciprocity an essay about architectural history and Big Data is followed by three on the topics of urban development social housing and the fiction of space A number of influential Viennese architects appear as well Frank Kiesler Hollein and Prix The topics of housing design and furniture are all illustrated with Sarnitz's own projects the end of the book is dedicated to architectural photography which is especially important to Sarnitz in his capacity as publicist The richly illustrated book is the first to document Sarnitz's work as author designer exhibition designer architect and photographer

Vertical Living Julia Gatley, Paul Walker, 2014-09-01 In 1946 a group of students and idealists got together to realize their visions for a modern city Over the following half century the Architectural Centre they founded helped shape the possibilities of modern life in urban New Zealand and profoundly influenced the remaking of the capital city of Wellington More than just an association of architects the Centre furthered education published a magazine Design Review hosted modernist exhibitions in its gallery staged an audacious campaign for political influence called the Project and fought for better planning better design and better built environments in Wellington Charting these activists and their projects over the years Julia Gatley and Paul Walker also offer a history of urban Wellington from the 1940s to the 1990s and beyond The book reminds us that in modernist ideology architecture and urban planning went hand in hand with visual and craft arts graphic and industrial design In recovering the multidisciplinary history politics and planning of the Architectural Centre Gatley and Walker begin writing the city back into the history of architecture in New Zealand

Karl Langer, 2021-12-30 Despite a European training and an early career working with Peter Behrens a migration from Vienna to the Australian state of Queensland positioned the architect Karl Langer 1903 1969 at the very edge of both European and Australian modernism Confronted by tropical heat and glare the economics of affordable housing fiercely proud and regional architectural practices and a suspicion of the foreign Langer moulded the European language of international modernism to the unique climatic and social conditions of tropical Australia This book will tell Langer's story through a series of edited essays focused on key themes and projects Published as part of the Bloomsbury Studies in Modern Architecture series which brings to light the work of significant yet overlooked modernist architects it is both an examination of an architect's work and international legacy and also a case study in the trans global dissemination of design ideas Studying the architect's built and proposed work both regional and metropolitan the scale and reach of Langer's practice will be considered for the first time showing how given his continued influence on the contemporary culture of tropical design Langer has been unjustly ignored by the historiography of both Australian and Modernist architecture to date

The Challenge of Change Dirk van den Heuvel, 2008 Conservation of architecture and the conversation of Modern architecture in particular has assumed new challenges Rather than attempting to return a Modern building to its resumed original state the challenge of these proceedings is to revalue the essence of the manifold manifestations of Modern architecture and redefine its meanings in a rapidly changing world of digital revolution worldwide mobility and environmental awareness This volume aims to provide a variety of platforms for the exchange of ideas and experience A large international group of architects historians scholars preservationists and other parties involved in the processes of preserving renovating and transforming Modern buildings has been invited to investigate the paradox of the Modern monument and to reflect on the manifold dilemmas of change and continuity The general theme is elaborated through five sub themes The sub theme Change and Continuity addresses the tensions between change and continuity from a historical theoretical perspective Restructuring Cities and Landscapes focuses on the larger scale of city and landscape while Shifts in Programme and Flexibility draws attention to the scale of the building or building complex and questions limits of re use and flexibility The fourth sub theme deals with education and the fifth sub theme Progress Technology and Sustainability considers specific issues of techniques and materials

At Home in New Zealand Barbara Lesley Brookes, 2000

The Lives of Lucian Freud: The Restless Years William Feaver, 2019-10-29 The first biography of the epic life of one of the most important enigmatic and private artists of the 20th century Drawn from almost 40 years of conversations with the artist letters and papers it is a major work written by a well known British art critic Lucian Freud 1922-2011 is one of the most influential figurative painters of the 20th century His paintings are in every major museum and many private collections here and abroad William Feaver's daily calls from 1973 until Freud died in 2011 as well as interviews with family and friends were crucial sources for this book Freud had ferocious energy worked day and night but his circle was broad including not just other well known artists but writers bluebloods royals in England and Europe drag queens fashion models gamblers bookies and gangsters like the Kray twins Fierce rebellious charismatic extremely guarded about his life he was witty mischievous and a womanizer This brilliantly researched book begins with the Freuds life in Berlin the rise of Hitler and the family's escape to London in 1933 when Lucian was 10 Sigmund Freud was his grandfather and Ernst his father was an architect In London in his twenties his first solo show was in 1944 at the Lefevre Gallery Around this time Stephen Spender introduced him to Virginia Woolf at night he was taking Pauline Tennant to the Gargoyle Club owned by her father and frequented by Dylan Thomas he was also meeting Sonia Orwell Cecil Beaton Auden Patrick Leigh Fermor and the Aly Khan and his muse was a married femme fatale 13 years older Lorna Wishart But it was Francis Bacon who would become his most important influence and the painters Frank Auerbach and David Hockney close friends This is an extremely intimate lively and rich portrait of the artist full of gossip and stories recounted by Freud to Feaver about people encounters and work Freud's art was his life my work is purely autobiographical and he usually painted only family friends lovers children though there were exceptions like the famous small portrait of the Queen With his later portraits the subjects were often nude names were never given and sittings could take up to 16 months each session lasting five hours but subjects were rarely bored as Freud was a great raconteur and mimic This book is a major achievement a tour de force that reveals the details of the life and innermost thoughts of the greatest portrait painter of our time Volume I has 41 black and white integrated images and 2 eight page color inserts

Vienna and the New Wohnkultur, 1918-1938 Michelle Jackson-Beckett, 2024-03-20 While the domestic sphere might seem tangential to the dire political situation and humanitarian crises of interwar Europe it was nevertheless at the forefront of debates about cultural identity and economic policy in the Viennese press culture and arts Vienna and the New Wohnkultur 1918 1938 explores why and how the Viennese design landscape was set apart aesthetically and theoretically from other European explorations of modern design Jackson Beckett examines interior design exhibitions press and debates about modern living in interwar Vienna an overlooked area of modern European architecture and design history arguing for a reconsideration of the contours of European modernism The text analyses varied interpretations of modern domestic culture Wohnkultur in Vienna and explores why these interpretations were distinct from other strands of European modernism Vienna and the New Wohnkultur introduces new research and translation of primary sources on flexible adaptable and affordable design by architects designers and retailers Vienna's design discourse also prefigured important postmodern and contemporary discussions on historicism eclecticism empathy and user experience Through extensive new research in archival and period sources Jackson Beckett illustrates how design ideas taste and portrayals of domestic culture of fin de siècle Viennese Modernism Wiener Moderne were also deployed as forms of cultural and national identity both during the early years of the Social Democratic government in Vienna 1918 1934 and later under the fascist state 1934 1938 Victoria

University of Wellington, 1899-1999 Rachel Barrowman, 1999 Strangers Arrive Leonard Bell, 2017-11-17 None of us had the faintest idea where we were going but during 1938 39 the town Christchurch was made strangely interesting for anyone like myself with the scattered arrival of the refugees All at once there were people among us who were actually from Vienna or Chemnitz or Berlin who knew the work of Schoenberg and Gropius Anthony Alpers 1985 From the 1930s through the 1950s a substantial number of forced migrants refugees from Nazism displaced people after World War II and escapees from Communist countries arrived in New Zealand from Europe Among them were an extraordinary group of artists and writers photographers and architects whose European modernism radically reshaped the arts in this country In words and pictures Strangers Arrive tells their story Ranging across the arts from photographer Irene Koppel to art dealer and printmaker Kees Hos architect Imric Porsolt to writer Antigone Kefala Leonard Bell takes us inside New Zealand's bookstores and coffeehouses studios and galleries to introduce us to a compelling body of artistic work He asks key questions How were migrants received by New Zealanders How did displacement and settlement in New Zealand transform their work How did the arrival of European modernists intersect with the burgeoning nationalist movement in the arts in New Zealand Strangers Arrive introduces us to a talented group of aliens who were critical catalysts for change in New Zealand culture Planning and Designing Sustainable and Resilient Landscapes Cerasella Crăciun, Maria Bostenaru Dan, 2014-02-03 This book deals with planning issues in landscape architecture which start at the evaluation of the existing fabric of society its history and memory approached and conserved through photography film and scenographic installations a way in which the archetypes can be investigated be it industrial derelict sites or already green spaces and cultural landscapes It provides approaches to intervention through rehabilitation and upgrade eventually in participative manner To such evaluation and promotion a couple of disciplines can contribute such as history of art geography and communication science and of course landscape architecture The field of landscape architecture reunites points of view from such different disciplines with a view to an active approach a contemporary intervention or conservation The book presents case studies from several European countries Romania Germany Austria Italy Portugal mostly for large landscape in the outskirts of the cities and in the parks

A History of Silence: A Memoir (NZ Ed) Lloyd Jones, 2013-08-21 Stone by stone the basilica was being dismantled in order to be put back together again Each stone was painted with a number and laid with care onto pallets spread over the ground I kept thinking about those numbered stones Some purpose began to take shape I began to wonder if I might re trace and recover something of my own past to reassemble it in the manner of the basilica It was a matter of looking to see if any of the original building blocks remained and where might I find them The 2011 earthquake that shook Christchurch to its core led Lloyd Jones to investigate his own foundations and family past And so begins a quest to revisit what has been buried by a legacy of silence Piecing together his own memories with clues of what has been deliberately forgotten by his parents Jones embarks on a journey of discovery uncovering hardships endured and sorrows kept hidden Grandparents never spoken of or met emerge from dusty archives as he unearths lives torn apart by tragedy and unspoken mysteries Like the city that is exposed Jones must come to terms with a history that is not one he may have imagined Also available as an eBook

Experiments in Modern Living Milton Cameron, 2012-05-01 When a group of brilliant young scientists arrived in Australia s national capital after World War II to take up leading roles in the establishment of national research institutions they commissioned Australia s leading architects to design their private houses The houses that resulted from these unique collaborations rejected previous architectural styles and wholeheartedly embraced modernist ideologies and aesthetics The story of how these progressive clients contributed to the innovative design of their houses brings fresh insights to mid twentieth century Australian domestic architecture and to Canberra s rich cultural history

The Modern Period Room Penny Sparke,Brenda Martin,Trevor Keeble,2006-08-21 With contributors drawn from a broad range of disciplines The Modern Period Room brings together a carefully selected collection of essays to consider the interiors of the modern era and their more recent reconstructions from a variety of different viewpoints Contributions from leading design historians architects and curators of the history of the domestic interior in the UK engage with the issues and conventions surrounding the modern period room to expose the conflicting tensions that lie beneath the conceptual and physical strategy of the modern period room s representational technique Exploring themes and examples by prestigious architects such as Ern Goldfinger Truus Schroeder and Gerrit Rietveld the authors reveal the specific coding of presented interior spaces This illustrated new take on the historiography of twentieth century show interiors enables historians and theorists of architecture design and social history to investigate the contexts in which this representational device has been used

A Century of Austrian Design Tulga Beyerle,Karin Hirschberger,2013-03-04 A Century of Austrian Design offers a highly accessible overview of Austrian design culture from 1900 to the present against the background of the country s extremely turbulent industrial history In the process the key aspects are explained in essays by celebrated experts The book attempts to delineate a specifically Austrian formal language citing as examples specific achievements in historical and contemporary design As it does so it also sheds light on other defining moments of Austria s design culture including the enormous potential of its inventors the phenomenon of semi industrial manufacturing and the innovative design solutions advanced by the Austrian sporting goods industry A yellow pages section with selected design addresses rounds off the volume

Freud and the Émigré Elana Shapira,Daniela Finzi,2020-10-16 This book reconsiders standard narratives regarding Austrian migr s and exiles to Britain by addressing the seminal role of Sigmund Freud and his writings and the critical part played by his contemporaries in the construction of a method promoting humanized relations between individual and society and subjectivity and culture This anthology presents groundbreaking examples of the manners in which well known personalities including psychoanalysts Anna Freud and Ernst Kris sociologist Marie Jahoda authors Stefan Zweig and Hilde Spiel film director Berthold Viertel architect Ernst Freud and artist Oskar Kokoschka achieved a greater impact and contributed to the broadening of British and global cultures through constructing a psychologically effective language and activating their migr networks They advanced a visionary Viennese tradition through political and social engagements and through promoting humanistic perspectives in their scientific educational and artistic works
