Eros The Bittersweet An Essay By Carson:

Eros the Bittersweet Anne Carson, 2023-11-14 Selected by the Modern Library as one of the 100 best nonfiction books of all time A book about romantic love Eros the Bittersweet is Anne Carson's exploration of the concept of eros in both classical philosophy and literature Beginning with It was Sappho who first called eros bittersweet No one who has been in love disputes her Carson examines her subject from numerous points of view creating a lyrical meditation in the tradition of William Carlos Williams s Spring and All and William H Gass s On Being Blue Epigrammatic witty ironic and endlessly entertaining Eros is an utterly original book Eros, the Bittersweet Anne Carson, 1988 The Cambridge History of the American Essay Christy Wampole, Jason Childs, 2023-12-14 From the country's beginning essayists in the United States have used their prose to articulate the many ways their individuality has been shaped by the politics social life and culture of this place The Cambridge History of the American Essay offers the fullest account to date of this diverse and complex history From Puritan writings to essays by Indigenous authors from Transcendentalist and Pragmatist texts to Harlem Renaissance essays from New Criticism to New Journalism The story of the American essay is told here beginning in the early eighteenth century and ending with the vibrant heterogeneous scene of contemporary essayistic writing The essay in the US has taken many forms nature writing travel writing the genteel tradition literary criticism hybrid genres such as the essay film and the photo essay Across genres and identities this volume offers a stirring account of American essayism into the twenty first Anne Carson: Antiquity Laura Jansen, 2021-10-07 From her seminal Eros the Bittersweet 1986 to her century experimental Float 2016 Bakkhai 2017 and Norma Jeane Baker of Troy 2019 Anne Carson's engagement with antiquity has been deeply influential to generations of readers both inside and outside of academia One reason for her success is the versatile scope of her classically oriented oeuvre which she rethinks across multiple media and categories Yet an equally significant reason is her profile as a classicist In this role Carson unfailingly refuses to conform to the established conventions and situated practices of her discipline in favour of a mode of reading classical literature that allows for interpretative and creative freedom From a multi praxis cross disciplinary perspective the volume explores the erudite indiscipline of Carson's classicism as it emerges in her poetry translations essays and visual artistry. It argues that her classicism is irreducible to a single vision and that it is best approached as integral to the protean character of her artistic thought Anne Carson Antiquity collects twenty essays by poets translators artists practitioners and scholars It offers the first collective study of the author's classicism while drawing attention to one of the most avant garde multifaceted readings of the classical past Leviticus as Discourse Allison K. Hamm, 2025-02-25 Leviticus as Discourse is an inquiry into textual interpretation as an activity of self orientation It explores how readers orient themselves to texts they do not understand why they do it and what happens in the process Drawing on the work of Paul Ricoeur George Steiner and a range of voices across disciplines and faiths Part I develops a hermeneutic of discourse in which difficulty features prominently as both challenge and opportunity Part II tests this hermeneutic of difficult discourse through three exegetical probes of the function of discourse as it is portrayed in Leviticus In light of this theoretical and exegetical work the book concludes by suggesting that the extent of a text s difficulty may be precisely the extent of its potential to enlarge and enrich our ways of seeing the world and our place within it Anchored in robust scholarship and close reading of the biblical text Leviticus as Discourse demonstrates the practical value of developing transferable interpretive skills to offer a fresh take on the relevance of Leviticus for contemporary readers Reach without Grasping Louis A. Ruprecht Jr., 2021-11-17 Anne Carson b June 21 1950 in Toronto Canada is one of the most versatile of contemporary classicists poets and translators in the English language In Reach without Grasping Louis A Ruprecht Jr explores the role played by generic transgressions on the one hand and by embodied spirituality on the other throughout Carson's ambitious literary career Where others see classical dichotomies soul versus body classical versus Christian Carson sees connection Like Nietzsche before her Carson decries the images of the Classics as merely bookish and of classicists as disembodied intellects She has brought religious bodily erotics back into the heart of the classical tradition A Study Guide for Anne Carson's "New Rule" Gale, Cengage Learning, 2016 A Study Guide for Anne Carson's New Rule excerpted from Gale's acclaimed Poetry for Students This concise study guide includes plot summary character analysis author biography study questions historical context suggestions for further reading and much more For any literature project trust Poetry for Students for all of your research needs In Translation

Reflections, Refractions, Transformations Paul St-Pierre, Prafulla C. Kar, 2007-05-16 With contributions by researchers from India Europe North America and the Caribbean In Translation Reflections refractions transformations touches on questions of method and on topics including copyright cultural hybridity globalization identity construction and minority languages which are important for the disciplinary development of translation studies but also of interest to other fields as well most notably comparative literature cultural studies and world literature The volume provides a forum for new voices to be heard alongside those of well established scholars and for current concerns to express themselves often focusing on practices in areas of the world other than Europe or North America which have until now tended to dominate the field Acknowledging difference and celebrating it the contributions conceive of translation as a process which reconstitutes and transforms which brings renewal and growth an interaction in a new context a new reading a new writing Poets and Poems Harold Bloom, 2009 Presents a compilation of Bloom's introductions to the Modern critical views and Modern critical interpretations series of books focusing on poets and poems God Gardened East Louis A. Ruprecht, 2008-01-01 Working within two popular genres gardening books and biblical meditations God Gardened East offers a meditation on the first twenty five chapters of Genesis emphasizing the tropes of cultivation wandering and the east Reconceived in a post 9 11 environment Ruprecht wrestles with difficult questions about the violent legacy of monotheism and traces some of this violence back to the foundational story of Abraham and his dislocation from his homeland The Digital, a Continent? Vera

Bühlmann,2023-12-18 In The Digital a Continent the author argues in favor of a way of thinking about digital technology that draws on the new materialism She uses photosynthesis and nuclear fission as examples of processes that are as artificial as they are natural to explain how digital technology can be viewed within the paradigm of a communicative physics in which poetics interacts with mathematical thinking The author concludes that we can better understand ourselves and digital technology by developing notions of the multifaceted ways energy form and intellect interact in global architectonics Theoretical consideration of digital technology Visual language and science New volume in the Applied Virtuality Book Series

Seeing and Being Seen Joshua Coleman, 2017-12-16 Contemporary environmental Philosophy has overwhelmingly continued certain materialist assumptions toward nature In its pursuit to better use nature s material offering for future generations there remains little discussion about these materialist assumptions much less their contribution to the current crisis In fact outside the Modern West the vast majority of societies saw nature as bringing more than just material that it brought something more than meets the eye Thus our conceptions of what is actually seen impacts our response to it and before even thinking about that response Along these lines our conceptions of beauty play a large role in how we approach and determine nature s value Such aesthetic assumptions directly impact our desires with regard to nature whether or not we see it as a place of sacred dwelling or merely for surface pleasure and use And again aside from the Modern West nature has been seen as the former naturally causing a sort of reverence which in turns alters our interactions with the natural world as well as with non human animals and other human beings The ability then to see nature as a primary relationship tied to our aesthetic conceptions and presuppositions rather than only a place of use for our own continued biological existence has the potential to impact communal desire with regard to the environment and it is only such a change in communal desire that will make an effective and lasting impact on the current crisis Architecture in Words Louise Pelletier, 2006-09-27 This innovative title provides an in depth interdisciplinary study of the influence of theatre and fiction in defining character in eighteenth century architecture pushing current architects to rediscover the communicative aspects of Hitchcock as Philosopher of the Erotic Richard Gilmore, 2024-06-07 This book reads Alfred Hitchcock as a their work philosopher of what constitutes the erotic The author argues that Hitchcock is doing a post Nietzschean postmodern kind of philosophy in which he is exploring and creating possibilities of what the erotic can feel like and how the erotic can be expressed The erotic is a pervasive phenomenon in Hitchcock's films It involves irony play and sophistication and there can be erotic failures as well as erotic successes The erotic is most complexly explored by Hitchcock in his two masterpieces from the 1950s Vertigo 1958 a story of the failure of the erotic and North by Northwest 1959 in which the erotic is consummated in marriage The author argues that Hitchcock has a philosophical theory about what makes the difference It is a version of existential philosophy that understands what a person is to be based on what they make of themselves through their choices The author argues that the erotic for Hitchcock is a process of mutual reciprocal creation of the personality of the other person This process is complicated by the fact that as one attempts to create the person one desires one is simultaneously being created by that other person and so what one desires is also in a process of being recreated in the mutual reciprocal dance of the erotic entanglement There is a moral dimension to this because erotic failure is in a way a failure of the human not in the sense of a human essence but in the sense of realizing human possibilities that can make our lives more satisfying complete and full Hitchcock as Philosopher of the Erotic will appeal to scholars and advanced students working on philosophy of film film studies and philosophy of love and sex Attunement Alberto Perez-Gomez, 2016-02-26 How architecture can move beyond the contemporary enthusiasms for the technically sustainable and the formally dazzling to enhance our human values and capacities Architecture remains in crisis its social relevance lost between the two poles of formal innovation and technical sustainability In Attunement Alberto P rez G mez calls for an architecture that can enhance our human values and capacities an architecture that is connected attuned to its location and its inhabitants Architecture P rez G mez explains operates as a communicative setting for societies its beauty and its meaning lie in its connection to human health and self understanding Our physical places are of utmost importance for our well being Drawing on recent work in embodied cognition P rez G mez argues that the environment including the built environment matters not only as a material ecology but because it is nothing less than a constituent part of our consciousness To be fully self aware we need an external environment replete with meanings and emotions P rez G mez views architecture through the lens of mood and atmosphere linking these ideas to the key German concept of Stimmung attunement and its roots in Pythagorean harmony and Vitruvian temperance or proportion He considers the primacy of place over space the linguistic aspect of architecture the voices of architecture and the voice of the architect architecture as a multisensory not pictorial experience with Piranesi Ledoux and Hejduk as examples of metaphorical modeling and how Stimmung might be put to work today to realize the contemporary possibilities of attunement Poetry & Barthes Calum Gardner, 2018 The influence of Roland Barthes on contemporary culture has been the subject of much analysis but never before has this influence been closely examined in relation to poetry This innovative study traces Anglophone poetry s response to the literary and cultural theory of Barthes from debate to adoption adaptation and rejection Sex, Love, and Friendship, 2022-07-18 This collection joins together sixty essays on the philosophy of love and sex Each was presented at a meeting of The Society for the Philosophy of Sex and Love held between 1977 and 1992 and later revised for this edition Topics addressed include ethical and political issues AIDS abortion homosexual rights and pornography conceptual matters the nature essence or definition of love friendship sexual desire and perversion the study of classical and historical figures Plato Aristotle Spinoza Kant and Kierkegaard and issues in feminist theory sexual objectification the social construction of female sexuality reproductive and marital arrangements Authors include Jerome Shaffer Sandra Harding Michael Ruse Richard Mohr Russell Vannoy Claudia Card M C Dillon Gene Fendt Steven Emmanuel T F Morris Timo Airaksinen and Sylvia Walsh The editor who is the author of Pornography 1986 The

Structure of Love 1990 and Sexual Investigations 1996 has also contributed six pieces and an Introduction Sappho and Catullus in Twentieth-Century Italian and North American Poetry Cecilia Piantanida, 2021-01-14 Going beyond exclusively national perspectives this volume considers the reception of the ancient Greek poet Sappho and her first Latin translator Catullus as a literary pair who transmit poetic culture across the world from the early 20th century to the present Sappho s and Catullus reception has shaped a transnational network of poets and intellectuals helping to define ideas of origins gender sexuality and national identities This book shows that across time and cultures translations and rewritings of Sappho and Catullus articulate modernist poetics of myth and fragmentation forms of confessionalism and post modern pastiche The inquiry focuses on Italian and North American poetry as two central yet understudied hubs of Sappho s and Catullus modern reception also linked by a rich mutual intellectual exchange key case studies include Giovanni Pascoli Ezra Pound H D Salvatore Quasimodo Robert Lowell Rosita Copioli and Anne Carson and cover a wide range of unpublished archival material Texts are analysed and compared through reception and translation theories and inserted within the current debate on the Classics as World Literature demonstrating how sustained transnational poetic discourse employs the ancient pair to expand notions of literary origins and redefine poetry s relationship to human existence Still Mad: American Women Writers and the Feminist Imagination Sandra M. Gilbert, Susan Gubar, 2021-08-17 A brilliant sweeping history of the contemporary women s movement told through the lives and works of the literary women who shaped it Forty years after their first groundbreaking work of feminist literary theory The Madwoman in the Attic award winning collaborators Sandra M Gilbert and Susan Gubar map the literary history of feminism's second wave From its stirrings in the midcentury when Sylvia Plath Betty Friedan and Joan Didion found their voices and Diane di Prima Lorraine Hansberry and Audre Lorde discovered community in rebellion to a resurgence in the new millennium in the writings of Alison Bechdel Claudia Rankine and N K Jemisin Gilbert and Gubar trace the evolution of feminist literature They offer lucid compassionate and piercing readings of major works by these writers and others including Adrienne Rich Ursula K Le Guin Maxine Hong Kingston Susan Sontag Gloria Anzald a and Toni Morrison Activists and theorists like Nina Simone Gloria Steinem Andrea Dworkin Eve Kosofsky Sedgwick and Judith Butler also populate these pages as Gilbert and Gubar examine the overlapping terrain of literature and politics in a comprehensive portrait of an expanding movement As Gilbert and Gubar chart feminist gains including creative new forms of protests and changing attitudes toward gender and sexuality they show how the legacies of second wave feminists and the misogynistic culture they fought extend to the present In doing so they celebrate the diversity Engendering Inspiration Helen and urgency of women who have turned passionate rage into powerful writing Sword,1995 Investigates the development of a gendered poetics of inspiration in the modernist period
